Deep into his book, Zachery Thompson reads Death of a Salesman in AP English. "AP English is an intimidating class," said Zachery. Mr. Peccini has been teaching AP English for six years.

Ana Martinez enjoys sitting and talking with the kids in Childcare class. Fortunately those who work at the preschool can get this advantage. She even commented, "The preschool makes my day better."

Four Years Set in Stone

by Rachel Borba

When one says "Set in Stone," he or she means that something is permanent, it's final, ca-put, it's done, you get the gist - it will always be there. Once a mason carves into a stone, the marking is etched forever; it cannot be erased, forgotten or overlooked. High school memories have the same effect. Alexa Theodore commented, "To me, the theme means that the memories of high school are there forever - you can't change them, but you can always look back."

"I LIKE THE THEME BECAUSE IT'S SOMETHING WE CAN ALL RELATE TO."

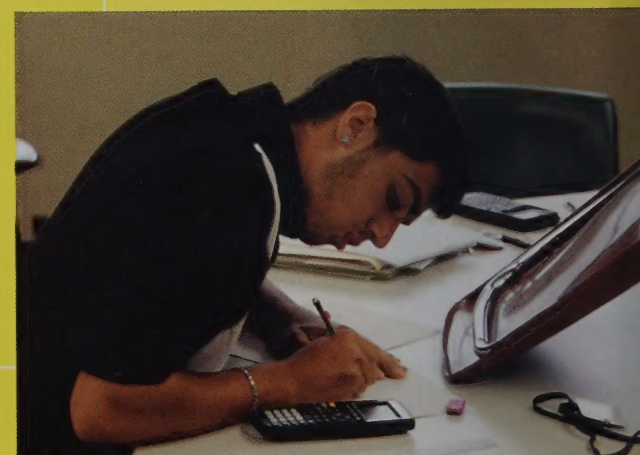

-Jenna Sylvia

No matter what, we will remember the past four years of high school. Mary Macedo stated, "To me, the theme means being able to look back on accomplishments we made and the times we all had together." Whether these are good carvings like great friendships, good grades and having new experiences, or mistakes we etched without thinking - they are in our hearts forever. Hopefully, our stones have more good carvings.

"I like the theme - it's something we can all relate to because we are setting memories in stone everyday," said Jenna Sylvia. This is so true. When we bump into each other years from now, random wierd memories will pop into our heads. Memories like having crazy sleepovers, day trips to Boston, goofing off in gym class, your lunch room conversations, going to a different country, or even driving your teachers crazy. These are your personalized memories that will forever be set in stone.

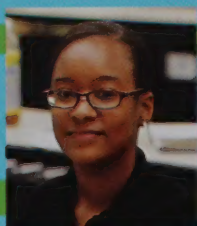

Always being a great math student, Brendon Botelho works diligently on the challenging calculus problem. "Mr. Rodrigues is awesome," he commented. "AP calculus is definitely one of my favorite classes."

-Macalyn Cabrera

-Tyler Wilkinson

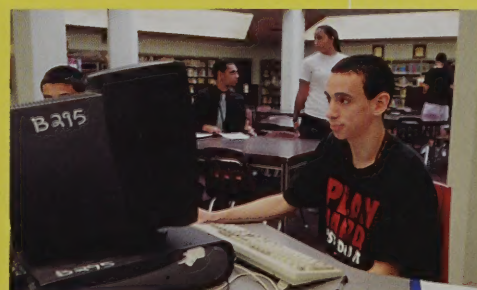

Kiyanna Miller and Maria Sanchez bake cupcakes one morning for the little preschoolers in Childcare class. Kiyanna commented about baking in the class, “It was very fun and very messy.” Maria Sanchez added, “It was fun, and I like being creative.”

Often found with a smile, Richard Netinho is always the comedian in a classroom. English came easily to him in that he can convey what he wants to say quite well. “I had some great times in English 12!” Richard later commented.

With much concentration, Diane Souza takes her time to perfect her artwork to impress Ms. Riley. “Ms. Riley is very honest about our artwork,” Diane stated. “She is very understanding and wants us to be the best we can be.”

Criminal Justice is a very popular and a well liked subject among New Bedford High students like Edward Colon. This class is full of funny moments and interesting subjects. Edward commented, “I love Criminal Justice, it is by far the funniest class I have ever had.”

Torie Manny serves the birdie over the net. Badminton is one of the five most popular gym classes to take. Torie commented that badminton is “totally awesome!”

1 Deep into his painting, Jonathan Rivera works on a project in art class. "Art class is a lot of fun," Jonathan said. "I like drawing 3-D art."

2 Marine biology is a relatively new and very popular class with Ms. Gifford as the teacher. During class, Lauren Kelly copies down notes. "I love Giff," Lauren said about Ms. Gifford.

In automotive, Dwayne Farias and Jared Goulet work together to fix an engine. Jared has taken many classes in the technology field at NBHS and enjoys the hands on work. "That class is great," Jared said. "I love working with that kind of stuff."

1. "Being with everyone at Junior Banquet and dancing was so great," Nicole Peixoto said.

2. Samantha Aguiar walks into Cafe Funchal holding her phone. She commented on the night, saying, "I like how Anthony and I were the cutest couple there."

3. While waiting to sit, Sarah Busby shares a laugh with Joshua Amaral, Nicholas Roberts, and Kayla Costa. "My favorite part of Junior Banquet was when Mr. DeMelo sang 'Use somebody,' by Kings of Leon," Sarah said.

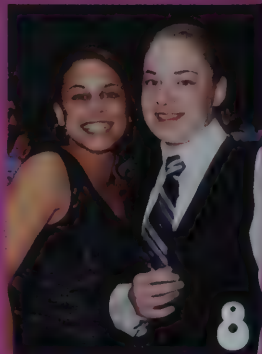

4. Chaperones Dean Cetenich and Madame Chambers give a quick smirk at the action on the dance floor. "I always look forward to Junior Banquet - seeing the juniors come together for their first social event," said Dean.

There were tons of excitement and fun at Junior Banquet. Richard Curtis entertained those that attended when he hit the dance floor and showed off his moves. There was tons of dancing throughout the night.

6. As dinner is about to be served, Stephan Talabach prepares to dig in. "That night met my expectations," Stephan said. "It was great."

7. In the middle of the banquet, Brienne Gil and Courtney Crompton share a smile. "Junior Banquet was mad fun," Brienne said. "The highlight of the night was just dancing and hanging out with friends." Melissa Robinson said, who was with Kristina Thompson on their way to the dance floor.

Rocked the Party

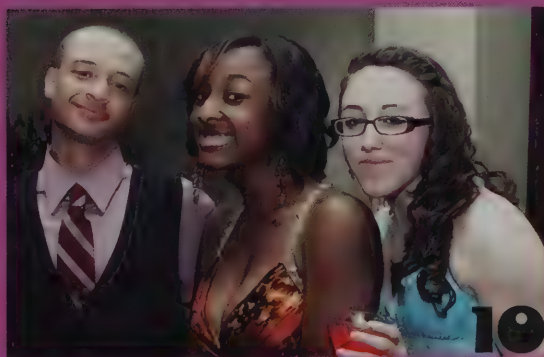

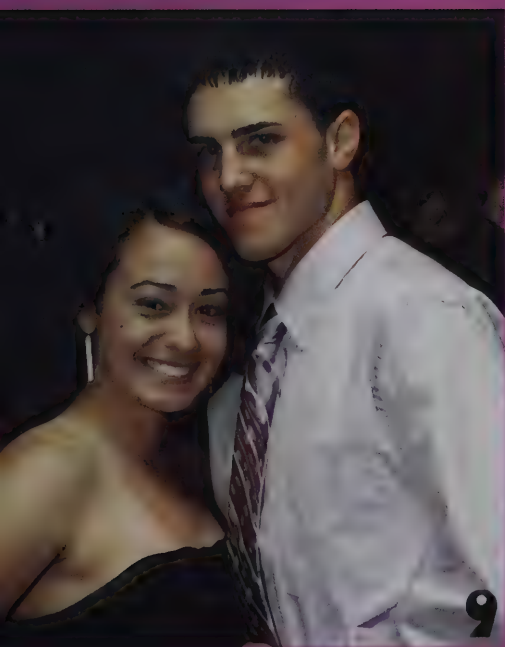

That Rocked the Party

There were tons of excitement as we entered the doors of Cafe Funchal. Teachers and administrators greeted us as we entered the hall. Once inside, we settled with our peers at our assigned tables. Junior Banquet, a tradition at New Bedford High, began. It was the first major event for the class of 2011, making it all the more special. The party started with speeches from Mr. Vasconcelles, Mr. Kulak, Dean Cetenich and our class officers President Courtney Miranda, Vice-President Taylor Pacheco, and Secretary Amanda Castro. After this, we enjoyed a delicious dinner of soup, chicken, and fish.

"The highlight of the night was Mr. DeMelo's performance. It was terrific and great."
-Dean Cetenich

After indulging ourselves, we were treated to a very special musical performance from our own Mr. DeMelo. While playing his guitar, he performed songs such as "I'm Yours" and "Empire State of Mind" as well as a few of his own.

Following that treat, we danced the night away. The dance floor was full the whole night, making it nearly impossible to move, but was still a blast. "I loved dressing up and dancing all night," Rachel Borba said. "It was the highlight of my night." It will stand as one of the greatest times experienced at New Bedford High School. "It was unforgettable," Jennyfer Luperon recalled.

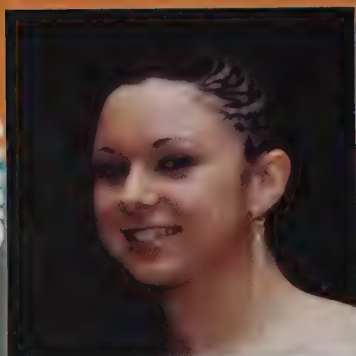

9 As the festivities begin, Nathan Lewis and Ashlee Arango prepare to enjoy their night. "The Banquet was a lot of fun," Ashlee said.
10 Good friends David Rose, Jr. and Brittany Coker and Meaghan St Jacques are in line to get drinks. "It was awesome, best time of my life," David said. "It was hot," Brittany said.
11 Caught while eating, Elisangela Reis enjoys the soup. "The food was alright," Eli Reis said.

1 Looking glamorous, Holliani Medeiros and Shelby Friedland pose for a memorable shot. They danced the night away and enjoyed being with their peers. Holliani stated, "I enjoyed getting all dressed up and being with friends."

2 High school lovers, Celina Haiman and Tyler Duarte share a "loving moment" while slow dancing on the dance floor. Celina later commented, "We didn't dance too much, but we shared a lot of slow songs together which was great!"

A table of juniors waits anxiously for their food to arrive at this exciting event. "It was fun. I really liked my table. I got a different meal since I am a vegetarian. Overall, it was a great night," said Sara-Elisabeth Rivard.

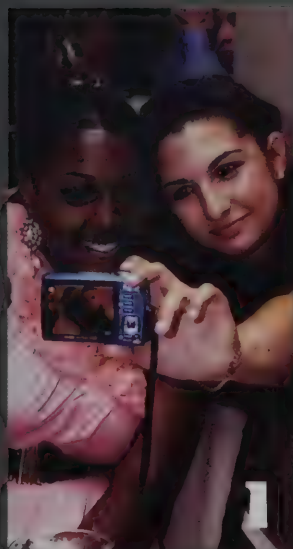

The fun is about to start. Elisangela Reis, Alex Bulhoes, Kyle Hamel, Zack Souza, and Richard Brito walk as a group to enter Cafe Funchal. They all look quite stylish in their shirts and ties. Eli later commented, "I had a great time with my friends!"

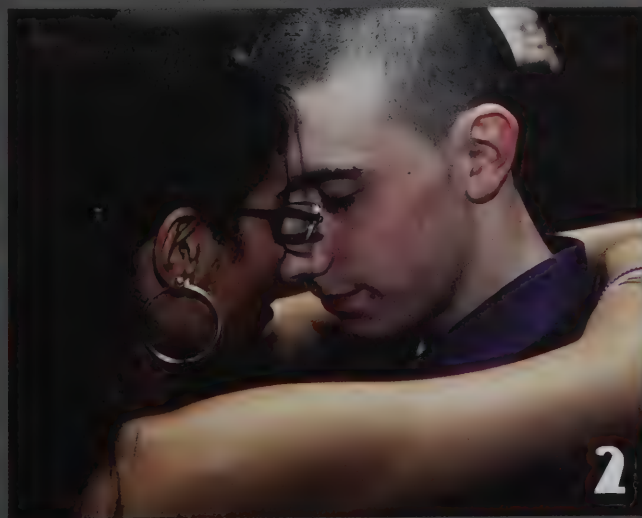

Both in matching ties and vests, Robert Tetreault and Jordan Silva are clearly enjoying this wonderful night. Jordan was wearing a very popular color that night. Robert later stated, "I loved wearing my fresh orange vans with my fresh orange vest."

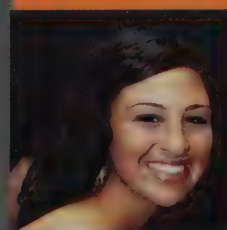

Did the night live up to your expectations?

Starting Junior Banquet off on the right foot, President Courtney Miranda, Vice President Taylor Pacheco, and Secretary Amanda Castro get the class of 2011 ready for the night. The class officers had made Junior Year such a success that Junior Banquet was just one of their many accomplishments. Ending Junior Year with such a positive note, we knew a great Senior Year was ahead.

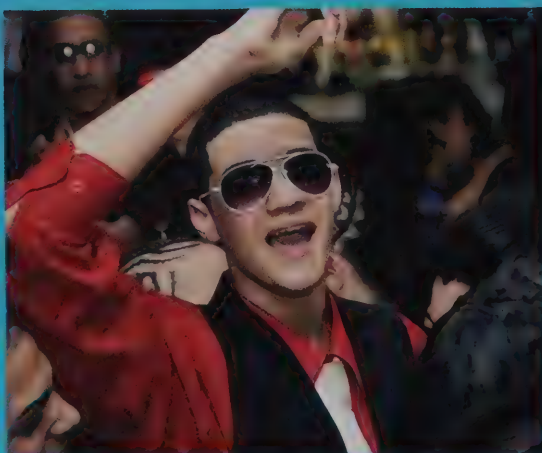

What was the best dance song at Junior Banquet?

Tik Tok by Ke$ha.
-Brandon Medeiros

OMG by Usher.
-Mary Macedo

Dancing the night away, Samuel Adorno Jr. hits the dance floor with all of his friends. He had some stylish dance moves along with the other junior boys. Junior Banquet was a night these boys will remember.

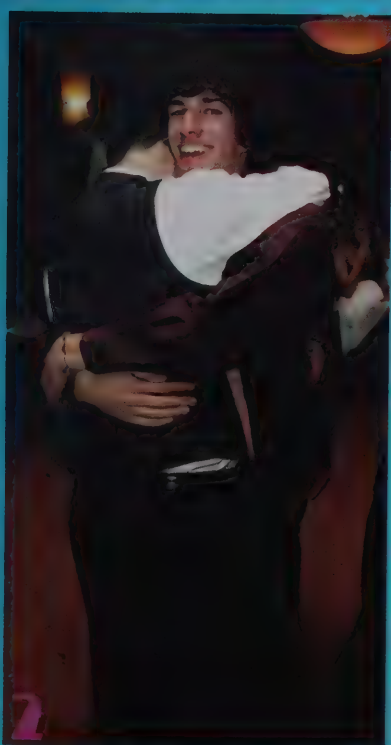

Getting the night started off on a high note, Mr. DeMelo got the crowd ready for a great night. Everyone at Junior Banquet paid close attention as he played "I'm Yours" by Jason Mraz, "Empire State of Mind" by Jay-Z and Alicia Keys, "Use Somebody" by Kings of Leon, and also "So Be It" and "Spinning" written by himself. The crowd was ready to go crazy after Mr. DeMelo finished his performance.

Fists pumping and the dance floor is going wild as the class of 2011 feels the beat of the music.

Being the server of the table, Ryan Medeiros ladles out soup to John Macaroco and the rest of his table. "Junior Banquet was fun, the highlight of the night was hanging out with friends and the delicious food," said Ryan. Throughout the night Ryan and his friends, along with the rest of the class, had a wild night. Giving a big man hug Sean Lanagan embraces a fellow classmate. "It was cool that Mr. DeMelo started the night off with his set, he got everyone dancing right away." Sean wasn't the only one who was enthusiastic about Mr. DeMelo.

What was most Memorable about Junior Banquet?

"It was one of our social events of the year where we could hangout with friends that we haven't seen since freshman year."
-Shane Burgo

"Being at my table with all my friends, cracking jokes and taking pictures."
-Alyssa Lopes

"When I was the first one on the dance floor, it was nerve racking, but worth it."
-Charles Houbre

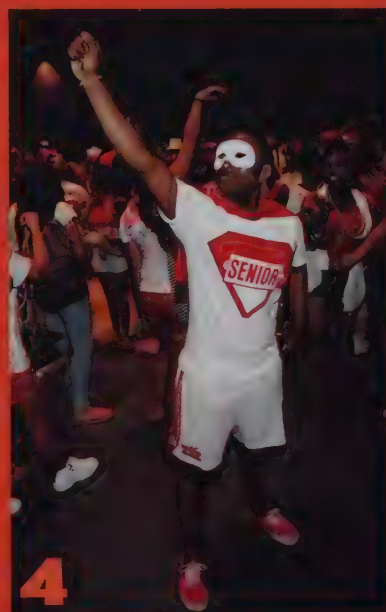

Every year Mr. Couto comes up with an original class song, and picks some students from his classes to get up on stage with him, like Kenya Baer-Clark, Amanda Mendes, Kendra Vieira, Charles Houbre, Cynthia Delmas, and Ryan Medeiros. "I was nervous at first to get up on stage, but when everyone screamed my name I remembered this was my year," said Kenya. The whole class of 2011 really got into the song and clapped along.

Celebrating with enjoyment and spirit, the now senior class officers Courtney Miranda, Taylor Pacheco, and Amanda Castro jump off the stage with the whale in celebration of finally becoming seniors. There was nothing better than knowing we were the senior class of 2011.

4 becoming Super Senior takes a lot of work," said Djaissy Teixeira about his outfit. Super Senior was just one of the creative outfits people came up with for this memorable day. Passing of the Whale was all about school spirit and pride. 5 Winner of most spirited female, Margaret Midurski holds her whale up high with a big smile. "I was really surprised to win. I really didn't expect it," she said with excitement. "It was crazy to get everything ready, and just the rush of winning was really surprising." Margaret wasn't the only one with school spirit. Anthony Pexioto won most spirited male.

PASSING OF THE Whale

by Lexie Theodore

you could hear the air horns and the clappers down the hall as the class of 2011 made their way to the auditorium on Thursday, June 24, 2010. As soon as everyone arrived in the auditorium, you could look out over the stage, and it was a sea of red and white. Passing of the Whale had finally come; we were officially the Senior Class of 2011.

"PASSING OF THE WHALE WAS THE CRAZIEST DAY OF JUNIOR YEAR."

-Kyla Thivierge

For about a week before Passing of the Whale rumors were flying that the whale had been taken to Maine with the seniors of 2010. They even got the Dean in on it. "At first I thought it was a joke, but then they really convinced me it was taken," said Jenna Sylvia about the robbery. The day came, and everyone was wondering if we were going to have a whale or not, but then at the end, after all the fun was done and it was time to bring out the whale, our class President Courtney Miranda told us we didn't have it. Then from behind the curtain came Timothy Gregoire with the whale, and the whole auditorium went wild.

It was our time now. We were the seniors. This was our year. Passing of the Whale was an experience we would remember forever. "Passing of the Whale was the craziest day of junior year," said Kyla Thivierge. Everyone got to dress up and have fun, just go crazy. "The best part was when Tim Gregoire came out with the whale," said Djaissy Teixeira. The class of 2011 - it's finally our time now.

SENIORS! With painted bodies and excitement to become seniors, a group of enthusiastic boys show off their spirit. The painting of the bodies goes on just about every year with senior boys. As the class of 2011, we had to keep the tradition going.

Let's think about this for a second. What is a body without a brain - rather useless. Now what is a school without dedicated faculty and staff - again, rather useless. The incredible staff at New Bedford High School is the foundation for our learning. They help us gain knowledge. These are people who truly enjoy their jobs. "My greatest joy in teaching is sharing my love of learning with true students that inspire me to teach my best," said Ms. Costa, a beloved English teacher. Or perhaps some faculty love being back to the place where they had some of their best years. "One of the best things about my job is being back in the high school I graduated from and getting to work with the great kids of NBHS," said Ms. Oliveira, a green house guidance counselor. These are the people that make all the difference.

"THE BIGGEST CHALLENGE IN TEACHING AP STATISTICS IS GETTING THE STUDENTS READY FOR THE AP EXAM,"

If we think we have it tough, think again. A teacher's job rarely ends at 2:25. They bring tons of work home and always think of ways to improve themselves as educators. Some have challenges that we don't even think about. "The most challenging thing is keeping the kids occupied for eighty-three minutes and keeping a balance with the kids who finish fast and those who may need more time," commented Mr. Houtman. Mrs. Letourneau also added, "The biggest challenge in teaching AP Statistics is getting the students ready for the AP exam and making sure they feel ready."

One of the greatest things about the faculty and staff at NBHS is that there is always somebody to talk to. It is so apparent that so many of them care for their students more than what is expected. They are the people that you can vent to about the stress of college, a break up, family troubles, or just about anything. The faculty and staff is just one of the many reasons why NBHS is so great.

1 In AP Biology, Ms. Aber teaches her class about cell organelles. She said her favorite thing about her job is "getting to talk about biology all day with great kids!"

2 Ms. Riley paints in her art class, showing Jessica Bowden what to do. "Teaching art for me is the best job in the world!" commented Ms. Riley.

3 Taking out his wallet, Mr. Sullivan buys a candy bar from Cynthia Delmas for "Pure Energy" Show Choir. He supports every team and club here by contributing to their fundraisers. When asked why he is so generous with his donations, Mr. Sullivan explained, "I do it because I like to support the students and the staff here."

4 Mr. Silva stands in the doorway of his classroom one afternoon. He said, "Teaching English is fun because opinions count greatly. If you call back your opinions, how can you be wrong?"

5 Ms. Lotz is helping Zachary Martin in Restaurant Management. Ms. Lotz stated that "the restaurant is my piece of cake."

6 Mr. Gadbois is teaching his student, Austin Crowson, how to use the power machine. "The enthusiasm the kids bring to the class and when their eyes brighten up as the engine starts for the first time" are the best parts of teaching according to Mr. Gadbois.

HEADMASTER

To The Class of 2011,

Congratulations on the successful completion of your high school career! With this remarkable achievement, you have prepared yourselves with a strong foundation and the skills necessary to continue your success as you move on and away from the hallways of New Bedford High School. In the short time spent here, you have demonstrated outstanding character, commitment, and dedication to education. You should be proud of this achievement as is the staff and administration of this school.

Keep in mind that this moment in your life should not be seen as the end but more of a beginning to a future full of opportunity. You must now take advantage of these opportunities as they present themselves to you and not let them pass. They will help you face the ever-changing and increasingly more difficult challenges that await you. Remember, your continued success will come with having a positive attitude and allowing it to be a catalyst for reaching your dreams. Maintaining a positive attitude will assist you in recognizing and taking hold of those opportunities that will help you move on to new and more exciting chapters in your life. It is important to consider that all success does not guarantee happiness, but if you are happy then you are a success.

With the Class of 2011 being my first graduating class as the new Headmaster of New Bedford High school, I feel that we will always have a special connection, and I thank you for a fantastic year. Good luck in all your future endeavors and remember that you will always be a member of the New Bedford High School family.

Andrew Kulak
Headmaster

To The Class of 2011,

As your final year at New Bedford High School comes to a close, you are now faced with answering a very important question, "What's next?" Fortunately your high school career was filled with decision-making. Course selections, extracurricular participation, and social involvement have shaped your high school experience and influenced one of the most important choices in your lives. Whether you plan on entering higher education, the military, or the work force, I am confident that New Bedford High School has provided you with the skills and self-reliance needed to tackle this complex decision.

I applaud your parents and teachers who have prepared you to respond to this milestone with confidence. This is a time of both excitement and uncertainty, but one in which you have anticipated for some time. I am certain the last four years have prepared you for life after high school. Take advantage of this time in your lives to make a difference in your future endeavors. Although I am new to the New Bedford High School family, I am very impressed with the faculty and students that make this school a wonderful place to work and learn.

I wish you all the best of luck as you prepare for life's challenges and celebrations. Take with you all the experiences and memories of your high school years. They will be some of the fondest you ever have.

Best wishes,
Christopher J. Costa

Congratulations to the New Bedford Class of 2011. You have left your mark here and have truly become part of the NBHS family. You are prepared for the next phase of your life. The experiences you have had over the past four years have prepared you to be successful in your future.

As you transition into becoming an adult, you will take on more responsibilities and make your own decisions regarding your future pathway. Rely on the knowledge and skills you have gained here at NBHS to make wise decisions that will ensure your safety, good health and great success.

Best wishes with all your future endeavors and thank you for making New Bedford High School a great school.

WHAT WAS YOUR FIRST JOB?

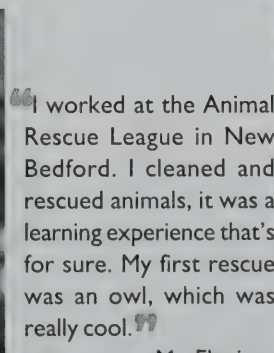

"It was at McDonalds - the only one that closed. I worked the grill and trained new employees. I worked there for three years and then went on to work at Lincoln Park."

-Mr. Cabral

"I was a cashier at the Seafood Shack. I later found a better job as a dishwasher at Mike's Restaurant, and I was the first female dishwasher there."

-Ms. Fonseca

"I worked at the Animal Rescue League in New Bedford. I cleaned and rescued animals, it was a learning experience that's for sure. My first rescue was an owl, which was really cool."

-Mr. Florio

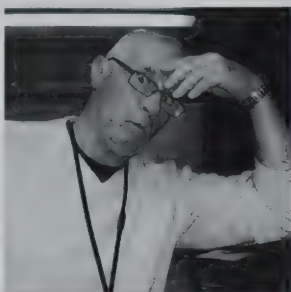

"My very first job was working at The American University in Lebanon. I majored in computer science; however, I taught students math and science. Eventually I realized that I could become a full time teacher and teach it at a higher level."

-Ms. Sabeh

"It was at the Star Store which used to be downtown. I worked in the hoisery department and got $1.65 an hour. My first paycheck was $15, and I only worked there as a seasonal Christmas job."

-Ms. Ventura

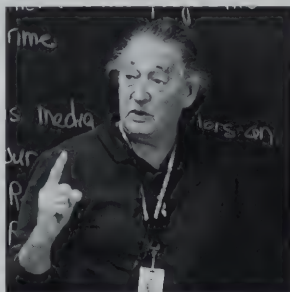

Advice to the seniors:

The earth has gone around the sun over 4,000,000,000 times, and the average human will go around the sun approximately 70 times. The point is: live your life to the fullest; experience as much as you can; make as many friends as you find, and be the best person you can be to everyone you meet.

- Mr. Couto

Words of Wisdom

The secret of success is being dogged in pursuing your dreams and goals. Using all of the tools you have learned either in school or through life experiences, keep on plugging away. Never accept impossible, NO, or sorry about that and do not accept second best.

- Mr. Nestanpower

Advice for The Class of 2011

Absolutely embrace the positive...no matter what challenges you face, know that you have what it takes to face it and work through it. Sometimes you will need to take small steps to get to your destination. Life demands courage...you can rest but never QUIT...remember there is always someone who is in a more difficult situation...pay it forward, and lend a helping hand. Excellence is born from passion coupled with perseverance plus hard work.

Best wishes!

- Mrs. Crowne

To the graduating seniors, especially to those going away to college:

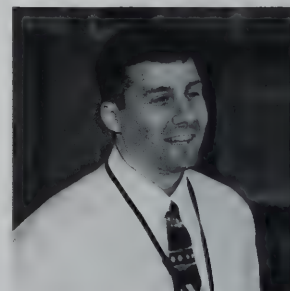

The next four years will likely be the most memorable of your life. It's the perfect set of circumstances - you will be on your own, but your family will still be there when you need them (like for a few extra dollars!) You can leave what you were in high school behind and begin a whole new chapter in your life. Make the most of it. I remember the advice my parents gave to me when they dropped me off at college - have fun! You are there to learn, to study what interests you, but make time for fun as well. Learn, grow, grow up, and make New Bedford High School proud!

- Mrs. Letourneau

Building a life is one thing. Realizing a life that you love is a whole other thing. You have to have a vision, and it's got to be a vision you can articulate clearly and forcefully. If you are not up for it, it just isn't going to work out. Look forward to challenges, have a unique mix of experiences and wisdom combined with spirit, and realize the possibility of failure. It is an insatiable curiosity. An irrepressible desire to know - no matter what the cost, and an inextinguishable appetite for learning and experience, no matter how risible or esoteric it may seem. Know what you don't know and be aware that arrogance is the easiest way to fail. Care about others and know the satisfaction of contributing to making other peoples' lives better. Life is like creating a masterpiece where the pieces can fit in a bunch of different ways and when you get it right, it's beautiful. Are you up for it?

- Mr. Crook

"Ulysses"

by Alfred Lord Tennyson

"And though we are not that which in old days moved Heaven and Earth, that which we are, we are; one equal temper of heroic hearts, made weak by time and fate, but strong in will; to strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield."

Senior Year became one of the most challenging years of our lives. This was the year where we got to really use all the skills we had learned thus far. We became masters at time management and hopefully did a lot of maturing. "Being a senior is awesome. It feels good to know that all my hard work paid off," commented Kyla Thivierge.

"BEING A SENIOR IS STRESSFUL, BUT THE HASSLE IS WORTH THE TASSEL."

- Alyssa Lopes

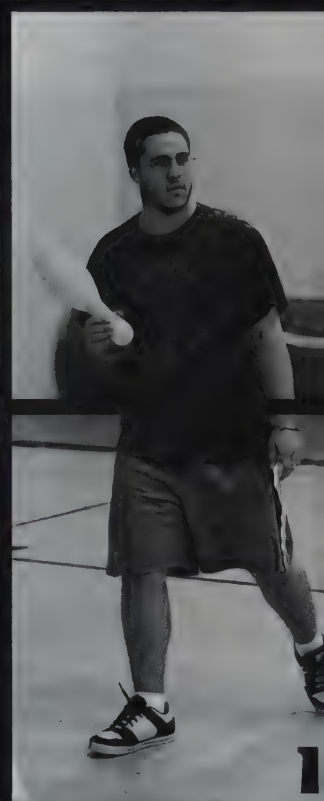

Senior Year was very bittersweet. It was such a relief to finally make it this far, to know that we were so close to graduation. On the flip side, it was sad to think that we were already seniors. "Senior year is fun, but also depressing because it's sad to think that I won't be able to see my classmates as often," said Djaissy Teixeira. It is weird to think that next year will be totally different.

Despite it being such a bittersweet year, we should all be proud of ourselves. To graduate is a huge milestone in our lives. Graduation is the ultimate congratulations and acknowledgment for all the hard work we've done since freshman year. Alyssa Lopes commented, "Being a senior is stressful, but the hassle is worth the tassel." We did it everyone!

ROCKING BACK in time

by Mary Macedo

Remember when you were a little kid and you could recall everything you've ever done? As time goes on, doesn't it feel like you start to forget them little by little?

Think back to your childhood and all the memories that can only be experienced when you're a kid. Those are the ones worth holding

"Childhood is a time of innocence and growth."
-Rachel

onto. Always carry them with you, engrave the memories in your mind because as you become an adult you will realize how fast time goes by.

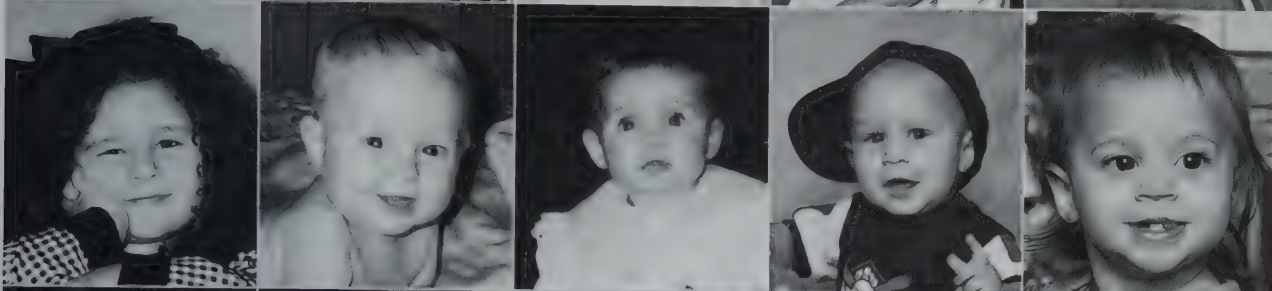

Childhood is something you can never relive - being spoiled, the birthday parties, playing outside, eating cookies for breakfast, remember it all because here's the thing about memories : as you grow and move on you'll never forget the ones you cherished the most.

A JOURNEY Around THE WORLD

by Kyla Thivierge

On a trip to Six Flags with the rest of the foreign exchange students, Marta enjoys the thrills of all the rides. Back in the summer of 2008, Marta and a couple of friends stand in the street near the town pub where she spent most of her time while in Spain. On her first trip to New York City, Marta stands in the middle of 42nd street with some of her new family. "The buidlings are so tall, and everything is so beautiful. Oh wow! I loved it," said Marta.

Some people dream of places they'll never see and of trips they'll never go on. For 17 year- old Marta Schiavon, that dream has become a reality. In August of 2010 Marta left her home, her parents and her brother Matteo in Italy to come here to experience life in America.

THERE IS NO SCHOOL ON SATURDAY!
THAT'S AWESOME!
-MartaSchiavon

Her life here in New Bedford is a big change from her life back in Italy. "It's different. Not always easy, but I found a very nice family, and I met a lot of nice people who helped me a lot. Also, there is no school on Saturday! That's awesome!" Marta commented. Marta is a welcomed addition to our school and the graduating class of 2011.

After sadly arriving at her favorite Irish pub and finding out that it was closed, Marta and a few friends roam the streets of Bologna, Italy playing guitars. She has been playing the guitar since she was young and enjoys it very much.

All her life Marta has spent her summer vacations visiting her grandparents in Spain. She really enjoyed going to amusement parks and riding on the rides. Instead of going to school on a chilly September day Margherita, Giulio, Marta, and Omar go to a demonstration against a new law being passed by the Department of Education of Italy. She enjoyed going to this type of event with her friends and showing her support in trying to make her home country better.

Within just two weeks of arriving in the United States, Marta enjoys a party with her host family at the beach. "The beach is one of the things I miss the most about Italy," said Marta.

During her first orientation meeting, Marta Schiavon enjoys a warm afternoon on the grass with some friends. She relaxes as she awaits to continue receiving the information needed to enjoy her one year stay and make the best of it. "I'm really excited for my stay. This is a dream come true," said Marta.

During the summer of 2008 Marta enjoys a warm sunny day in a nearby town with friend Irati. She and a few friends traveled by train to get away from their hometown and enjoy a relaxing afternoon to themselves.

After spending many years without seeing any sight of snow in her home country, Marta sits in a "Vapaetto" (boat-bus) with friend Lorenzo as she is on her way to a friend's house from a party. "I was so excited that it snowed on New Year's."

CASA LEJOS, de CASA

by Kyla Thivierge

From the warm climate of Paraguay to the cool weather of New England, 18 year-old Fernando Urunaga-Duarte is one of the newest additions to NBHS. He arrived here on August 25, 2010 and heads home in July of 2011. Fernando is staying with New Bedford

"I LIKE THE CITY OF NEW BEDFORD AND I LOVE THE SPORTS LIKE SWIMMING AND SOCCER."

-Fernando Urunaga-Duarte

residents Makena and Mark Roberts who he describes as "soulful, friendly and jovial." The Roberts have no children, but back home in Paraguay, Fernando is the youngest of three, with two older brothers. Life in New Bedford is different than Fernando is used to, but he's enjoying his stay. A highlight for him so far was his trip to Six Flags. School is also much bigger and different than he's used to, but he has nothing bad to say. We welcome him to our school and the 2011 graduating class.

The day before starting his journey to the United States, Fernando Urunaga Duarte enjoys an evening with his friends.

Before beginning his journey, Fernando spends some time with the other participants from his home country.

1. During his first orientation meeting after landing in the United States, Fernando and the rest of the Foreign Exchange students enjoy a relaxing evening on the grass. They were informed about what to expect and were told about ways in which they could spend their time here and make the best of it. 2. In Paraguay Fernando has fun with some of his closest friends as they relax and played a game of pool. He enjoys going out and spending time with his friends. 3. In Paraguay, Fernando was a very special person. He liked to spend a lot of time with his friends whenever possible.

Fernando has fun on a trip to the factory of terror where he encountered the Mad Hatter from Alice in Wonderland. He went on the trip with his host parents, Mane and Makena, and others AFS students.

Along with his host parents, Fernando enjoys a chilly October day at Six Flags. This was one of the many trips organized by the AFS coordinators to show the students some of the many activities in New England.

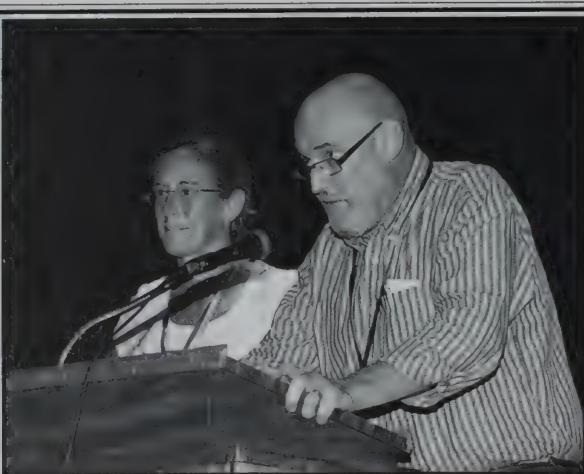

After just a few days in the United States, Fernando enjoys a night out with some of the other foreign exchange students from AFS. They got together that night to get to know each other better and talk a bit about what their experience had been so far.

At a Halloween gathering of AFS students, Fernando attempts to carve his name on a pumpkin. Each student got a pumpkin to decorate with their names, and later bring home to share with their friends and family.

To the Class of 2011:

Four years ago, a new wave of freshmen descended upon New Bedford High, all excited and full of anticipation. 2011 seemed remote and distant. In the blink of an eye, those same freshmen are now the graduating class of 2011.

As class advisors, we have had the distinct pleasure of sharing so many of your special occasions. We've done Spirit Week floats, fundraisers, community service, children's holiday parties, banquets, Mr. Whaler, the Prom, and finally, graduation together. We've seen and been a part of all of this and feel that you, the Class of 2011, are unique and special.

We are very proud of you, and we extend our heartfelt congratulations. As you go off on your individual endeavors, always remember us and your roots with the Class of 2011.

Best Wishes,
Mrs. Oliveira and Mr. Taylor

DESCRIBE SOMETHING ABOUT Yourself THAT OTHERS MIGHT BE SURPRISED TO KNOW

"It might not seem like it around friends, but I am a pretty shy person. Usually, I act weird and dumb when I'm around my good friends, but I am much more secluded and quiet around strangers. I wouldn't go out of my way to make a scene in front of strangers, but if it livens the crowd, then why not act like a fool? If it makes everyone else happy, then I'm happy."

- Kalvin Acosta

"I'm a really nice person, and I love animals. With my free time, I like to go to the Humane Society and help out and work with the animals."

- Victoria Farias

"In my spare time, I enjoy writing poetry and hope to become a poet one day."

- Chelsea Fernandes

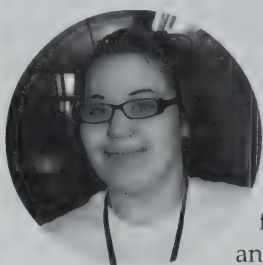

"I'm going to be the first person to graduate from high school in my family. My older brother didn't finish, and I know my parents are really proud."

- Kimberly Pacheco

WHO IS YOUR hero?

“My grandmother because she’s been there for me no matter what, and she’s survived so much in the last couple years. I would be lost without her.”

-Rochelle Pelletier

“My sister Sydney because she has been there for me and has helped me through so much. She is my absolute best friend, and I love her to death.”

-Lauren Harris

“Dean Cetenich - this past year she has become more like a second mom to me and the rest of the girls in Office Aide. Not only has she listened to all of our problems, but she has given us the best advice that anyone could ever ask for. Thanks, Dean.”

-Melissa Medeiros

IN MEMORY OF

Elijah Alvarado

October 18, 1992-
March 19, 2009

It is said that we are to look at life with great appreciation and to treat each day as a gift. Elijah not only lived his life by that standard, but also persuaded those around him to do the same. Elijah's smile was contagious, and his playful spirit could shed light on even the darkest days. Elijah had a wonderful sense of humor and loved his teachers, his friends, and his school. He made certain to visit and say hello, and his visits had only one purpose - to make us smile and laugh. Elijah's presence will be missed deeply by the students and staff at New Bedford High School. He has taught us all to utilize and make the most out of the skills that we have and to appreciate each and every day. On behalf of the entire NBHS family, I say farewell to a great student and an even better friend.

Teenage lives are exciting and generally jam-packed with activities. There is more to our lives than school; we work various jobs, go on life-changing vacations, share memories with family and get overwhelming. Derek Pelletier said his favorite thing to do is, "Chill with my boys and work at Market Basket."

Some of us truly love to better ourselves. Rochelle Pelletier's favorite things to do are to "volunteer at the Boy's and Girl's Club and hang out with friends." In his spare time, Patryk Backiel likes to stay physically fit. "I like to go to the YMCA to row with New Bedford Community Rowing," he said. Keeping busy helps keep life interesting.

So I really hope you all enjoy this new section, "Student Life." It is the first time that the Crimson Log has ever done a whole section that is not directly related to school. We felt that there is more to our lives than just school, and we wanted the yearbook to portray that. Enjoy, everyone!

What is the
your favorite

Dinner is Served!

by Matt A. Durant

Ask any senior, and they'll tell you just how much they love to shoot the breeze over a nice meal in a great place. Get together with awesome friends, have some favorite food, and you've got a recipe for success! So, where are the preferred places for teens to hang out and pig out? Of all of the various restaurants scattered throughout the area, Olive Garden seems to be the most popular. With more than 700 restaurants worldwide and a large assortment of Italian style food, Olive Garden is a wonderful place to be! Their decor is based on Old World Italy and creates a very likeable environment "The mood at the OG is great," said Andrew Gracia. Fellow senior Joshua Amaral agreed, saying that "Olive Garden has a decent Italian atmosphere with lots of plants and soft lighting."

"IT MAKES AN

-Andrew Gracia

Another one of the popular hang out spots is a restaurant that got started right here in Massachusetts - Friendly's! Since it's humble beginning as a simple ice cream service, its grown into quite a successful corporation, with 505 restaurants along the East Coast.

"Everything is clean, and the colors are nice. The waitresses are very, very friendly," said Chantel Carvalho. The scenery of the establishment is best explained by another Friendly's fan, Rochelle Pelletier, who describes it as "50s type of scenery, very welcoming and family oriented."

Not Your Average Joe's is very true to its name, as many teenagers will tell you. Somewhere between retro and cutting edge, the eclectic feeling of the place lets everyone sit back and enjoy. The food varies from pizza to salad, from seafood to poultry. Sara-Elisabeth Rivard enjoys the restaurant for its "low lighting, homey, and comfortable atmosphere." Trevor Shepler also uses "friendly" to describe the feel of Not your average Joe's.

The fourth most popular place to have a great time is No Problemo. Located in the hustle and bustle of downtown New Bedford, and having possibly the best Mexican-style menu around, it's one of the most talked about restaurants in the city. Another huge fan of the place is Chris Souza who said, "The scenery really relates to kids our age. It's very artsy but free at the same time. I feel like No Probs has the best environment."

Throughout his four years in high school, Ansel Duff has always been dedicated to his schoolwork. He has also always maintained his charm and humor. However, "I've gotten taller and I love America more. I've learned about myself, and I've made good friendships," Ansel admitted.

Since freshman year, Richard Oglesby has come a long way in his performance as a student. Even he admits, "I have become a lot more mature since I first entered the high school," said Richard.

When he first entered high school, Fabian Matias was not prepared for his journey through high school, however, he admitted, "After being in this school for four years, I've matured and realized the importance of school," said Fabian.

Thinking back to his freshman year, Charles Houbre reflects on the changes he has made in himself. "I've made great friends, started guitar, began weightlifting and stopped being fat; also I met Mr. Crook," said C.J. Starting high school has definitely had a positive effect on C.J.

Coming into this country from Poland as a young boy, Patryk Backiel had to adjust quite a bit to American life. Other than learning English and having a new lifestyle, Patryk also changed physically. "I cut my long, luscious hair, and got rid of all my piercings. Guess it's just a process of maturing."

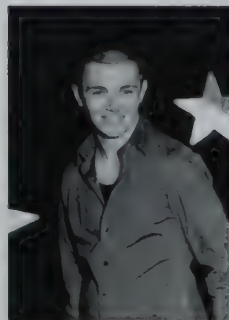

Like many seniors, Nicholas Roberts has surely changed physically. One thing that hasn't changed about Nick is his great sense of humor. "When I first started high school, I was mildly awesome. Now, as I'm about to leave high school, I am wicked amazingly awesome," joked Nick.

Stephanie Almeida has recognized her changes through high school. "I went from obnoxious and young to a mature adult," she commented.

Once she came to high school, Cheyenne Howard began to change into her own person. Cheyenne has always been into sports, but she has changed through her maturity. Cheyenne said, "I've matured, I just don't go with the flow anymore. I do what I want to do and don't really care what anybody else thinks."

Over the past four years, Richard Curtis has made both physical changes and maturity level changes. He has bridged the gap from being a young freshman not knowing who he was to becoming a mature senior who is confident. Ricky said, "Since my high school journey has begun, I have cut my long luscious hair off, starting wearing tight clothes and grown into my own person!"

Once a girl who didn't put much effort into school as a freshman, Patricia Trundy has been greatly inspired to change herself. "I changed in a sense physically and just being more focused in school," Patricia said. The changes she has made will surely help her in the future.

(Freshman Year)

by Lexie Theodore

New Bedford High has helped Ana Martinez decide on the path she wants to take in the future. "I'm more serious about my school work and I've become way more outgoing with my friends. Freshman year I was immature and cared so much about what people thought of me, now I am so much more mature and know what I want to do with my life," she said.

Many people discover themselves in high school and learn things about themselves like Haley Sullivan. She said, "Since freshman year, I have definitely grown up a lot and found out a lot about myself. High school has really taught me so much; I can't wait for the future!"

We all change throughout our lives. We mature, get taller, we change our hairstyle and our clothes; we change our whole look. High school is the time to make changes, it's the time to find out who you really are. This is the time when we discover ourselves and grow to be the person that we want to be. Through these past four years, no matter how much you have changed, never lose sight of yourself.

"Freshman year, I felt ostracized among my peers because of my sexuality. After that, I learned to deflect the negativity of others and be comfortable with myself. With that mindset, I was able to focus more on school work. The diversity of NBHS allowed me to change my aspiration of a doctorate degree into an actuality," said Jordyn Serpa.

When you look back to your freshman year how do you see yourself? Some might say I was shy, I was fatter, I didn't care about school, but when you look at yourself now you see a new you. "I've learned to get my work done in class instead of goofing off and not doing it," said Ian Nussman. From physical changes to changing in maturity, no one stays the same. The best part of high school is getting to see how all your friends have changed. Nicole Peixoto said, "I've become more outgoing and mature."

Don't forget about who you were before you grew up because that was a part of you, too. If we didn't start out young and naive, we would never grow up to be mature adults. Finding yourself and changing is all a part of growing up and the journey of becoming you.

Not only has Melissa Medeiros changed her look and her style, but she has grown up as a person. "Personality-wise I definitely grew up. I'm still outgoing but I do know the difference between right and wrong. There is a time and place for everything," said Melissa.

Get Connected!

by Andrew Gracia

For six and a half hours a day, five days a week, we have the opportunity to interact with our friends and fellow classmates. Through school, we are enlightened about the world, and we are introduced to a medley of events, courtesy of our teachers. At the end of the school day we go home, but all these gains do not stop there.

The past decade has provided the world with various ways to use networking to an advantage. Originally, it was Myspace that attracted everyone - now it's Facebook that

"TWITTER IS SO MUCH FUN. IT'S FUN TO GET TO KNOW FAMOUS PEOPLE AND SEE THEY ARE JUST LIKE ME!"

- Philip Houtman has completely taken over the lives of millions throughout the world. Facebook allows followers to communicate with their friends and family members by posting continuous status updates as well as view photographs and videos. The creation of Facebook has also given many the chance to interact with people throughout the world. Plain and simple, it has changed our world and the way we live our lives. "Facebook has both a positive and a negative impact: it seems that many people live through Facebook. It's excessively used, but it also gives people the chance to talk to people who live far away," Molly Lafleur said.

For quite a few years now, YouTube has been the gateway to videos of all sorts. Everything from sports, entertainment, current events, and music is displayed for millions of people a day. "YouTube is wicked entertaining," Trina Strawn commented. "I watch music videos and stupid, funny ones."

Similar to Facebook, Twitter has become yet another means to connect to the world. Inspired and endorsed by many people, it has become a ground-breaking way to follow friends, family and even celebrities and public figures through their "tweets." "Twitter is so much fun," Philip Houtman said. "It's fun to get to know famous people and see they are just like me!"

These and other networking sites have made a significant impact on our high school careers. Of course, other forms of networking will come as well, but we will always remember the ones we used in high school.

What do you like most about facebook?

"I don't like much about it; sometimes it's boring, but it's great for networking."

- Amber Nunes

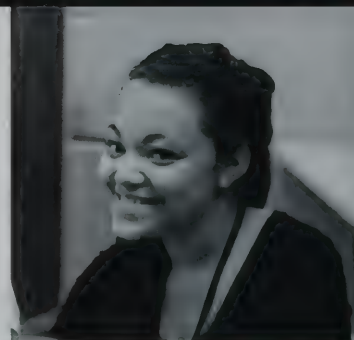

"To know everything about my friends, and it allows me to interact with other people."

- Alyssa Roach

"It's an easy way to find or contact people."

- Edwin Olivencia

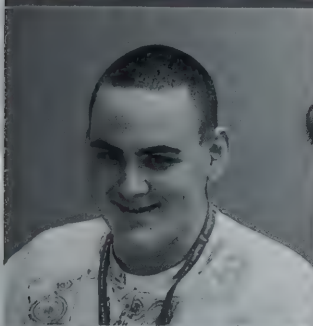

"You stalk people."

- Shianne DeOliveira

What do you like about skype™ & ooVoo?

"I can video chat with people."
- Chad Clough

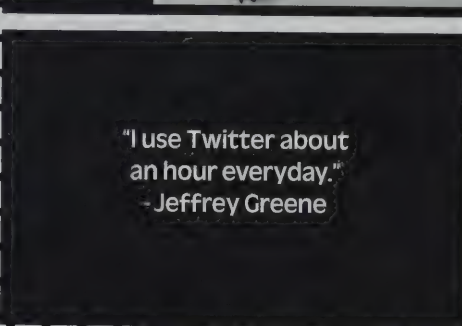

"I can see and talk with people that don't live in the same state."
- Josephine Centeio

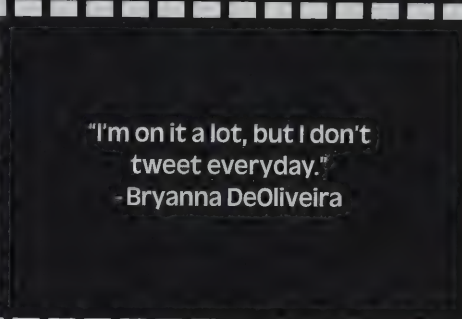

"It gives me the opportunity to see my girlfriend more often, where we go to different schools."
- Nathan Lewis

How often do you use twitter?

"I use Twitter about an hour everyday."
- Jeffrey Greene

"I'm on it a lot, but I don't tweet everyday."
- Bryanna DeOliveira

"Everyday; about three tweets."
- John Macaroco

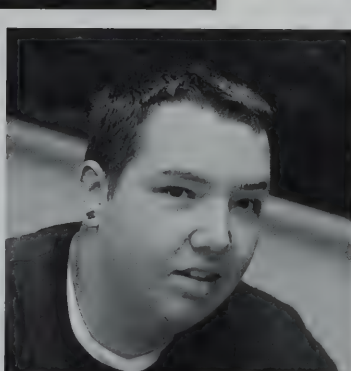

Describe what you use YouTube for.

"Everything, from hair tips to makeup."
- Vanessa DaSilva

"Music videos, colorguard competitions, and hilarious videos."
- Jennifer Perry

"When I want to laugh or see sport highlights and listen to music."

Bon Voyage!

by Kyla Thivierge

It's amazing how a plane ride can take you from a crowded airport to a whole new world. Taking a trip abroad is an experience of a lifetime and something everyone should get a chance to do. "It was a great opportunity, and it was the best experience

"IT WAS REALLY FUN AND GREAT TO SEE DIFFERENT CULTURES."

-Sara Elisabeth Rivard

of my life. I would do it again regardless of the cost," commented Richard Netinho, who went on a trip to France, Amsterdam, England, and Belgium, in April of 2010.

Some people are lucky if they ever take a trip past their state borders, but with EF Tours, the possibilities are endless. "It was really fun and great to see different cultures," Sara-Elisabeth Rivard said. Seeing the way people in other countries live is an amazing opportunity and a memory that will never fade. "My favorite memory from the Europe trip would probably be going on a sunset gondola ride in Venice with all my friends. Laughing, joking, and seeing all the beautiful buildings are memories I will never forget," remarked Alex Pires about his trip to Italy in the Spring of 2009.

New Bedford High school students have experienced life in many European countries, from the waffle houses in Belgium to the canals of Italy, each country is special in their own way. Greece, France, England and Spain are just some of the places held deep within the hearts of New Bedford's young travelers, several of which are in The Class of 2011, thanks to the various trips that students have taken over the past several years.

Big Ben is one of the biggest attractions in London, England. At night it's a breath-taking scene. The Palace, Big Ben, and the London Eye light up the sky in twinkling lights.

1 Assisi was one of the most beautiful places in Italy. It was very serene and had gorgeous neighborhoods. "I really hope my picture captures the breathtaking view that it truly deserves," said Rachel Borba. Rachel went to Italy during her sophomore year and Greece in her senior year.

2 Seeing people smile behind bars isn't very common. Luckily this cell in Italy was just being used as a photo opportunity. Julie Guerette, Meghan Fowler, Meghan Driscoll, and Aubrie Brault take a picture behind the bars of an old cell.

3 Striking a pose among some statues in Spain, Darian Souza-Bizarro, Ian Nussman, Ben Charpentier, David Cabral, Daniel Golda, and Jason Brierley are taking in the sights. The scenery and art were so beautiful. The views of the city and all the sights take your breath away.

4 Touring a church in Assisi, Kyla Thivierge, Alex Pires, Braley Freire, Stephanie Sylvia, Jehrin Colbert, and Jillian Silva-Jones enjoy their visit to Italy. "It was an amazing experience because we got to see so many historic places, and I saw the Pope. We went shopping and got gelatos," said Braley Freire. The sights and scenery were amazing.

5 On the last day of their trip, the group takes advantage of their free time. Sitting in the shade by a building in Madrid, Spain, the group poses for a photo. Sad to see their trip coming to a close but happy to be heading home, they capture a few last memories to take with them.

“Barcelona because it was beautiful, and the people were warm and welcoming.”
- Kristi Herbert

“Barcelona because it’s beautiful and the culture is rich.”
- David Cabral

What Was Your Favorite

Place You Visited?

“I liked Italy and the whole cultural feel and the ancient artifacts I saw.”
- Kelynn Offley

“The Eiffel Tower was pretty amazing. The food has to be my favorite though, it was pretty delicious. I hope to go back next year and experience it all again,” commented Josselyn Lopez. Josselyn stands in front of the Eiffel Tower with Samantha Jacques, Molly Lafleur, Chris Abu-Raya, Lucie Krawczyk, Ryan Haskell, Richard Netinho, and Jennyfer Luperon.

Molly Lafleur, Richard Netinho, Mrs. Beach, Jennyfer Luperon, Ryan Haskell, and Josselyn Lopez have fun exploring a gift store while in England. “I loved London. Not just because of the language, but because it was easy to get around,” commented Jennyfer Luperon.

Jan Nussman, Sara Rivard, and Andrew Gracia stand in front of Carcassonne in France and take in its architecture. “Although it was ironic standing next to Sara, who was wearing an epic fail t-shirt pointed at me, the sight in France was still amazing. The castle was one of the best sights that we visited besides Versailles and the Eiffel Tower,” said Andrew Gracia.

Rachel Borba, Alex Pires, Julie Guerette, Aubrie Brault, Arielle Gomes-Williams, Meaghan Driscoll, Zachery Thompson, and Kyla Thivierge stand in front of The Colosseum, one of the many amazing attractions in Rome.

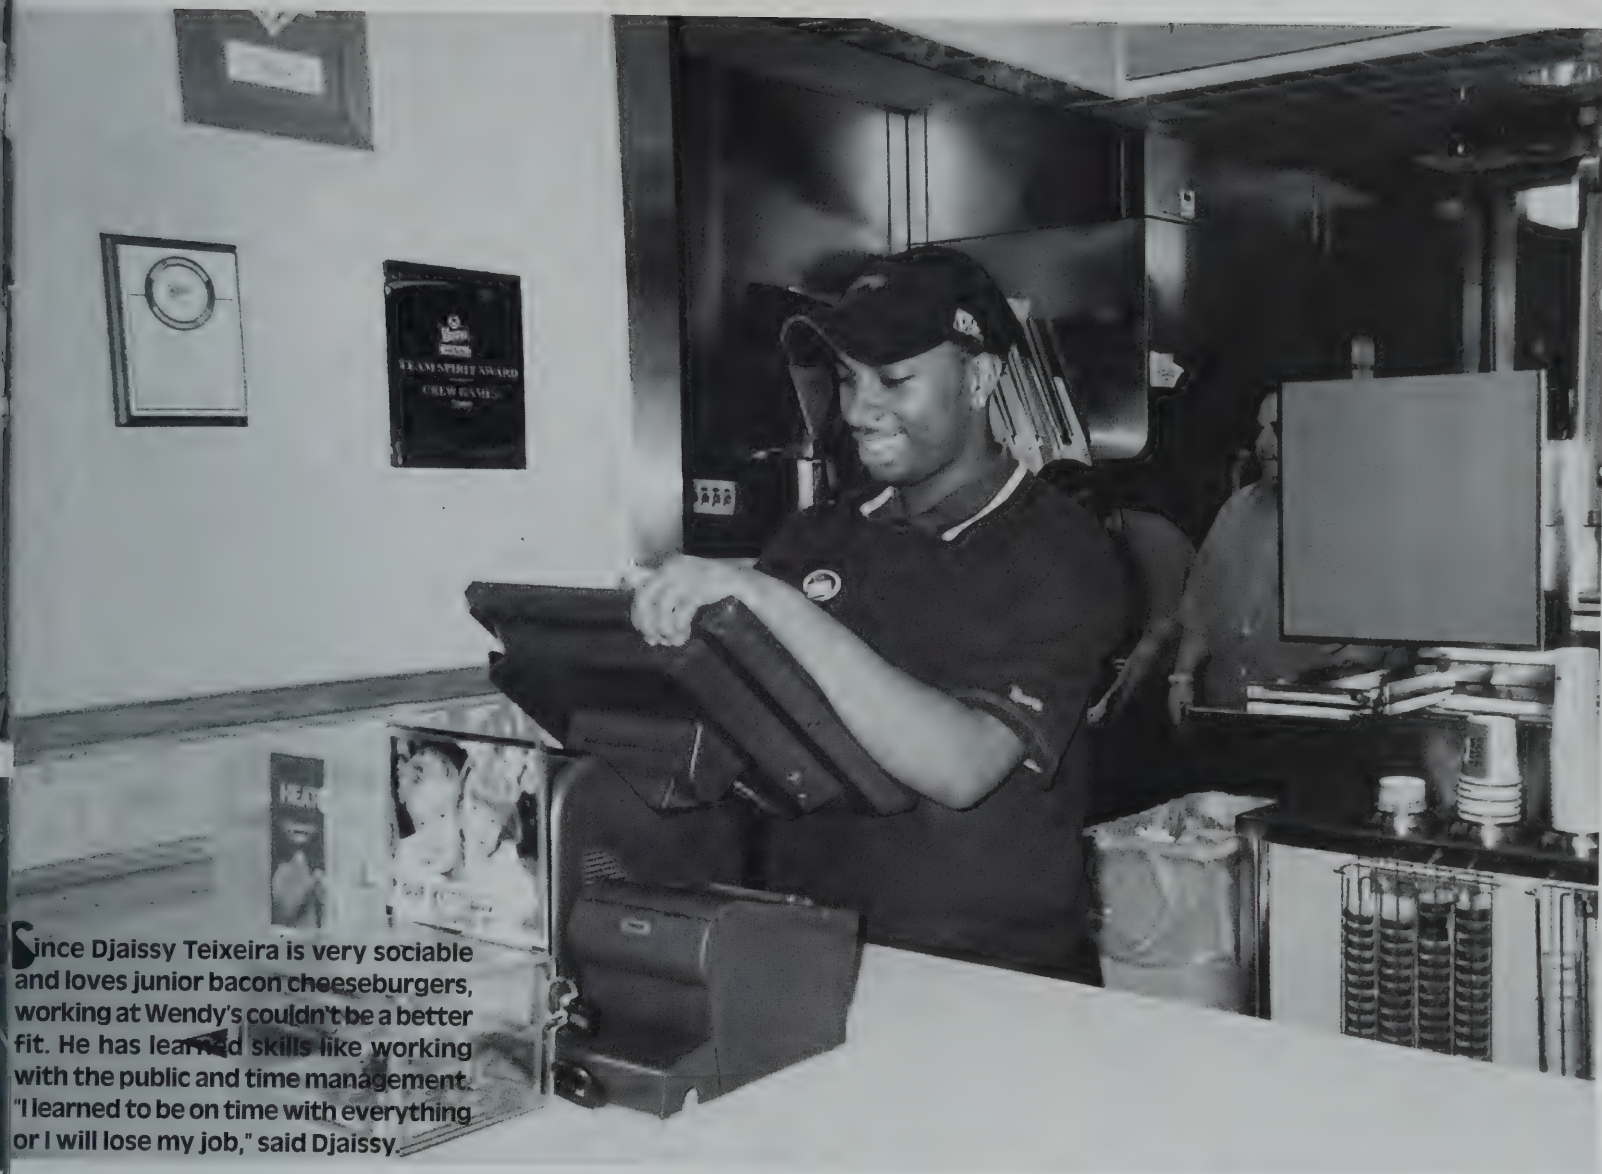

1 Since she is such a people person, Rachel Borba couldn't be happier with her job. Working at Market Basket has taught her how to assist customers quickly and efficiently. "I really do love my job, especially when I get talkative customers," Rachel commented. 2 Assisting customers and being with animals are some of Stephanie DeMelo's passions. So working at Melissa's Pet Depot was the perfect choice. "I love working with animals," said Stephanie before scooping out a fish for a customer. 3 Making sure her register was clean for her upcoming customer, Gorete Matos was just about to take out some cleaning supplies. She loves to work with people. "The best thing about my job is working with the public and meeting lots of different people," said Gorete. 4 During her shift at the new Market Basket, Kiyana Miller hands out carriages to customers as they walk in. She knows it's very important to give customers a warm welcome. "You have to be nice to the customers," Kiyana said. 5 Waiting for her next customer, Sarah Busby chats with her bagger. "This job has really taught me about money management," Sarah said, "Also, while working at Market Basket, you always have to have a smile on your face." 6 Cashing in your tickets for prizes is one of the things people look forward to at Chuck E. Cheese, and Stephanie Sylvia helps with exactly that. Reaching into the box, she grabs a prize for 40 tickets. "I love making kids smile," she said.

Since Alexa Theodore is very mature and reliable, the restaurant business was a great choice. She works at the Narragansett Star Cafe on the weekends. Alexa said, "The food is good and working there takes patience and a lot of responsibility."

Since she is such a hard working, responsible person, Jenna Sylvia had no problem adjusting to the fast pace and all the rules at Market Basket. "You have to work hard in order to be successful and get what you want," she said.

Since Djaissy Teixeira is very sociable and loves junior bacon cheeseburgers, working at Wendy's couldn't be a better fit. He has learned skills like working with the public and time management. "I learned to be on time with everything or I will lose my job," said Djaissy.

Hard at Work

by Mary Macedo

The bell rings. To some New Bedford High Seniors that bell signifies freedom. Most get to go home, go out, and have fun, but for some that signifies even more responsibilities. Many students in high school have part-time jobs, along with schoolwork and sports. "I make sure I have my schoolwork done before I go to work," said Lexie Theodore. Students may have difficulty balancing everything they do, but schoolwork must always come first.

"I'M BUSY ALL THE TIME, BUT I TRY MY BEST."

-Jenna Sylvia

"Senior year was the first time I really had to balance school and work," explained Rachel Borba. "It can be really difficult to do at times, but it helps with my time management skills. It's the ultimate college prep," she concluded. The seniors at NBHS are always looking toward the future and preparing for college. Working teaches students how to prioritize and juggle their busy schedule.

Although students may complain about their hectic schedules, they know it will help them in the long run. "It's very hard to balance work and school. I'm busy all the time, but I try my best," stated Jenna Sylvia.

Our Foundation

by Andrew Gracia

Our families supported us from the time we were newborns who needed so much affection and attention, to now and even beyond. Our families are behind us in everything we set out to do. We are connected by a tight bond that no foolish event, no matter how traumatic, can compromise. Of course, our relationships with

"MY FAMILY IS MY SUPPORT SYSTEM. THEY'RE ALWAYS THERE NO MATTER WHAT."

our families can be chaotic, but those ties remain unbreakable.

For the most part, our families guide us through everything. Whether it was potty-training, learning to ride a bike for the first time, helping us get our license, they've been backing us the whole way. "My family is my support system," Anthony Peixoto said. "They're always there no matter what."

There's no doubting, though, that our families can have chaotic moments, whether funny or serious. "My family deserves their own sitcom," remarked Felicity Saucier. For many of us we probably share similar feelings. I myself come from a family of seven; my parents, my siblings (all girls), and myself. Life in my family does feature chaos.

Through it all, though, we all cope with our family. We share little moments with them as well as major events, that we look back on with great fondness. No matter what though, our families are there to guide us, and of course, they love us, and we love them back. "My family is totally different," Alicia Dias said, "but they're my family."

"Some of the greatest memories with my family come from Christmas Eve parties," said Justine Cote, with her mother Shelly Cote-Frazier and cousin Monica Frazier.

"My family has our ups and downs; we fight a lot, but we always make each other laugh," said Courtney Souza, with her three sisters, Ashley and twins Melissa and Brittany. "They're extraordinary."

"If my family had a TV show, it would be called Keeping up with the Peixotos," said Anthony Peixoto, pictured with his grandparents Maria and Manuel Peixoto. "Without the backing of my family though, I don't know where I'd be today." →

Jennifer Amaral's family takes a postcard-like picture at a family gathering. "My family is very close and always together," said Jennifer Amaral.

"For fun, my family plays pool, goes to the movies, and goes out to eat," said Edwin Olivencia who poses for a family picture with his brother Edwin (left), mom Evelyn, and dad Edwin. "They're outgoing, energetic, loud and tall!"

"Along with her parents Madeline and Mariano, Mariellis Vargas is all smiles. "My family means everything to me," Mariellis said. "I really look up to my dad."

"My family is my support system and the most amazing people I know," said Rachel Borba, who is pictured with her brother Adam, father Paul, and mother Clotilde. "My brother and I are very close. I couldn't have wished for a better sibling."

"I look up to my father a lot. Ever since I was little we have always had a great father-daughter relationship," said Shelby Friedland who is with her mom Barlene, her father Greg and her sisters Morgan and Barri.

"I look up to my mom because she has a lot of patience and is an independent woman," Alexa Nelson said with her mom India, who works in Gold House Office, and her sister Zamari.

Hall of Fashion

by Rachel Borba

Let's face it, people, fashion is in our face. Companies, our friends, and even our parents are telling us what we should wear and what clothes are acceptable. Ultimately, however, we are the ones who decide what we put on our bodies.

Fashion is one of the strongest forms of nonverbal communication.

"FASHION HELPS MAKE ME WHO I AM."
- Suzanne Charbonneau

You can tell a lot about a person from what they are wearing. Many times their clothing and style reveal the bands that they like, what their favorite color is, and how laid back they are. We all have a certain amount of passion for fashion, even those of us who claim not to care. Courtney Miranda summed it up beautifully by saying, "Fashion is a part of who you are, but doesn't show exactly who you are."

Fashion is so expansive; the beauty is that we can do whatever we want. We all have our favorite things that add some pizzazz and individuality to our style, whether it be a gold cross, an argyle sweater vest, a tie-dyed head-band or even a hair elastic as a bracelet. Having these extra touches can help with your confidence. Olga Ramos commented, "Fashion means a lot to me because I can feel good about myself." Suzanne Charbonneau even commented, "Fashion helps make me who I am."

eing on a sports team introduced Taylor Martins to the colorful world of tie dye. "Tie dye-what about it? I'm the tie dye warrior," she said.

Always keeping up with trends, here Ricky Williams sits in class with a collared shirt on. "I like the way I look in them," Ricky said.

Not only do you give to a good cause, but you get a nice bracelet, too. "I wanted to donate for breast cancer, it is the new trend of fashion," Michael Gryss Jr. said.

Plaid shirts became very popular with every kind of style. "I would describe my fashion as preppy mixed with ghetto and little bit of skater," said Joseph Nunes.

Maria DelaRosa, expressing her creative side in art class, also expresses her fashionable side. Wearing her colorful rosary, she stated, "This rosary means so much to me, and it also matches my Jordans."

Cynthia Delmas reads Death of A Salesman by Arthur Miller in AP English. She stays warm and stylish in her radiant scarf.

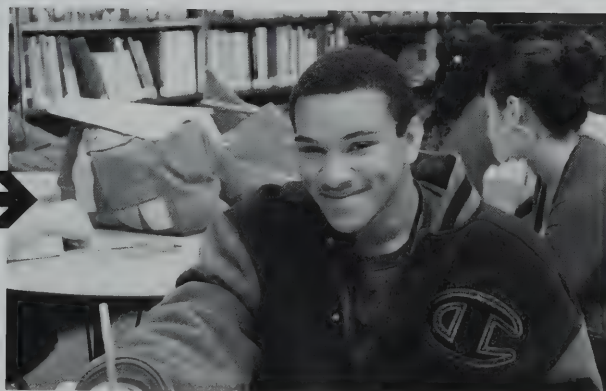

While wearing her Uggs boots, Kelynn Offley shows some of her sense of style to the school. "I wore them due to snowy weather and because they are so comfortable," Kelynn said.

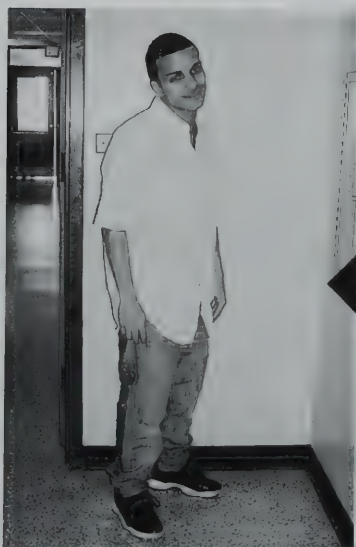

Wearing layers is a great way to add color to any outfit and to keep warm as Elizabeth Andino and Patricia Sequeira demonstrate. Patricia said, "Wearing layers not only keeps me warm, but also keeps me looking warm."

Hard at work in the media center, Corey Vieira sports his Champion jacket. "My fashion is whatever I feel like, and I express it through my clothes," he explained.

Winter days, waking up feeling cold, the only thing that helps is finding something warm and cozy to wear. Torie Manny slides on her Timbs, (Timberland boots,) on such mornings. She said, "I love my Timbs due to them being so cute and in style."

Shoes that hurt can be a hassle when going from class to class. Steven Gonzalvez-Garcia walks New Bedford High's halls in his Jordans. Jordans are a way to stay comfortable and fashionable all in one.

F Feeling the beat, Hayden Pepin gets completely immersed in his bass guitar. "It's groovy," said Hayden about playing the bass. Hayden has been playing for a long time and loves making music.

Showing some of his drawings, David Andino expresses himself through art. "The peace between me, the pencil, and the paper is the best part of drawing," said David. David's passion for drawing is something that makes him truly happy. 2 Finishing off her birthday rap for a friend, Kenya Baer-Clark loves to write in her writing notebook. Kenya said, "Writing is a form of releasing stress; whenever something is on my mind, and I want to let it out but never know how, I write it down creatively in short stories, poems, or just random things."

6 After playing the guitar for three years Charles Houbre is still passionate about it and still enjoys perfecting his skill. CJ commented, "It allows me to express whatever I'm feeling without even speaking." He enjoys bringing his guitar to school sometimes and performing for his class. 7 Taking in the natural beauty of Wicklow, Ireland, Sarah Flood stands in the grass looking out at the surroundings. Sarah said, "I've always loved to discover new things and places."

Everyone has a passion and Sarah's is traveling. "Traveling has always been something I'd like to continue in my future," said Sarah.

Standing at bat, Jenna Sylvia gets ready to hit it out of the park. Jenna has been playing softball for six years; she plays for a travel team, NBHS, and a summer league. "It is something I can get away to, it takes all of my stress away. I can just leave everything out on the field," said Jenna.

Keep it Alive

by Lexie Theodore

Putting her passion out there, Brianne Allain takes the stage with her singing abilities. "Singing has helped me gain confidence, and it lets me express myself. When I was younger, I was too shy to talk to people, but I could get up on stage and sing in front of a room full of people. When there are no words to explain how I'm feeling, I sing it; it makes me feel like I've gotten all the bad stuff out," Brianne said.

Passion: a strong or extravagant fondness, enthusiasm, or desire for anything. Passion is what you love. You will always remember high school, but not just because of what happens in school, but also what happened outside of it. Most people do enjoy taking classes in school like band, art, and show choir because it's what they love to do. Outside of school, though, is where they really do shine through their passion. "I love to compete with my friends by my side. That's why dance really is my passion," said Mary Macedo.

"I LOVE TO COMPETE WITH MY FRIENDS BY MY SIDE. THAT'S WHY DANCE REALLY IS MY PASSION."

-Mary Macedo

People can have a passion for art, sports, music, or even fitness. "Every time I step on the field, I feel like that's where I belong," said Justine Cote about her passion for softball. Passion can be anything a person loves, and when you love something you want to keep it close to you. "Singing just really relaxes me," said Kyla Thivierge. "I've always enjoyed doing it, and it has the power to make anything better."

Always remember what you love to do. After high school your passion will stay with you along with those memories that came with them. Keep it alive because passion is what drives you to be who you are. Never lose sight of your passion no matter how much time goes by. Make sure it is set in your mind and your heart.

All decked out in their Ramalama costumes, Alexa Theodore and Lauren Kelly pose for a creepy picture with some friends. "Every year I learn something new; there's always a new move or a different technique to learn," said Lexie. "It has taken up so much of my free time, but it is one of my favorite things to do." Lexie has been dancing for 14 years and hopes to continue it through college.

Matthew Durant expresses his passion through playing the Blues. "I've been playing the harmonica since I was six years old," said Matt. "My dad got me into blues, and when I saw the movie The Blues Brothers, it always made me want to be just like him!"

6. "Free time for me, means nap time!" -Phillip Houtman

7. "When I have time to myself, I go up to Boston with Djaissy and friends. Also, I love to go shopping. We just go for a night on the town."
-Stephanie Sylvia

though they have hectic schedules due to their many commitments, Raelyn Monteiro and Andy So find some free time in their lives. "I like to hang out with friends, go shopping, and watch the movies," Raelyn said.

from reality

by Rachel Borba

Ahh... free time, the time to just let loose, have fun and relax. Sadly, though, free time is limited when you are juggling school, homework, college prep, sports, clubs, working on the yearbook, and working; but when we do get that free time, we make it count!

Some of us like action-packed free time, take Alonzo Herbert for example who said, "I love to play football in my free time because I'm good at it; it just came natural to me." Jamil Isaac said, "I like to swim for the school's team because I have to stay in shape, and I like to work out at the gym."

"I LOVE TO PLAY FOOTBALL IN MY FREE TIME BECAUSE I'M GOOD AT IT; IT JUST COMES NATURAL TO ME."
-Alonzo Herbert

Sometimes when we finally get that free time we deserve, we just want to socialize and relax. "I like to text my friends because it keeps me entertained," commented Jaqueline Fernandes. We just all have to remember it's all about balance. There's no better way to keep your sanity!

Whether you want to just chill with your friends and play cards, talk for hours straight, watch TV, take up a hobby, read, or work out, we all need a little me time and us time. Just be sure to stay safe, keep it clean, and keep it fun because after all, what you do in your free time during high school may be the memories that end up being the most set in stone.

Countdown to Graduation

by Rachel Borba

I find it rather interesting how so many seniors think that graduation is the best part of senior year. So basically the best part of senior year is being done with it? Yeah, that's true sometimes. Senior year is very intense, from all the college applications to the added pressure to do well in your courses, to managing a balance between work and play. No wonder everyone looks forward to the end.

"I DON'T WANT TO LEAVE, BUT AT THE SAME TIME I WANT TO MOVE ON TO BETTER THINGS."
- Celina Houtman

Graduation is truly an important milestone in one's life. Older people always talk about their high school experiences because they are so etched in their hearts and so important because they begin to shape who you become. Graduation is that major step where we are not little kids anymore and gain more responsibility. It's the beautiful and emotional ceremony that's filled with tears, laughs, hugs, being in alphabetical order, and picture taking. Charles Houbre commented, "I'm excited and nervous. I just hope I don't get all watery-eyed in front of everyone!"

Graduation is not just about an ending, but as cliché as it sounds, it's really the beginning. Justine Cote jokes, "It's time to go onto another chapter of my life since I'm going to be a freshman again." Matthew Ferreira Morgado stated, "High school went by so fast. I will miss it, but I'm ready to pursue my dreams."

Even though all of us are looking forward to graduating, most of us will truly miss high school, especially senior year. Celina Houtman sounded torn when she stated, "I don't want to leave, but at the same time I want to move on to better things." There are many fun times to be had, concepts to be learned, and people to befriend. High school is not the destination, just a part of the journey.

"... all the fun times spent messing around with my friends."
- Patricia Davis

"... the good memories with my good friends."
- Chantel Carvalho

"... being captain for track and graduating."
- Patryk Backiel

"... the fact that it's the last year."

t takes a special dedication to be on a sports team. From practicing five to six days a week, pushing both your mind and body to its limits, to constantly motivating your teammates. A team is a different type of family where you want everyone to do their best. It's a family you spend countless amounts of hours with that's full of support, love, and fun times. Matt Durant commented, "The best part about cross country for me was definitely all the amazing friends

"I LOVE EVERY

- Jason Brierley

When athletes play sports, it's so clear that they put so much hard work into their sport and truly enjoy playing their best. You often times need to alter your lifestyle in order to really do well. From giving up soda, to waking up early to go to a 7 o'clock game. Take Patryk Backiel for example, who commented, "For pole vault, I start training two months in advance." All their dedication pays off because there is no better feeling than doing your best at something you love. Take Jason Brierley for example, who stated, "I love every second of being on the field."

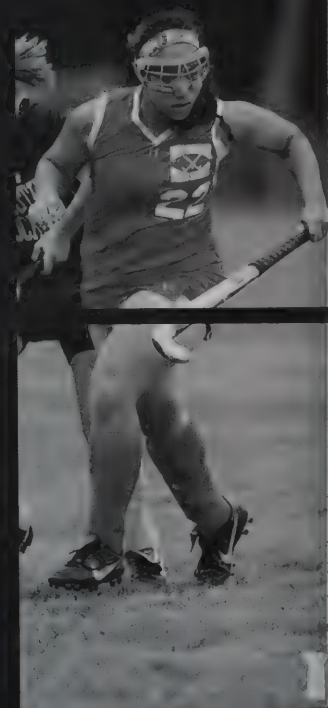

Regardless if you are the M.V.P. or just starting out, it's your dedication that's important. New Bedford High School has always been known for their athletics, and 2011 has been no different.

WHAT KEEPS YOU MOTIVATED TO PLAY YOUR SPORT?

1 "Well, in order to play a sport, you have to love it; that is what motivates me to keep playing field hockey and lacrosse because I love the teams and the sports." - Heide Palao

2 "What keeps me most motivated is my competitive nature. I always strive to do my best and not only beat my competitors, but also my own personal records." - Courtney Neves

3 "I am motivated by the possibility of winning." - Brandon Medeiros

4 "Knowing that I owe it to my teammates, coaches, and my family to leave it all on the field. To do my best and nothing less." - Jason Brierley

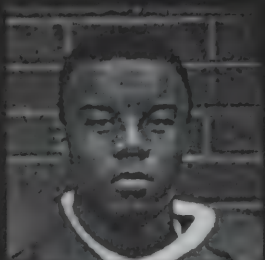

5 "Playing against tougher components and watching people who have more skill than I do motivated me to get better and try to be as good as them." - Alyssa Roach

6 "I love the sport and I wanted to get better." - Walter DeOliveira

The most challenging thing I faced this season was...

"Being able to cope with not playing after tearing my ACL again."
-Trevor Taveres

"Losing when knowing we should have won."
-Izaiah Baretto

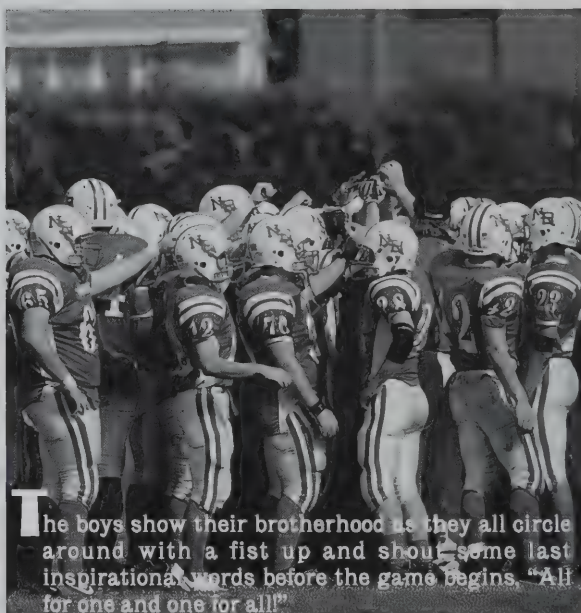

"To be ourselves, but once we got past the selfishness on the team, we were unstoppable."
-Stephen Talabach

"Staying focused and keeping my grades up while trying my hardest to balance both school, work, and football."

The boys show their brotherhood as they all circle around with a fist up and shout some last inspirational words before the game begins. "All for one and one for all!"

Coming in for the tackle, Izaiah Baretto takes down Duxbury's number 11. By Izaiah acting fast and staying on top of his game, he keeps the rival team from scoring.

After winning the most anticipated game against Brockton, captain Jason Brierley jumps with excitement as Tyler Ollivierre gives him a huge hug. The boys were so happy that their hard work paid off and they beat Brockton after a 10-year challenge, making them Big 3 Champions.

With full speed, Lance Burlingame tackles the rival player trying to keep a clear path for the Whalers. "Lance is a tremendous football player," said Coach Golden.

Protecting the ball, Phito Gondre makes a run for it as teammate Dezmen Duarte blocks the Duxbury team from stopping Phito. With all this team work in action, the boys are working hard to try to win the game.

It's Friday night, the spotlights are on, and the crowd is hyped as the New Bedford Whalers football team darts onto the field. Although every boy on the team is unique and has different talents, they bring to the team, they all have the same thought in their minds, "DOMINATE over the rival team." Now they might not have won every game, but it's a proven fact that every time they go out there and play, they play their hardest and gain more skills and technique for the next game. This year's team consisted of thirteen four-year players who have been dedicated from the beginning. Coach Golden stated, "Being a four year is terrific, it shows commitment, perseverance and a real sense of wanting to be part of the brotherhood that is NBHS." Whenever you ask any of the boys on the team about the relationship between one another, not one of them hesitates before saying, "This is more than a team; this is a brotherhood." The closeness of these boys just helps make football that much more enjoyable for them. These boys take football very seriously, as Izaiah Baretto said, "Football is more than a game, it's a way of life." The boys kept focused and determined, with that they beat our biggest competitors, Brockton and Durfee making them the Big 3 Champions, so every chance these boys get they are bettering their skills. Whether it's extra time in the weight room or studying the plays more, this Division 1 football team has been and will always be a major part of the school, and with our devoted players it just makes it that much more significant.

Taking off with speed, the Lady Whalers soon take the lead. The ladies know that as long as they stay focused they can accomplish anything.

Preparing for a great win, Hannah Dayton and Julie Guerette stretch out their legs. They also talk about unique ways to beat the rival team. Julie said, "I always think how I need to push myself harder than the other schools."

As the distance to finishing grows shorter, underclassman, Uerigen Mederios gets in front of fellow teammate Morgan Rivas-Silva.

Midway through the race, Morgan Rivas-Silva continues to keep a good pace, determined to finish.

Running Through It All

by Andrew Gracia

Every season, the girls of the cross country team consists of members who show determination. The team has members that show perseverance and focus on passing that finish line as quickly as they can, even though they may feel exhausted. This season's girls were no different. Headed by four seniors, the team accomplished much and didn't let any obstacles slow them down a bit.

"Having a great supportive and encouraging team behind you."

-Morgan Rivas-Silva

All four seniors, Courtney Neves, Morgan Rivas-Silva, Hannah Dayton, and Julie Guerette, agreed this was due in part to how close the team was.

Through numerous nights of team bonding, the girls were able to build on their already close bonds. "During team bonding, we played with the ouiji board, we tie-dyed, and went out to eat," said Julie Guerette, "It's always a lot of fun." Through times like these, the girls have managed to unite and create lasting memories. "Being on a team like this means having a great supportive and encouraging team behind you," commented Morgan Rivas-Silva. "Overall, this season has been challenging, but fun, and filled with memories."

Having determination is top key to doing your best. Matthew Durant said, "Cross country keeps me active, full of energy and gives me a reason to stay strong."

Trying his hardest, Raymond Guillotte moves toward the finish line. "My biggest accomplishment was breaking 20:00 in the 5k."

With all his power left, Anthony Peixoto pushes forward. "Being a captain and leading my team no matter the results of our meet," was Anthony Peixoto's biggest accomplishment this season.

Derek Jerome pushes his limits in the meet against Dartmouth. "Finding my body's limits was one of the most challenging things I've ever faced," said Derek Jerome.

With all their power and determination, the boys cross country team put their hard work and effort to good use this season. Not only did these boys spend Monday through Saturday together working hard, they also spent time at Papa Gino's enjoying each other's company. Whenever these boys were together you could always tell that they were having fun. Anthony

"MY FAVORITE PART OF THE SPORT IS THE HUGE AMOUNT OF MENTAL STRENGTH THAT IT TAKES TO RUN."

-Anthony Peixoto

Peixoto had to say, "My favorite part of this sport is the huge amount of mental strength that it takes to run." This season the boys put in so much effort for the team. "Although we lost many of our races, the team ran with all it's heart, and we never gave up. We proved that Whalers don't hold back, and we will always push for victory!" Matt Durant had to say about the season. The boys agreed that Brockton and Durfee were the hardest teams they faced. They ended up pulling through and coming in second. The season ended up on a positive note. Derek Jerome noted, "One memory isn't a good way to describe such a fun season." Showing that no matter what, these boys will always be one team.

Forward Margaret Midurski stops a Dartmouth defender from taking the ball into their possession.

Taking the free hit, Amber Nunes drives the ball down the field. She relied on her teammates all season to get the ball and do the best they could do. Nunes, as the starting left midfielder, played back last season and got moved up to midfield by Coach Rezendes this season.

Moving up field, sweeper Courtney Crompton watches the play to be prepared for the ball. Crompton doesn't get much action downfield because she has such an amazing team in front of her. When she does get the ball, she brings it right back up field.

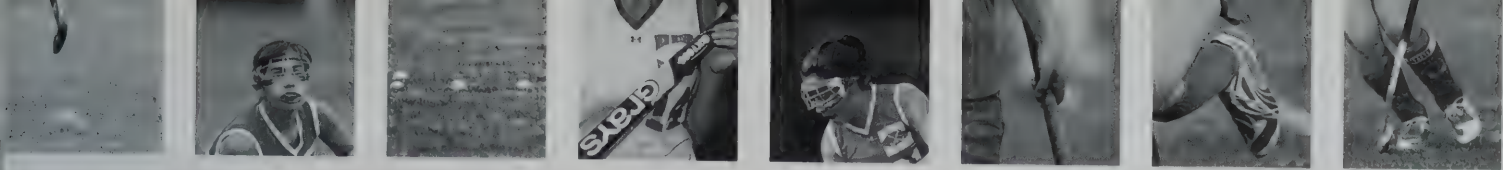

On the corner, back Heidi Palao sprints out to play the ball. She got the ball from the opposing team and drove it up the field. Palao has defended the Whalers' goal very well this season and never gave up.

About to get the ball, captain and midfielder Aubrie Brault, plays hard against the Dartmouth Indians. Aubrie didn't give up all game and played her heart out. Whalers played the Indians on September 16th coming home with a win of 2-0.

A slight breeze rushes under the newly fallen leaves. On August 26th at 8 o'clock in the morning, cleats are laced, shin guards are put on, mouth guards in, and hair pulled back ready to take the field. Hell week has begun. Coach Rezendes knows her team will be prepared and excited to start off the season when she gets there. With Co-Captains Aubrie Brault and Courtney Miranda, the New Bedford High School's field hockey team is unstoppable. "Most of the girls already were going to captains' practices. We'd run and get into shape," said Courtney about workouts. "Hell week was extremely hot, I sweat so much, but it was great to be back," said Aubrie also about hell week workouts. Other schools were ready, but some tried to amount to our NBHS field hockey team. Schools like Bishop Stang showed their potential. "The first Bishop Stang game was the quickest, most intense game of the season - we're both great teams," said Aubrie Brault. "The Stang game was very intense, back and forth, neck and neck," said Courtney Miranda.

Coach Rezendes led the team to a successful season with a 13-3-2 record. They made it to the championship in the post season as well.

Running towards the ball, forward Rebecca Kanter dribbles up the field. Eventually, she passed the ball, attempting to score. Kanter assisted and scored many goals this season.

Moving in on the rival team player, Jillian Silva-Jones plays great defense. Jillian ultimately stole the ball and moved it upfield.

Running up with eagerness, Jillian Silva-Jones defends the ball against Bridgewater-Raynham. With Jillian on top of her game, she makes it really difficult for the rival team to score. Having great defense just makes the team even better.

With force and power, Shelby Friedland kicks the ball into the field while the rival team player tries to stop her. The girls are focused making their moves quick and precise. The crowd begins the chant to keep the girls' confidence high.

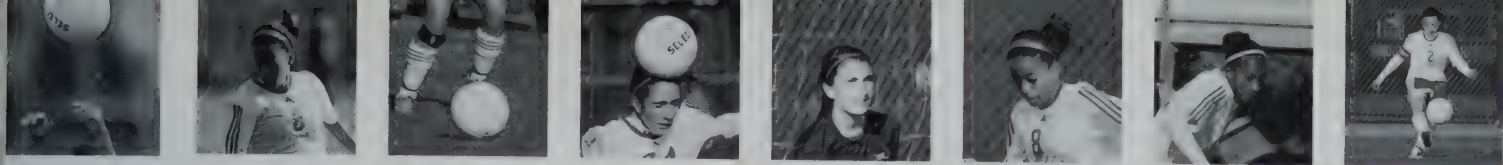

Stopping number 8 from Bridgewater-Raynham, Alex Medeiros throws the ball back into the game. Alexis DeBrosse now has the ball and runs it up field so the Lady Whalers can continue to dominate.

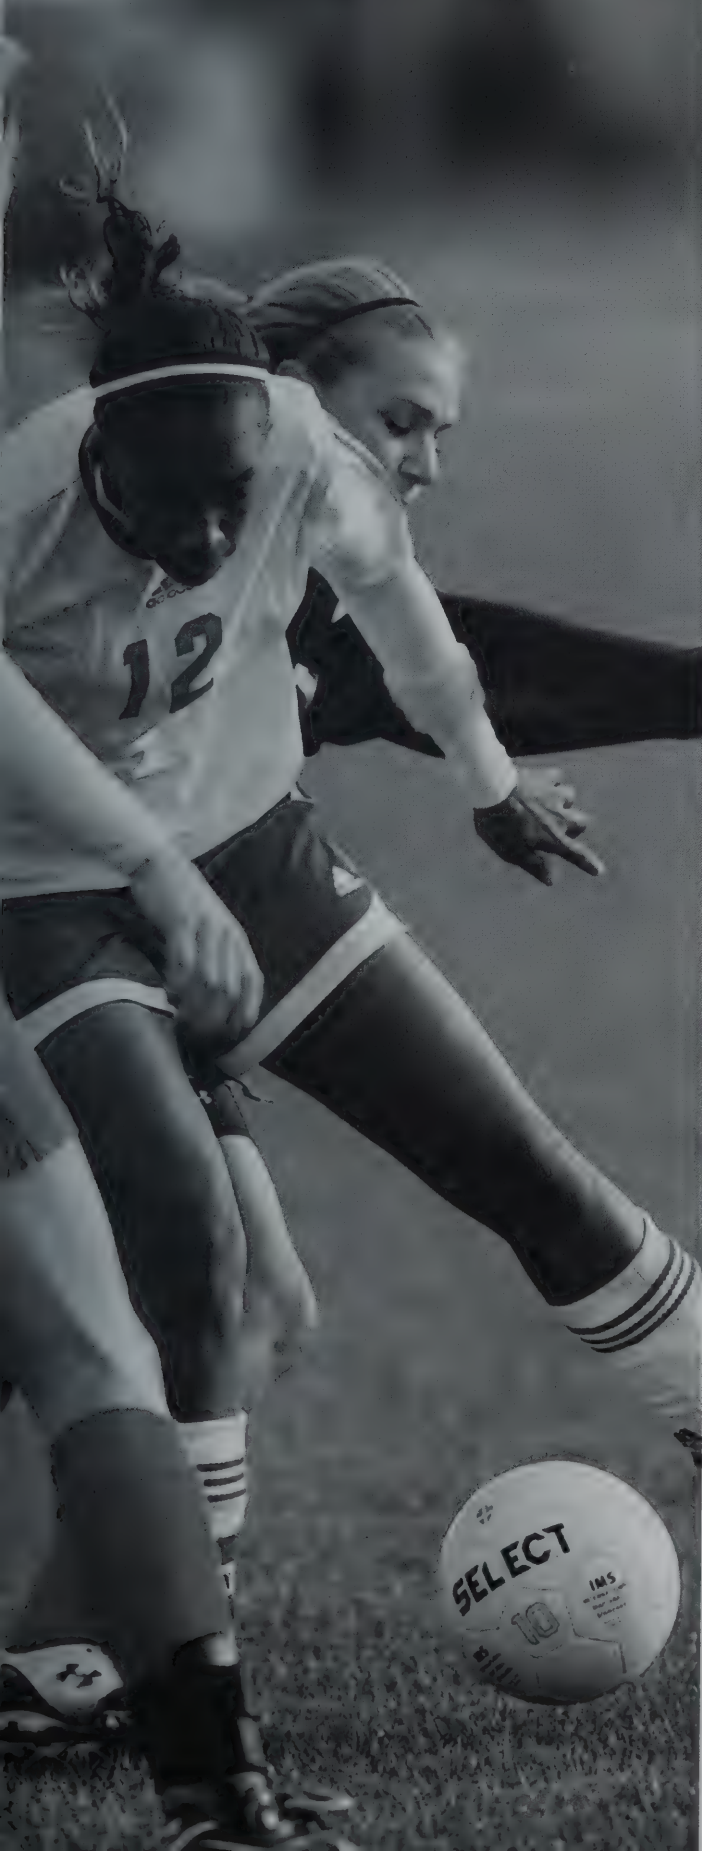

Providing a corner kick, Braley Freire kicks hard to an open teammate. The team moves fast with the intention of scoring yet another great goal. The crowd's getting louder with excitement as the girls get closer to the net.

In a tight space with two girls on her, Alyssa Roach finds a way to pass the ball to another team member, which resulted in a goal scored for the Whalers!

Forever kicking it

Forever Kicking it by Alexa Nelson

This season, the soccer girls had a lot to be proud of. They ranked seventh in the state, beat Dartmouth 3-1, and were undefeated for eight games straight, the Lady Whalers have always come out on top. Initially, their main goal was to put doubts to rest. Braley Freire said, "At first, the most challenging thing was having so many young, new players on varsity and rebuilding a new defense. Our biggest accomplishment is getting this far and doing so well after everyone had so much doubt in us."

Amanda Mendes said, "When I look back at this season, I'll remember how so many people thought we wouldn't be a good team and how many people we proved wrong." They weren't only all about scoring goals and winning, though. Their bond was important to them, too. "We have good chemistry on and off the field," said Alyssa Roach. They all agreed that being with each other is one of the best parts of playing a sport they love. When at team bonding, they would do fun things including "sitting around the fire pit, hot tubbing, and sleepovers," Kelynn Offley shared. Their passion for the sport is obvious; most of the girls have been playing soccer almost all their lives, most of them starting around age four. When they're on the field working hard, scoring goals, and winning the games, they are champions of the field. When they're off the field, though, they are our regular, fun, loving Lady Whalers.

Have you ever tried throwing something through a steel wall? Being the goalie, Elisangela "Eli" Reis acted as a steel wall against his opponents.

These boys know about teamwork! Fernando Baptista concentrated on passing the ball to his teammate while opponents followed behind.

Defying gravity shouldn't be taken for granted. It was a remarkable sight to see Joshua Chao fly through the air to kick the ball down the field.

Getting the ball into play was the only thought Tanner Garcia was concentrated on. Tanner has been a member of the team since his freshman year.

Regardless of the situation, all that matters on the field is to get the ball. Tanner Garcia headbutts the ball straight to a teammate. Thanks to his determination NBHS receives a GOAL!

Blood, sweat, and tears. It wouldn't be the NBHS boys soccer team if they didn't endure it all. The boys had an inspiring season. Every player on the field played together as one. After ten years of coaching varsity, John Macaroco lead his team to another outstanding season. With great joy, Coach Macaroco stated,

"I'm more than proud to lead such hard-working and deserving players." Leaving a mark on this year's team were tri-captains Joshua Chao, Tiago Dourando, and John Macaroco. Each gave 110% of their time, energy and Whaler spirit. Goalie, Eli Reis said, "I will never forget my four years playing for NBHS!" Not only does the team play for their own pleasure, but they represent the Whalers as well. NBHS senior Salman Bashir commented, "You can not find better! Not a chance!" Earning their school's appreciation can officially be crossed off the boys' bucket list.

Since Melissa Wesember did her best and improved her times, she got recognized for all of her efforts by receiving a congratulations and a bouquet of flowers. Melissa started swimming her junior year and fell in love with it and continued during her senior year.

Training for her senior year, junior Mara Honohan, steps up her game. Surely she has proven herself and is an awesome asset to the team.

Being prepared mentally is key to any sport. Althea Silvia gets ready by speaking to a teammate about the meet. "Words of wisdom," she called it.

The horn beeps, and Meaghan Fowler jumps in the water. She speeds through her races with great determination.

Our own girls swim team has brought great pride to NBHS. Though it has been a tough season, they still kept the team together and had fun. Sara-Elisabeth Rivard stated, "My favorite part is being with my friends and improving in my events." The girls have shown improvement and dedication throughout the year. Even outside of school they were affected. "This sport means dedication, determination and motivation," said Meaghan Fowler. Obviously it has positively affected and changed their lives in general. After graduation, our dedicated swimmers will always remember their four years. Melissa Wesember called the years she spent on the team "extremely rewarding." These four years have definitely left a mark.

It's a timeout, and the team huddles around to map out their plan to victory.

When the ball only inches away from the floor, Haley Sullivan sprawls across the floor and passes a hard serve up to her teammate. Haley's quick reaction leads them to another point. The girls know that with teamwork winning is always possible.

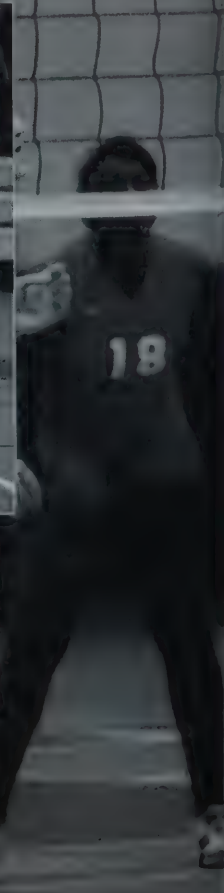

During the game against the Dartmouth Indians, back row specialist Kristina Thompson passes the ball to the setter Nicole Peixoto and makes a killer play. Due to the good play, the crowd burst out in screams and chants as the Lady Whalers are in the lead. These ladies are unstoppable.

Serving the ball, Nicole Peixoto serves the ball flying over the net to the rival team. You can tell these ladies are all really serious about this sport and enjoy it. As Nicole herself said, "I love this sport and playing with the team."

Focused on the game, Holliane Medeiros is waiting for the ball to be in her side of the court. In all their games, the lady Whalers stay focused and wait to attack. This is what leads to these ladies to domination.

Rock it to the Net

Rock it to the Net by Andrew Gracia

Spiking the ball to the Dartmouth Indians, Maura Manley scores a point by hitting it right by the defensive blockers.

The 2009 season for the NBHS girls volleyball team was a season of highlights, not only going undefeated but also becoming state champions. Coming off the heels of such a successful season. It's hard to imagine how the ladies could follow that up, but this team only lost one senior to graduation, so they were just as strong this season as last. Headed by great coach Neil Macedo and nine seniors, the ladies have showed no sign of slowing down. Suffering from only one loss in early October, the team dominated all of their other opponents, including a pouncing of Taunton on October 22nd.

"We're such a close team - we give 100%!"

-Nicole Peixoto

Of course, it is not only the wins and the title that makes the team as strong as they are. "We're such a close team," said senior co-captain Nicole Peixoto. "We give 100%!" The girls' tight bond with one another has definitely progressed over four years. As on any team, the girls have had their frustrations but have been able to work past them through team bonding. "Team bonding is so fun," said Holliann Medeiros. "It gives the team the chance to learn more about one another, which has united us." As the final season draws to a close, it is unlikely they will forget their volleyball careers at New Bedford High. The ladies will leave NBHS with a banner in the gyms, a state title ring on their fingers and of course, lasting memories they've made with their "family." "When we play," said Cheyenne Howard, "we play as one. We're not a team, we're a family, and we always will be."

Being on a team helps make friendships and bonds. Morgan Rivas-Silva, Hannah Dayton, and Julie Guerette all enjoy being on the track team together. Teammates become as close as family members.

Running track takes a lot of determination and stamina. Morgan Rivas-Silva runs because she loves track and competing. The sport is very rewarding and being part of a great team makes it worth it.

Baton in hand, Courtney Neves runs for her team. Being co-captain makes the season memorable. Courtney broke her own 600-meter record this season and was a great addition to the team's success.

Keeping pace and trying to go for a win helps keep the NBHS girls track team motivated. Running like a true athlete, Hannah Dayton goes for the lead. Motivation from her team helps her strive to do her best.

The co-captain holds the team together and helps them strive. Alexandra Medeiros talks with her coach before a meet. Every member of the team and the coach all have to work together and be on the same page to win.

Courtney Neves runs at an Old Colony meet. Her efforts helped add to her teammates' to equal wins and success.

Running To Victory

Running To Victory by Molly Lafleur

The New Bedford High School Girls Winter Track team has had a successful season. Being part of a team sport is rewarding because you learn to work together. You also learn to play on each others' strengths to win. The team this year won the Big 3, bringing home a huge victory. "The best memory was when it was the Big 3 meet and it was so close between us and Brockton, and we won it. That was the best feeling," said Braley Freire.

"THIS SEASON WAS GREAT. IT WAS A GREAT LEARNING EXPERIENCE."
- Courtney Williams

The team has worked hard all season and their work has paid off. "As I watched how the team improved week by week, I saw that the championship was possible and how we have a chance to do well in the Divisional Championship," commented Coach Houtman.

The girls' success was due to hard work and the support of their fellow teammates and coaches. This season has been an accomplishment for the girls and one made memorable by winning the Big 3. "This season was great and consisted of a lot of hard work and tears. It was a great learning experience," said Courtney Williams.

Approaching the 100 meter mark on the 200 meter track, Derek Jerome leads the 600 meter race. Followed by fellow senior Patryk Backiel, as well as the opposing Dartmouth team, Derek uses all of his strength to maintain his position. Derek has superb endurance for the 600.

With his long hair smacking the back of his neck, Matt Durant progresses through the 2-mile race. A cross country veteran runner, Matt is no stranger to the mental strain and physical exhaustion of this event.

Captain Patryk Backiel comes running around the bend in the 600 meter race with a Dartmouth runner breathing down his neck. Patryk was among the most prepared runners when the season began, having joined a rowing team in the fall to "increase muscle endurance."

Junior Matt Costa shows his ambition and passion for the sport by giving his all and running his heart out. He considers the competition and people involved in track to be fun and exciting.

Flying through the air, Phito Gondre soars his way over feet of sand in a very difficult field event: long jump. This proved to be one of Phito's most successful years, as he set a record of 22.4 feet in this event. "It was pretty good," he said. "I wasn't as happy as I was when I set the record in the 55 meter dash."

When the winds blow unmercifully and the snow falls harshly during the cold winter months, the outdoor sports take a break, and the spotlight shifts to the indoor activities. This year, a light truly did shine upon the brave boys of the school's winter track team! With new leadership but that same Whaler spirit, the runners, throwers, and jumpers stepped gracefully into their element.

The season began with a change of command; former Head Track Coach Giasson handed the reigns to his worthy successor, Coach Houtman. "Because there is only one head coach and two teams," Houtman said, "I was afraid I would make a mistake with paperwork and other things, but Coach Giasson, Coach T., and Coach Bouchard all helped to make sure I didn't."

Houtman and the other fantastic coaches led the team onto one of its most successful seasons! They went undefeated in their season, became Big 3 champs, and went to the Division one State Relay Championship for the first time in decades.

"Whenever I have a good race," said captain Patryk Backiel, "It's because I went fast and finished fast." He said the rest of the team worked incredibly hard to win. Co-Captain Ricky Williams could only describe the pride he has in his team by saying, "It feels good to be a Whaler, and I am proud of my team."

Full of energy, Servulo Pires comes up strong after his victory. The underclassman hopes to carry that momentum into his senior year.

Getting the upper hand, Christopher Washer does his best to secure a win for himself and the team. The senior has also been a part of the Whalers' football and lacrosse programs.

Warming up before the matches begin, senior Jonathan Costa goes over some maneuvers with his team member. He has dominated his opponents throughout his four year tenure on the wrestling team.

At the sound of the referee's whistle, Walter DeOliveira prepared to go on the mat against his opponent from Taunton. "Every team we've faced was hard, but Bridgewater-Raynham was the hardest," Walter commented.

Hard Knocks

by Andrew Gracia

Every November, the boys wrestling team prepares for the long, tough season by going through intense workouts. All the conditioning the boys do build up their agility, strength, and speed, which is all required by such a physical sport. It's also required by a sports program here at NBHS that has been nothing but successful. In the past, the program has produced numerous state champions and even a few New England champs. This season they continued down the path of success.

"THE PAST FOUR YEARS HAVE BEEN GREAT; WRESTLING HAS BEEN MY LIFE."
-Walter DeOliveira

Three of the team's finest wrestlers, captains Jonathan Costa and James Fredericks and underclassman Paulo Tavares made an appearance in the state tournament. Also, one of Jonathan's last wrestling matches will be in New England; his final being at Senior Nationals. When asked about his high school wrestling career drawing to a close, Jon commented, "It was a fun ride while it lasted."

All season long, with determination, the boys as a team had a successful season. They had a final tally of twenty wins and seven losses. They completely dominated many teams, including North Quincy, Woburn, and Duxbury on January 29. They faced all three at the Duxbury Tournament, where they placed first.

Events like these are what motivates the team to do their best and to succeed at such a difficult sport. Without a doubt, though, they've been nothing but successful this year as well. "This season has been overall successful for the team," Walter DeOliveira said. "The past four years have been great; Wrestling has been my life."

- Brandon Medeiros

"Learning butterfly stroke."
- Andre DePina

Co-Captains and Coaches: Coach Verran, Captain Michael Gryss, Captain Anthony Peixoto, Coach Longo.

During the butterfly event, Anthony Peixoto races past opposing swimmers to the finish. When asked what swimming means to him, Anthony said, "It's a character-building experience in which our team always ends up being very close to one another by the end of the season."

During warm-ups, Brandon Medeiros practices his freestyle stroke. Brandon said that his favorite part of the sport was making new friends. This was Brandon's first season swimming.

Co-captain Anthony Peixoto attempts to cut his time down during warm-ups. Before a meet, Anthony usually stretches, warms up and then mentally prepares himself to compete.

The team keeps high energy flowing even after a meet is over. They gather together to high-five and huddle. Even though there was a lack of swimmers this season, the coaches said that everyone improved greatly over the season.

After breaking his own personal best time, Michael Gryss is congratulated by his teammates. The highlight of his season was pushing the head coach into the pool after their last home meet.

Swimmers on the boys team were able to take a sigh of relief when they looked up at the scoreboard. With one point to spare, NBH beat Durfee and secured the Big 3 championship. "This season was very successful," said senior Anthony Peixoto.

Although the team won the Big 3, they had a tough time against other teams, with the only two wins being against Brockton and Durfee. "The season was tough with only four swimmers returning from last season, but the first-year swimmers progressed a lot which was a major factor in winning the Big 3," said senior Michael Gryss.

Despite the tough season, it was successful and also very memorable. "I will never forget the friends I made this season," said senior Brandon Medeiros. I think it's safe to say the team is happy with their performance, knowing they tried their hardest at every meet.

Co-Captains: Alyssa Roach and Arielle Gomes.

Captain Alyssa Roach is congratulated after reaching 1,000 points in her high school career - only the third NBHS student to ever achieve that.

As Arielle Gomes tries to prevent the opponent's shot, Courtney Miranda gets ready to grab the rebound. The Whaler's defense is one of the pieces of their success, and they continue to keep up their hard work to break down the opponents and do what they do best - and that is score.

While she concentrates on her defender's eyes, Allxia Barros stays focused on defending her player as she looks to pass it to a teammate. Lexi continued her tough defense during the victory against Dartmouth and throughout the season.

Giving her teammate a helping hand, forward Arielle Gomes goes up for the block to prevent Dartmouth's Ally Pontes from scoring. Gomes proves herself everytime she gets on the court as she came back from two knee injuries.

Prepared to go through the traffic on the way to the basket, Courtney Miranda makes her next move. Miranda's ability to draw defenders helps to open her teammates up for wide-open shots.

By grabbing the fast break pass from a teammate, point guard Alyssa Roach gives herself enough room from her defender to get the lay in. Roach averaged a double-double in points and assists to help her Lady Whalers to the playoffs. The Whalers grinded out the tough overtime win against Dartmouth, 74-64.

Racking Up the Wins

Racking Up the Wins by Andrea Moniz

Having the past two seasons end abruptly, the Lady Whalers came into this season with a goal in mind: getting back on top. The ladies worked hard since the first day of practice, and it is clear from their undefeated season. The Lady Whalers cruised to a 20-0 perfect season, but also had some close calls. "Playing Durfee," in Courtney Miranda's opinion, "was the most challenging team." It was the first meeting against the two, and it was a thriller. The Whalers won in double overtime due to a buzzer-beating three pointer by sophomore Kat Guillotte at the end of regulation.

"IT'S NOT WHAT I DO, IT'S WHAT I LOVE."

- Arielle Gomes

From then on, the Lady Whalers had the confidence and momentum to keep winning these tough teams. The Lady Whalers' success was all from team chemistry. "I feel as though our team is close off of the court, and that is the reason for our success on the court," Alyssa Roach said. The girls are a family. They have team bonding as much as they can, and they always have a blast together. They believe in each other, and that's why they push one another.

"Basketball is a part of who I am as a person. It's not what I do, it's what I love," Arielle Gomes stated when asked what this sport means to her. Gomes and the Lady Whalers have a strong passion for this game, and they kept it up all the way to the TD BankNorth Garden where they defeated Mansfield, qualifying them for the State Semi-Finals, where their season came to a close with a close game against Andover.

Focusing on what he's going to do next, Steven Wynn looks on what the Dartmouth's defender is going to do so he can make a move to the basket.

Getting the defensive rebound from a teammate, Rylin Collazo sets his eyes on passing the ball to a teammate. After Collazo's pass, the Whalers added on to their lead against the Dartmouth Indians.

Getting ready to come down to pass the ball, Cameron Walker strongly grabs the defensive rebound from the Dartmouth players. Walker and the rest of the Whalers' excellent effort gave them the win against the Indians.

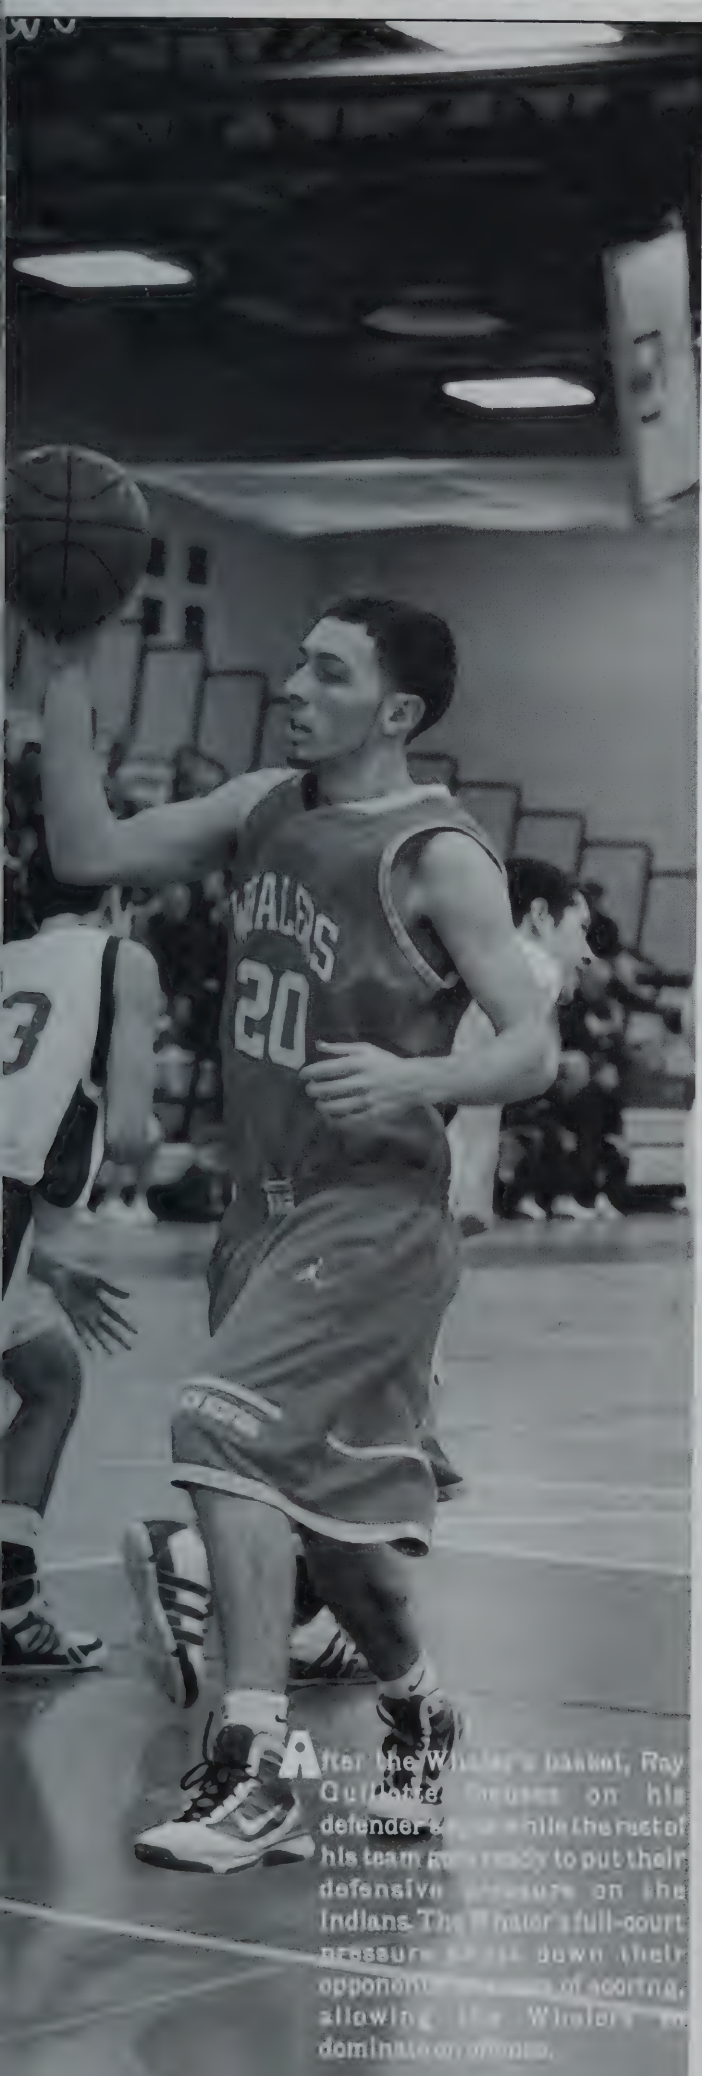

Surrounded by multiple defenders, David Rose gets ready to make a move to the basket. Rose keeps his hard work throughout every game and throughout the season as he and the Whalers make an impact into the playoffs.

After the Indian's basket, Ray Guillotte gathers the ball and passes the ball to a teammate. Guillotte then ran down the court and helped the Whaler's offense score. Guillotte's tremendous help gives the boys more of a chance in the playoffs.

The Whaler's Boys Basketball season was all about coming together as one. The previous seasons have been rocky for the Whalers, so they wanted to make a change.

They wanted to get back to the top, where they knew they belonged. Battling through multiple injuries, the boys fought back. The most challenging thing that the boys had to deal with was "keeping the team together," Cameron Walker stated.

Even through their rough spots, the Whalers fought through it and brought back the winning style that New Bedford High School is known for. "Our biggest accomplishment this season was beating Brockton, which we haven't done in over five years," Ray Guillotte said after the Whalers won a hard-fought game against our rivals, the Brockton Boxers. The 59-56 win gave the boys an extra boost of energy as they went on to win their last four regular season games, ending their season on a high note.

The boys continued fighting hard to make an impact in the playoffs. The Whalers all came together to prove that they were capable of being a contender. "I enjoy being a part of a team and the friends I make from it," said Ray Guillotte about what he likes most about playing this sport. The boy's connection grew throughout the season giving them the chance to make it to the playoffs as a team.

Seeking possession of the puck, Brandon Medeiros poked at the stick of a Voc player to jar it free. Brandon has been a great asset to the hockey team. Since freshman year, his knowledge of the game, along with his aestheticism, has helped the Whalers.

Battling his way through the rough defense, co-captain Nathan Lewis attempts to make a pass. When asked what the team's biggest accomplishment was, Nate answered, "Sticking together."

Making his way to the Whalers' bench, Coach Sullivan has his game face on. "The captains and I motivate the team before each game," Coach said.

In preparation to make a play, co-captain Richard Brito skates into the Whalers' offensive zone. Not only was he named captain for the team, but Coach Sullivan also cited him as one of the most improved players.

During a battle for the puck, senior Justin St. Pierre fights with his Voc opponent along the boards. Justin is very athletic and shows a lot of intensity in every game he plays.

Following a Whalers' goal, co-captain Brandon Medeiros (left) celebrates with his teammates. Taking on the crosstown rival, New Bedford Voc, a lot of excitement and adrenaline is spurred by both sides of the ice. Unfortunately for the Whalers, they were edged by the Bears 5 - 4.

Sticking Together

by Brian Camara

From blowout losses to close game thrillers, the New Bedford High Hockey team battled a series of disappointments over the season. However, senior captain Brandon Medeiros hinted that the best is yet to come.

"This season was definitely upsetting, but it was also good because we got better and better which was the goal of this season," Brandon said. Probably the most unique thing about the team was how they prepared. "Before a game we all sang 'The Climb' by Miley Cyrus," said senior Chris Souza.

Although the season didn't turn out how the players expected, it was still an exciting season for them. "Our best game was definitely our first win of the year against Durfee," Chris Souza also had to say. "One memory from this season that I will never forget was our first win," said Coach Sullivan. So although the season was rough, I think we can expect the team to come back with a vengeance next year.

One of the greatest things about New Bedford High School is the fact that we have a club for everyone. In addition, we hold many activities throughout each school year that our student body gets involved in. To

"THE ART CLUB MEANS A LOT TO ME BECAUSE IT GIVES ME THE FREEDOM OF MY ARTISTIC EXPRESSION."

- Shianne DeOliveira

those that may disagree with me, you can even start your own club that suits your interest. Some clubs involve a lot of physical work, like Cheerleading, Colorguard, and JROTC. Take Alyssa Lopes for example, "My club is very difficult, and in all honesty I really feel it should be considered a sport; it really takes a lot of practice and hard work to get it right."

Some clubs require a lot of brain power. Take the Debate Team for example. A club like this lets you apply what you do in the classroom into outside activities. Rebecca Kanter commented, "Debate improved my arguing skills, challenged me beyond many of my academic courses, and introduced me to great people."

Clubs are also a great way to be able to practice and learn about your passion. Senior Shianne DeOliveira commented, "The Art Club means a lot to me because it gives me the freedom of my artistic expression." No matter what club or activity you participate in, the important thing is that you got involved, learned some new things, and made great memories.

6 "I've learned from my four short years in JROTC the qualities of a successful leader - confidence, trust and risk can shape a person to lead themselves and their peers to achieve their goals." - Kori Nunes

Every year, the first show produced by the Drama Club creates a lot of excitement and takes a lot of preparation. All My Sons was no different. Taking place in the Little Theater for the second consecutive year, the small venue was turned into quite the atmosphere backed by a colorful set. Props used in the production included a white-picket fence, benches, porches and numerous chairs.

All My Sons is about the choices of an average business man and how they affect no less than the world. Joe Keller, played by Andy Soares, is an owner of a plantation that makes engine heads whose decision killed 21 soldiers in WWII. "This show dove into human emotions," Andy Soares said. "It also brought up the question of morality; what is right and what is wrong." While his business partner is incarcerated, Keller and his wife, Kate Keller, Brianne Allain, keep the secret strictly between themselves.

The Keller's son, Chris (Alex Pires), in the meantime invites his brother's sweetheart, Ann Deever, Cassandra Borges, to marry him. "The character I played is more mature opposed to previous characters I've played," remarked Cassandra. Deever's brother, George (Alex Papas) also arrives. With all this happening, the secret could potentially be revealed.

The show was very well done, and the performances of all the actors and actresses were strong. For Brianne Allain, it was very special. "It was my last show, and it's very bitter-sweet. It's sad to leave the directors and the stage I grew up on."

Chris Keller (Alex Pires) is ready to hurt his father after realizing he was responsible for the death of 21 pilots and lied about it.

Joe Keller (Andy Soares), entering from the house, catches a private moment shared between his son and his son's fiancé.

2 Kate Keller (Brianne Allain), left, reminds Ann (Cassandra Borges) to never mention her son is dead.

3 Kate Keller (Brianne Allain) sits with a letter from her son Larry, proving he committed suicide. Chris and Ann discuss what will happen next.

5 After realizing her husband's lie is exposed, Kate Keller (Brianne Allain) comforts Joe (Andy Soares).

Ann Deever, Cassandra Borges, sits while disapprovingly listening to Chris's mother rant about her son, Larry.

1 Frank Lubeg (Shane Burgo) chats jovially with Joe Keller (Andy Soares) and Dr. Bayliss (Sean DeAndrade) about the newspaper. 2 Kate (Brianna Allain) tells her husband Joe (Andy Soares) that the only way to make his mistake right is to be honest with their son.

After much costuming and makeup, Sean DeAndrade and Raelyn Monteiro are transformed into Dr. Bayliss and Sue Bayliss.

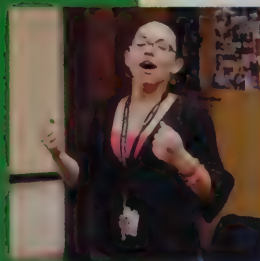

Director Tasha Fonseca gives Sean DeAndrade the aged, wise doctor look with gray coloring.

A NIGHT TO

Senior Banquet was all about dancing this year. The dance floor was full all night.

Mary Macedo, Bethany Ann Pimentel, and Kassandra Noriega dance to "The Cupid Shuffle," a new popular dance that everyone loved.

The highlight of Rachel Borba and Alexa Theodore's night was "not having to think about working on the yearbook for a whole night," joked Rachel. "We looked so good," said Lexie.

Shalia Turner, Kelly DaCruz, and Jaelynn Williams dance to the "Cha Cha Slide" together and laugh as the rest of the students join in.

A fantastic night began at White's of Westport for the New Bedford High Seniors, as pictures were taken and greetings were exchanged. The class of 2011 could not contain their excitement as they seated themselves for the first major event of the year. Food was served and enjoyed by all. While eating, everyone watched the soccer team play in the state championship on the big screen.

"IT WAS A PERFECT BEGINNING OF WHAT IS STILL LEFT TO EXPERIENCE IN OUR LAST YEAR OF HIGH SCHOOL."
-Holliann Medeiros

Music and dancing began immediately, and nobody hesitated in heading to the dance floor. "Dancing was the best part of the banquet," exclaimed Bethany Pimental. The dancing did not stop all night, and the students had a tremendous amount of fun with their friends. "The non-stop dancing helped me ignore the pain from my heels," joked Kenya Baer-Clark.

The event went on terrifically, and it left the seniors begging for prom to come. "It was so much fun!" stated Holliann Medeiros. "It was a perfect beginning of what is still left to experience in our last year of high school," she concluded.

WHAT WERE THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN JUNIOR AND SENIOR BANQUET?

Sharing a moment together, on the dance floor, Jarell Neves and Alexis Silvestro-Gonzales dance to a slow song. Even in a room full of kids dancing, they're completely focused on each other. That night will be one they will always remember.

Sitting at their table, Marellis Vargas and Edwin Olivencia enjoy dessert at their table. The food was a great and the anticipated hours of dancing added to the excitement.

Showing up the boys with their dance skills, the girls show'em how it's done. Everyone's having a great night dancing. From song to song, the night flew by.

On the dance floor, Jordan Conceicao and Kimberly Edge dance to "I Will Always Love You" by Whitney Houston.

Showing off their moves, everyone is having an amazing time dancing. The dance floor was crowded with kids dancing, talking, and having a good time with friends.

like qualities. One thing though that is very similar to the movies is our school spirit.

We know what school spirit is all about - from the crazy costumes to the body paint, to the elaborate t-shirts. "My favorite thing about Spirit Week is how all of the seniors show off their school spirit, not caring how silly we look," commented Vanessa DaSilva.

New Bedford High school also picks interesting themes for each day. "New Bedford High School also picks pretty funny days to do. My favorite spirit day is Decade Day because you get to see all your friends dressed in a different time," commented Victoria Gracia. Julie Guerette said, "I like Toga Day because everyone does it." Then Phillip Houtman commented, "I love Red and White day because it's the bomb!"

We will certainly miss these spirit days and all the memories set in stone from them. Spirit Week was always one of the best weeks of the year.

Who would have thought bed sheets could make such nice togas? Well seniors Kristen Sharp, Robert Silva, and Morgan Rivas-Silva put them to good use to show their school spirit for Toga Day.

FROM CHEERS TO FLAMES

by Lexie Theodore

On Wednesday November 24, 2010 you could hear and see the excitement throughout the whole school. As soon as the bell rang at 10:10 A.M., the school was screaming out spirit. Students, staff, and friends of NBHS made their way to the gyms for the pep rally. The rally had everything from speeches to school spirit winners and from the cheerleading cheers to the band and colorguard performance.

"IT WAS A REALLY FUN DAY AND HEARTBREAKING BECAUSE THIS IS THE LAST YEAR I WILL BE A WHALER."

-Djaissy Teixeira

Later that evening, the floats, the band, cheerleaders trollies, police cars, and of course the winner of the car decorating contest lined up and began to head down Rockdale Ave. to the bonfire. Once at the bonfire, everyone was there to help support and cheer on their Whalers to lead them to victory. As soon as all the speeches were done, the huge inferno of our bonfire was finally lit. Christine Wheeler had to say, "It was fun to hang out with everyone and support the football team for their big game."

Overall, the day was a success. From the beginning, getting everyone hyped up at the pep rally to all the support at the bonfire, November 24, 2010 became a day to remember. "It was a really fun day, but heart-breaking because this is the last year I will be a Whaler," commented Djaissy Teixeira.

2 Winner of the car decorating contest, Derek Jerome leads the parade in his decorated car. "It felt so exciting that I got to lead the parade!" Derek Jerome had to say. "It was very satisfying knowing I beat my friends."

Cheer us together. Ana Martinez, Nathan Lewis, and Kayla Costa line up and start the cheer before the kickline. The kickline is the usual touchdown cheer that the cheerleaders do at every football home as well as sing "The New Bedford."

This year, the senior float was "Final Girls." Junior Taylor Warner, Kyla Wells, and Abby Hodelius all helped decide it. The float competition took place on the parade to the football field. The competition was to show out school spirit and to cheer on our team.

School Durfee! The Junior Class of 2012 won the float decorating contest. Brittany Carvalho had to say, "It was a great feeling and major excitement to win."

"The Pep Rally was really exciting, it was my first time getting into it and I loved performing with my colorguard girls."

-Amber Saba

"The rally was really fun, everything we practiced for paid off. It was also sad because it is my last one ever."

-Alyssa Lopes

"I had a really good time at the rally, but my favorite part of the whole day was the parade, even though it was really cold out."

The Whaler team is calling up "Family" as one, right before the second half.

The Whalers stopped the Durfee offense on a fourth down. There was only an inch to go, and the Whalers got the ball back just before the Hilltoppers were able to score.

Returning a crucial kick off return, Nathan Lewis picks up the bouncing football and runs 70 yards for a touchdown. "It was a great feeling, I had tremendous blocking from my teammates; nothing was stopping me except the endzone," said Nate.

Nathan Lewis, Lance Burlingame, and Jason Brierley, senior football captains, stand around the referee for the coin toss to begin the game. The Whalers won the toss and started the game with the ball.

The cheerleaders brave the cold to cheer on the Whalers in victory against Durfee. The crowd goes crazy after the third touchdown, signaling a likely victory for the team. The Whalers ended up beating Durfee 33-7. The Whaler marching band sat in the bleachers and cheered on the Whaler football team with the school song after every touchdown.

1 Attempting a PAT, Justin St. Pierre is about to kick the ball off of Myles Medeiros's hands. The kick was good, giving the Whalers one point. 2 Waiting for the Durfee offense to take the line of scrimmage, Tyler Olivierre, Matthew Angelo, and Lance Burlingame are ready to stop them in their tracks. 3 Phito Gondre, Janny DosReis, Myles Medeiros, Darian Sousa Bizzarro, and Jacob Medeiros are about to run an offensive play in the second quarter. Myles handed the ball off to Phito who fought for their first down.

DESTROYING THE HILLTOPPERS

by Andrew Gracia

The 100th Thanksgiving day meeting between the New Bedford Whalers and the Durfee Hilltoppers will be a game remembered fondly by the Whalers and their fans. Not only was it their third consecutive win over Durfee, but also secured them the Big 3 Conference Championship; something that hasn't been captured in eleven years. "It was beyond a great feeling to finally become a Big 3 champion in football. What we did in preparation was, we stuck together as a team and never

"AS MYLES TOOK HIS FINAL KNEE, A EUPHORIC FEELING CAME OVER ME. WE WERE BIG 3 CHAMPIONS!"
-Jason Brierley

stopped believing," explained Co-Captain Nate Lewis. The 21-7 Whalers win also sent them to the Division 1 Super Bowl tournament for the first time since 2001.

After Durfee's first and only touchdown of the game, the Whaler offense went to work. On the ensuing kickoff, Nathan Lewis fielded the ball at the New Bedford twenty six-yard line and ran it back seventy-four yards for the score. Into the fourth quarter, with the game still tied at 7, Izaiah Baretto gave the Whalers the lead, powering his way for a fifteen-yard run and stealing a victory for New Bedford.

Junior Quarterback, Myles Medeiros went thirteen of eighteen for one hundred and fifty-six yards. Gondre, Lewis, and sophomore Mike Rapoza combined had twelve receptions for all the yardage through the air. "As Myles Medeiros took his final knee, a euphoric feeling came over me. We were BIG 3 CHAMPIONS," said Jason Brierley.

1 Looking through Go Design, Mary Macedo and Lexie Theodore pick out ideas for their spreads. The book Go Design is full of designs and setups to make the yearbook pages more exciting. Mary and Lexie both have used this book many times. 2 Trying to get some new ideas, Molly Lafleur goes through the Ideas that Fly book. Ideas that Fly is filled with layout designs. The yearbook staff refers to these books whenever they draw a new layout. 3 Hard at work, Djaissy Teixeira keeps focused. Djaissy is one of the four inputters we have. Inputters have to know quite a bit about computers to make sure everything looks good.

Making sure everything is neat and perfect, Jenna Sylvia inputs a spread onto her computer. Jenna along with three others input every spread into their computers. Jenna had to say, "Picking and choosing the colors for the color spreads to make them look the best they can be is my favorite part."

Letter from the editor

To the class of 2011

Isn't it surreal to be holding your yearbook right now? Isn't it so weird to be looking at a collection of memories that you, your peers and best friends set in stone together? High school flew by, but luckily we can always look back and reminisce about all the crazy times we shared.

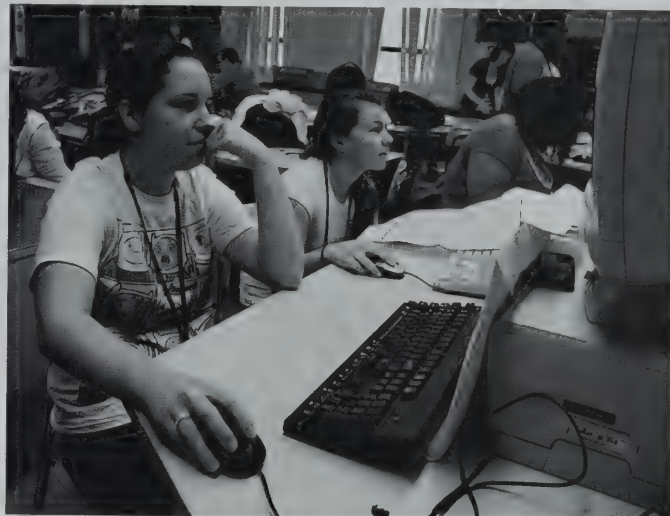

Overseeing the making of the yearbook has been quite the experience, and I feel so blessed to have had the privilege to do so. This was probably one of the most challenging and stressful things I have ever done, but ultimately it has been one of the best experiences as well. Yearbook shared tons of laughs, jokes, and even more sarcasm. I could not thank Ms. Oliveira, the truly dedicated staff members (you know who you are) and Mr. Mare enough. I really hope all of you enjoy and appreciate this yearbook because A LOT of work was put into it. Congratulations and best of luck everyone.

Tagging pictures and making sure each Ad is the right size, Stephanie DeMelo is working on pages 208-209. The Ad section of the yearbook is a very important part of the yearbook - it reminds people of our best friends and the best times that we've had throughout high school.

Inputting their spreads into PageMaker, Justine Cote works on sports pages next to Jenna Sylvia who inputs pages in the clubs and activities section. The computer inputters input the layouts and then add designs to make them look even better.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF THE YEARBOOK STAFF

by Lexie Theodore

Yearbook is not just a class or a club after school, yearbook is something that takes over your life. From spending 83 minutes a day to countless hours after school, you begin to make something to look back on later in life. The memories made you can't change, the friends and times shared you will always remember. No matter how tough it gets or how angry we

someone from the yearbook staff to help us get by. A family is formed through the days of learning how to crop and how to draw layouts to getting quotes to give the inputters.

This experience has been a rough one. No matter what, the sheer dedication from the yearbook staff will always remain. When we are old and sitting back, we will be able to open up our yearbook and say these pages were made by me and we will feel accomplished. This yearbook not only comes with memories, but for the staff, with a lot of stress. On that note, "Welcome to yearbook, enjoy your stay."

YEARBOOK STAFF:

Writing her captions for a Student Life spread, Rebecca Benevides gets her layouts done. Rebecca commented, "The most difficult thing about layouts is getting everything exact." Working hard, Stephanie DeMelo completes the buddy ad layouts. She also worked on the Clubs and Activities section. Cropping pictures, editor-in-chief Rachel Borba makes sure the staff is doing everything right. "Being editor is the most bittersweet experience I have ever undertaken. It involves the most stressful times, but it is also one of the most rewarding things." Secretary Brittany Carvalho files papers away after cleaning out her mailbox. "Secretary is a really difficult job, especially at the beginning of the year when all the questionnaires and surveys were being turned in. It slows down later on, but all the filing and keeping track is a constant thing throughout the year." Concentrating as always, Mary Macedo is looking for design ideas for the faculty section of our yearbook. "The experience of working on the yearbook is hectic but really fun," she said.

Working well together, Andrew Gracia and Amina Serdavic work on a sports layout. Each spread in the sports section needs to have pictures, copy, captions, interviews, and a scoreboard, so it is a very time-consuming task. Amina worked on the soccer and golf pages.

"The craziness, it's insane, that and the thought about knowing I can control what goes in my yearbook."

tri-captains were Alyssa Lopes, Marissa Pina, and Kayla Costa. The team performed at the rally, marched in the parade, and cheered on the sports teams throughout the year. "Rally was one of the highlights of my Senior Year. Cheering made my last year at New Bedford High a lot more interesting. I will never regret that experience." said Jennyfer Luperon. This years team was very talented and embodied school spirit in each and every way.

When asked what was the best thing about the season, captain Alyssa answered "All the fun times and memories we have, which will never be forgotten has been the best. Overall all the hard work paid off for what was a great season!" Captain Kayla Costa also stated, "This has been my favorite season by far. We've had so much fun, and I'll never forget about all the good times we've had. All the girls worked so hard and made this squad different from any other."

MEDICAL CAREERS CLUB

The Medical Careers Club allows students to learn about medical careers. This year they participated in the school blood drive, and took a tour of a hospital. They also helped in the Staff Christmas Party.

COMPUTER CLUB

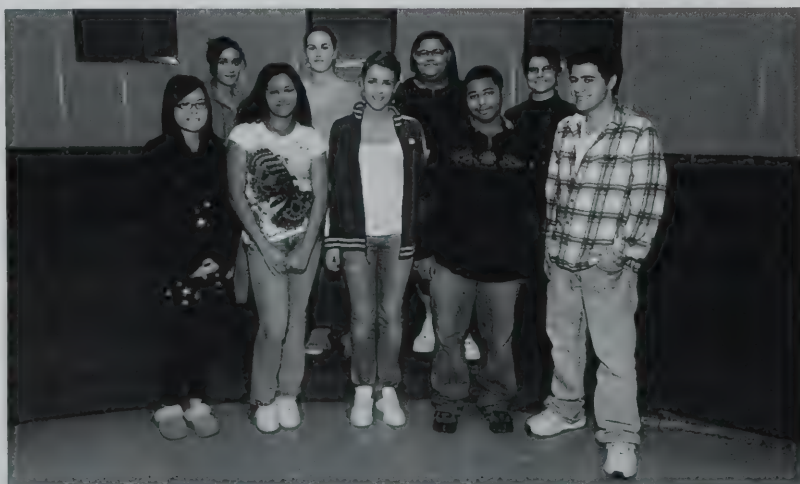

The Computer Club at NBHS is the perfect place for any student who wants to learn more about computing in the 21st century. Whether it's through learning to program or by creating original video game designs, our members study the future of computers in a hands-on way.

Row 1: Mr. Houtman, R. Zarate, Mr. Bosworth, C. Clough. Row 2: Olyvia Leahy, Tyrone Williams, Hien Vo.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

The International Club provides students with an opportunity to share experiences relating to local and international cultures. Students can learn about other countries through interacting with exchange students who attend New Bedford High School or other local high schools, as well as participating in local events. The many cultures of the world are celebrated with the International Club.

PHOTO CLUB

Photography is an art. Because it is an art, we welcomed artists of all grades to try it in New Bedford High School's Photography Club. All that is required at meetings is a camera and a passion for art. The club participates in photo contests using pictures from their many field trips to Salem, the Museum of Fine Arts, Quincy Market, the Newport Mansions, and Six Flags, as well as the Junior and Senior Banquets. There is enough for everyone to join in.

KEY CLUB

Key Club is a junior division of Kiwanis International. We are a community service based organization. In the past two years, Key Club has raised over $1,000 during Lee Jeans National Denim Day. The money will benefit breast cancer research. The club also recognized the faculty during National Teacher Day by providing bagels for every staff member.

JAZZ BAND

The Jazz Band performs at several high school concerts as well as community events such as inaugurals, charity events and the like. The Jazz Band competes at several prestigious festivals including the Massachusetts Association of Jazz Educators Jazz Festival and the Great East Festival held at Six Flags New England. Many jazz clinics take place during the course of the school year. The development of jazz music and its literature are fostered in this program. Students must be dedicated and committed to this group to be a part.

SAILING CLUB

The Sailing Club is a wonderful experience to learn about tricks and waves of sailing. Community Boating provides students with the opportunity to learn how to sail and learn about racing with the use of Capri 4.1's and Club 420's respectively. It is a club open to all students experienced or inexperienced. It is a great club to build confidence amongst youth.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club is an opportunity for students to explore the different categories through experiments and field trips without all the homework and lab reports! We really enjoyed making "snow," hatching butterflies, and our trips to the Boston Museum of Science. This year we visited laboratories, built a catapult to chuck pumpkins and had a science night.

DEBATE TEAM

The Debate Team works very hard to compete in a league made of Massachusetts schools on a nationally selected resolution. Members become highly skilled researchers, critical thinkers, and public speakers. Debate team challenges the intellect, builds self-confidence, and prepares students for a variety of careers.

Row 1:Justin Vieira, Jacob Benoit, Tyler Wilkinson. Row 2:Victoria Melo, Victoria Smith, Felicity Saucier, Rebecca Kanter, Sarah Flood, Mr. Everett.

PEACE & UNITY CLUB

The purpose of the Peace and Unity Club is to promote nonviolence and a unified spirit within our school, the community, and the world. We work with the Women's Center to promote domestic violence awareness and with the Youth Community Against Violence by participating in Peace Walks and by signing peace covenants. Specifically, we remembered Bianca Rosado, of the Class of 2009 after her graduation from NBHS. We designed a t-shirt in her memory for the Statewide Clothesline Project and read her story at a Candlelight Vigil in October. We sell peace signs and Women's Center pens during Spirit Week to raise money for charity.

BOOK CLUB

The Book Club is a group made up of young people who enjoy reading. We gather together every other week to discuss our book of the month. We talk about the characters, plots, and how we think they will change. We read several books over the course of the school year and enjoy being able to discuss novels with peers.

Row 1: B. Baptista, D. Teixeira, J. Sylvia, J. Cote, M. Wesember. Row 2: K. Vieira, K. Baer-Clark, C. Delmas, K. Thivierge, A. Lopes, J. Luperon, J. Menard. Row 3: A. Brault, R. Kanter, R. Benevides, T. Pagan, A. Serdarevic, S. Burgo, H. Medeiros, M. Midurski, T. Wilkinson.

GSA

The Gay/Straight Alliance provides a safe place for students to meet and talk about issues related to sexual and gender orientation and ways to end homophobia. We connect to our LGBT community with monthly attendance at the New Bedford LGBT YES community forum, South Coast Equality community events, as well as attendance at GLYSN's Gay Youth Leadership Conference and the NB Pride event in June. We host several guest speakers to discuss current LGBT community issues occurring around New Bedford.

GREAT OUTDOORS CLUB

The Great Outdoors Club provides activities that are fun, meaningful, and educational. Students that are involved in this club develop an increase in their respect for the environment as well as gain an understanding of their stewardship towards it. By becoming involved in activities such as camping, hiking, white water rafting and outdoor community related activities, participants in the Great Outdoors Club become exposed to nature and increase their understanding of leadership which encourages the development of the whole person.

Membership in the club is open to all students at New Bedford High school. The Great Outdoors Club is chartered by the Boy Scout Venturer Post 331, and all members are subject to rules and regulations set forth by the Boy Scouts of America. Also, as students of New Bedford High school, Great Outdoors Club members are subject to all school rules at all times during all activities.

CRIMSON COURIER

The Crimson Courier is a student-run newspaper that aims to inform both the student body and staff about current issues and topics at New Bedford High school.

DRAMA CLUB

The New Bedford High School Drama Club is a student organization that offers all members an opportunity to participate in a variety of professional-caliber theatre experiences in all areas of theatrical production. In addition to the productions of two auditional shows, one play and one musical, the Drama club presents monthly workshops and skills related to theater in a way and in topics that engage all members and not just performers. Drama Club members work toward funding an end-of-the year theatre trip to a show of majority choice within the Providence, Boston, or New York theater network.

SENIOR STEERING COMMITTEE

During our final year at NBHS, there were many things that needed to be done. The students worked on the Spirit Week days, the Senior Banquet, and our bonfire float. We prepared for our final semester at NBHS. It began with Mr. Whaler, followed by prom. The four years of our high school journey is filled with great memories of a great class! The last part of our journey was graduation, where we celebrated our accomplishments as the Class of 2011.

The Student Advisory Council represents the student body to the administration and school committee. The council consists of five members elected by their peers. This group of students work on projects throughout the year that connect the student body of N.B.H.S. to the greater New Bedford community.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The Senior Class Officers kept busy throughout the year planning meetings and representing the student body to the administration about important issues and helping to build the Thanksgiving Day football float.

Mr. Taylor, C. Miranda, A. Castro, T. Pacheco, Mrs. Oliveira

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The Class of 2012 was involved in many activities during the 2010-2011 school year. We created a float for the Thanksgiving festivities. We conducted a fundraising activity. We also participated in a community service project. The final major activity that we had was our Junior Banquet. The class of 2012 had a great year and look forward to Senior Year.

SOPHOMORE STEERING COMMITTEE

The Class of 2013 had a year of challenge and fun. We were very excited about our float theme and think the NBHS family was, too. Faculty and staff were invited to the holiday party which we planned. It was fun for all who attended. We were very busy doing fundraising community service events and fun activities. We were very involved in the life of NBHS.

Sharing a laugh with another colorguard member, Alexa Theodore crouches down after her duet with Jennifer Perry. The band played the third song at the pep rally this year. "I really enjoyed the third song. It's all about high energy and fun - it's a great ending to an amazing show," said Alexa.

Focused and into the show, Michael Zajac watches the Drum Major. This is Michael's first year playing tenors during marching season. Michael has been a great member of the Marching Band since his freshman year.

Preparing for a 45 toss from the end of the pole, Jennifer Perry does her duet with Alexa Theodore. Jennifer, along with Alexa, are the captains for the 2010-2011 season. The Pep Rally is always a really great way to show what the band has to offer.

Playing the Cadence and keeping in step, Nicholas Baptista, Hector Grime, Michael Zajac, Tyler Nooth and the rest of the drumline marches during the Veterans Day Parade. The drumline always works really hard at parades. When they aren't playing the songs they play the Cadence.

1 Getting into the ending flag work, Amber Saba and Jennifer Perry finish off the first song on a good note. Amber and Jennifer are both very dedicated members of the colorguard. The first song in this year's show was very high energy. Amber said, "It's my favorite because it was mainly saber."
2 Brass: Nicholas Rocha, Cara Zajac, Catherine Souza.
3 Drum Majors: Cara Zajac and Olyvia Leahy.

Band Director Mr. Eric Drew conducts the band at the Pep Rally. Mr. Drew has been the director for the past two years. He has a lot of passion and loves to support the school.

Paying close attention to the Drum Major, Erica Davignon plays her flute and keeps in time. Erica commented, "My favorite part of band is how the skills Mr. Drew teaches us can be used in our life outside of band."

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND

by Lexie Theodore

The New Bedford High school Colorguard starts off the Thanksgiving game with a routine to "Salute To the Armed Forces" played by the Marching Band. The marching band always begins the football games with "On New Bedford" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

"We love it here, and we wouldn't want to be anywhere else," is the saying that band lives by. The forty-two members of the New Bedford High School Whalers Marching Band and Colorguard first get together two weeks before school starts for band camp. Once school begins, they get together every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. They form a bond that will last them a lifetime. "It's a lot of hard work and at times a bit overwhelming, but I wouldn't change anything about it. I love it," said Alexa Theodore.

The Marching Band performed at school functions, N.E.S.B.A. Marching Band competitions, and parades in Massachusetts. They bring sound and spirit to the school. From getting the crowd riled up in the stands to supporting the school at the bonfire, the marching band is always there to cheer on New Bedford High school. The band always gives it their all throughout the entire season, fighting the heat at band camp and the chilled weather towards the end of the season. They always pull through. This year's hard work went into a very artistic show entitled "Phantasm." The show was a lot of fun, had great choreography from the colorguard and some wonderful music from the band. "It was unique as a marching show because instead of using generic marches, we used more haunting themes, which led to a really exciting show," said Cara Zajac.

After marching season is over, indoor season begins. Winterguard and Indoor Percussion are very hard and intense programs. They challenge the physical and mental strength of the members. Winterguard offers its members the opportunity to grow in artistic skill, just as Indoor Percussion gives its members the opportunity to learn better technique. Both are very valued programs. The Marching Band and all the indoor programs are about more than just playing music and tossing flags. It's about teamwork, performance, and most importantly skill. It provides the opportunity to form friendships and trust through fellow students who enjoy the same activity as you. Erica Davignon shares what band means to her, saying, "To me band is a place you can always feel comfortable to be yourself."

Percussion: Michael Zajac, Hector Grime, Tyler Nooth, Nicholas Baptista, Francis Racine, Justin Aguiar.

Whaler Marching Band Scoreboard

September 25, 2010 - Weymouth High school - 2nd place, 70.2

October 9, 2010 - New Bedford High school - 2nd place 77.1

October 23, 2010 - Bullerica High school - 1st place, 82.1 (Best Percussion, Best Colorguard)

November 28, 2010 - Quincy Christmas Parade - 2nd (Best Colorguard)

1. Starting off the Thanksgiving game, Cara Zajac directs the New Bedford High School Whalers Marching Band for their pregame show. At the Thanksgiving game, the NBHSWMB played along side the Durfee High School marching band.

2. Once all the pressure of performing the show at finals was over, the whole colorguard and their instructors goofed around. They earned the title of best colorguard at NESBA Finals this year. "It was so exciting and overwhelming to win because we hadn't won all season, and we worked extra hard at finals" said captain Lexie Theodore.

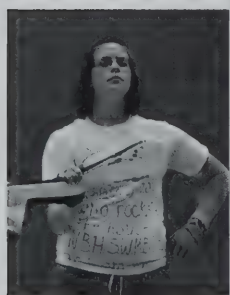

3. Marching in step onto the field, the marching band hold hands as their traditional entrance. The band is all about unity, and crisscrossing hands unites them together.

4. Performing during halftime, Dayja Pike, Amber Saba, Alexa Brierley, and Jennifer Perry prepare themselves for what comes next in their show. The first song of their show this year, titled "Phantasm," involved dance, sabre, and flag for the colorguard - a great way to start the show.

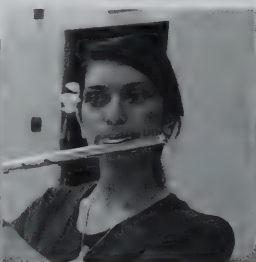

5. With the new sabre routine, Alexa Brierley leads the way during the Veterans' Day Parade. The colorguard came up with a whole new flag and sabre routine just for the parade. Before this parade we usually only used a flag but now our routines have become more versatile.

During the Christmas Concert, Cara Zajac plays the murumba for the Jazz Band. Cara joined band her junior year of high school, and since then she has played the tuba, sousaphone, murumba, and has been drum major.

WHAT WILL YOU REMEMBER MOST ABOUT BAND?

"I'll always remember the bus rides back and just acting obnoxious and having a good time."
-Jennifer Perry

"The great bond all the girls have together. We just have so many inside jokes. I'll never forget NESBA finals 2010, though."
-Amber Saba

"I'll forever remember my senior night since it was my first Friday night football game. The energy was high, and I loved it."
-Erica Davignon

"Most certainly the people, band is full of some of the best kids you'll meet, and band camp of course."
-Cara Zajac

"I would definitely be one of the people I'll always remember. Also all the friendships I've made."
-Olivia Leahy

"There were so many memories over the past four years that I've been in the program that I will remember it all. If I had to choose, I would say NESBA Finals 2010."

JROTC

by Andrew Gracia

The U.S. Army Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps is a program that teaches students many important lessons and values in life. It helps shape their lives for the present and beyond.

"BEING A PART OF SUCH A PROGRAM HAS COMPLETELY RESHAPED ME."
-Kori Nunes

The overall mission of the program is to motivate the young people to become better citizens in our society. Being a part of JROTC gives its members a strong sense of purpose in life and also directs them to hold firmly other important values others may not have. "Being a part of JROTC has taught me good leadership and responsibility," said Josephine Centeio.

With the help of the U.S. Army and the hosting school, this program presents each cadet with the opportunity to improve themselves in numerous ways. Some ways of doing this include performing community service, encouraging a drug free life, and improving physical fitness. "Being a part of such a program has completely reshaped me and taught me the value to be successful," senior Kori Nunes stated.

All of the cadets serve an important role in ROTC, especially the seniors. "We have twenty-five seniors currently participating in this program. They're an important part of all this because they set examples for their fellow cadets because of their experience," Col. McGovern said. There is no doubt they will take what they learned in ROTC and achieve everything because of what knowledge they've gained through such a rewarding program.

The Charlie Company makes their way up Union Street in New Bedford during the Veteran's Day Parade. Seniors Caleb Pierce and Kori Nunes walk in front, leading the company. Both Caleb and Kori have been in ROTC throughout high school, and Kori is the Battalion Commander.

Marching in time, Anthony Bettencourt and Jennifer Vieira walk down Union street with importance. Anthony and Jennifer are leading the Delta Company proudly. They always stay focused on the task at hand.

It's Veterans' Day, and New Bedford's JROTC is out showing their respect by marching in the traditional parade. As they march through, the crowd claps and cheers them on.

Beginning the first assembly, the JROTC Colorguard presents the flags as the Senior Class recited the Pledge of Allegiance. The crowd showed much respect to the Colorguard students as they proudly displayed the flags.

Mistress of Ceremonies Amanda Castro presents thank you gifts to the 2011 Class Advisors Mrs. Oliveria and Mr. Taylor. "The best part about being the Mistress of Ceremonies was getting to know all the contestants a little better. We became a tiny family throughout all the practices," commented Amanda. She spoke beautifully throughout the show and added something special to it.

ONE NIGHT ONLY

by Rachel Borba

Mr. Whaler 2011.... Ryan Medeiros! Since freshman year, many of us have anticipated and talked about how we want to be involved in Mr. Whaler. It is one of the best senior privileges! It is the time that we can show off our talents, fantastic dancing skills and good looks! After numerous rehearsals, laughs, sound checks, practice questions, and tux and dress fittings, we were ready! "Mr. Whaler was a great experience. I learned a lot about myself and the other contestants. It's something I'll remember for the rest of my life," Ryan later commented.

"IT WAS GREAT GETTING TO PERFORM WITH DIFFERENT PEOPLE."

-Shane Burgo

Pretty much everyone who was involved with Mr. Whaler will comment about how they really enjoyed the family feeling we all gained. Despite being in the same class all through high school, many of us started to become friends because of Mr. Whaler. Shane Burgo commented, "It was great getting to perform with different people. I think everyone enjoyed their time at Mr. Whaler! "Dancing together, helping each other with our outfits, sitting and laughing together during down time definitely created a closer bond between everyone."

Though Mr. Whaler is all about the contestants, we must admit that the escorts add an extra something to the show. Being an escort was a great way to get females involved in the show, plus we loved getting dressed up and looking beautiful on stage!" Shirley Zhen joked, "Being on stage was nerve-racking, the lights were in my eyes the whole time!" Despite any difficulty with our dresses, our heels, dealing with lights, or trying not mess up our hair, we all pulled through!

Our hard work paid off, and all the stress was worth it. We all created a great show that the escorts and especially the "Whaler Boys" will never forget.

Not being able to put his smile or hands down, Ryan Medeiros walks around the risers as he accepts his title as Mr. Whaler 2011. "I didn't know what to think (when I was declared the winner). I was shocked. It all seemed to happen pretty quick," commented Ryan. He accepted his title humbly, even though the audience was going wild.

BEHIND THE SPOTLIGHT

There is certainly more to Mr. Whaler than the actual show. A lot of hard work and fun times were made at rehearsals. Sean Gangan and Ansel Duff enjoyed goofing off a bit during downtime. Ansel commented, "The rehearsals were well. They were exhausted learning the names and everything."

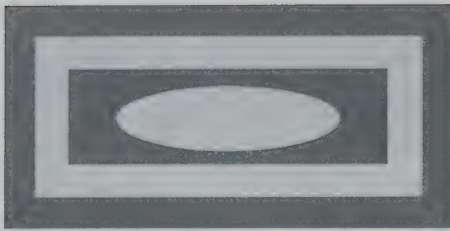

Behind the scenes during Mr. Whaler was absolutely crazy. From all the mistakes scattered everywhere to all the last minute things needing to be done. Sean Gangan, Robert Gagnier, Joshua Chen, Anthony Peralta, and Ryan Medeiros didn't let the stress get to them.

Instead they were in cool backstage by checking out a game move. "Behind the scenes we were being goofy!!! and having a good time, we were very helpful for each other though," Bobby Gagnier commented.

Taking a break from dancing, the cast decided to goof off a bit. Behind the scenes, everyone was extremely funny and hard workers. "Sometimes practices were tedious, but most of the time it was filled with laughter and good times," commented Kendra Valdes. Their hard work paid off, and all the cast looked flawless on the night of Mr. Whaler.

After having a great time dancing, the Mr. Whaler contestants and their escorts get together for their ending pose. They danced to "Pop" by N*Sync. The escorts and contestants worked very hard at rehearsals for this dance, and it turned out great at the show.

5 Captivating the crowd with her voice, Cassandra Borges sings "Better in Time" by Leona Lewis. Cassandra sang beautifully at the show. She has been part of the school's chorale groups since freshman year. 6 Showing off her powerful voice, Brianna Allain sings "Firework" by Katy Perry. Brianna has a very strong voice and showed that during the performance. She really captured the crowd. 7 Getting ready to share witty remarks with the crowd, Ryan Nunes and Savanna Berman share a laugh. Ryan and Savanna brought life to the show with their commentary. Both of them are part of WIMC T.V. production.

BEHIND THE SCENES

1 A group of contestants sit around and listen to Brian, the sound technician, tell them about how the rehearsal will run. Brian was the main technician for the show. He came to three practices to help get the sound tracks and the microphones ready for the show.

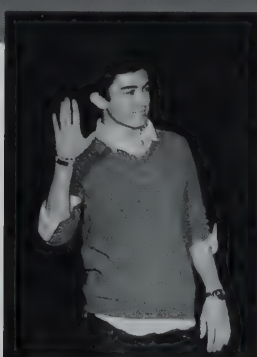

2 On the night of the show, all the boys got together for a group picture in their dressing room to get hyped up for the end of the show. The contestants looked very sharp in their formal wear. Formal wear was the fourth act of the show.

3 Sharing a good conversation, Robert Tetreault, Sean Lanagan, Anthony Peixoto, and Joshua Chao have a laugh. These four boys always made rehearsals a fun time with their unique personalities. Rehearsals were a great place for all the boys to bond.

4 Adding some shine to the night, the escorts get together to share a smile before going out. "It really was one of my favorite memories of senior year, the show turned out great, and I know all the girls had a great time," commented Lexie Theodore. "I appreciate the show much more being able to see all the hard work put into it and seeing it first hand," Rachel Borba said.

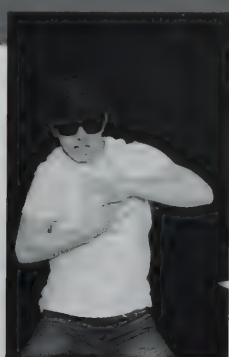

Looking out at the audience, Djaissy Teixeira marches out on stage for the Casual Wear portion. Djaissy placed first runner up in the show. "Tons of emotions came, I wanted to laugh, I wanted to cry or yell because it was a great moment that I will cherish for life," said Djaissy.

Giving a last wave to the judges, Ansel Duff is making sure to acknowledge them during his Casual Wear. Ansel placed second runner up. He played "No Such Thing" by John Mayor for his talent, and he represented America with his swimwear.

Balancing a soccer ball, Joshua Chao keeps his talent going. Josh was part of the top five and had a very strong show. "Being in the top five was a great honor, and I'm glad that I get to be honored with that privilege," Josh later commented.

For his talent, Ricky Curtis danced to "The Time" by the Black Eyed Peas. Ricky was part of the top five and had a very good show.

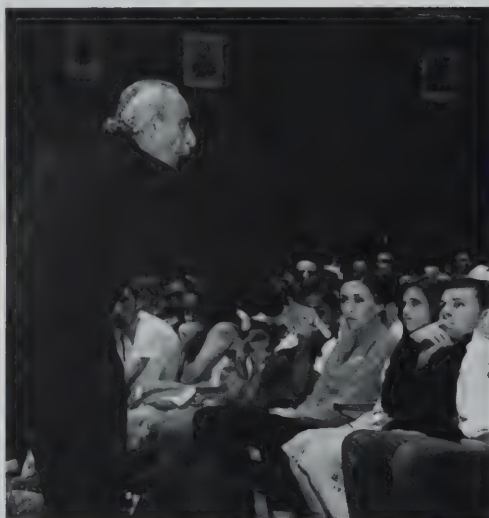

WHAT DID YOU THINK OF THE ASSEMBLY?

A:

"It was good. He was crazy and fun to be around."

Headmaster

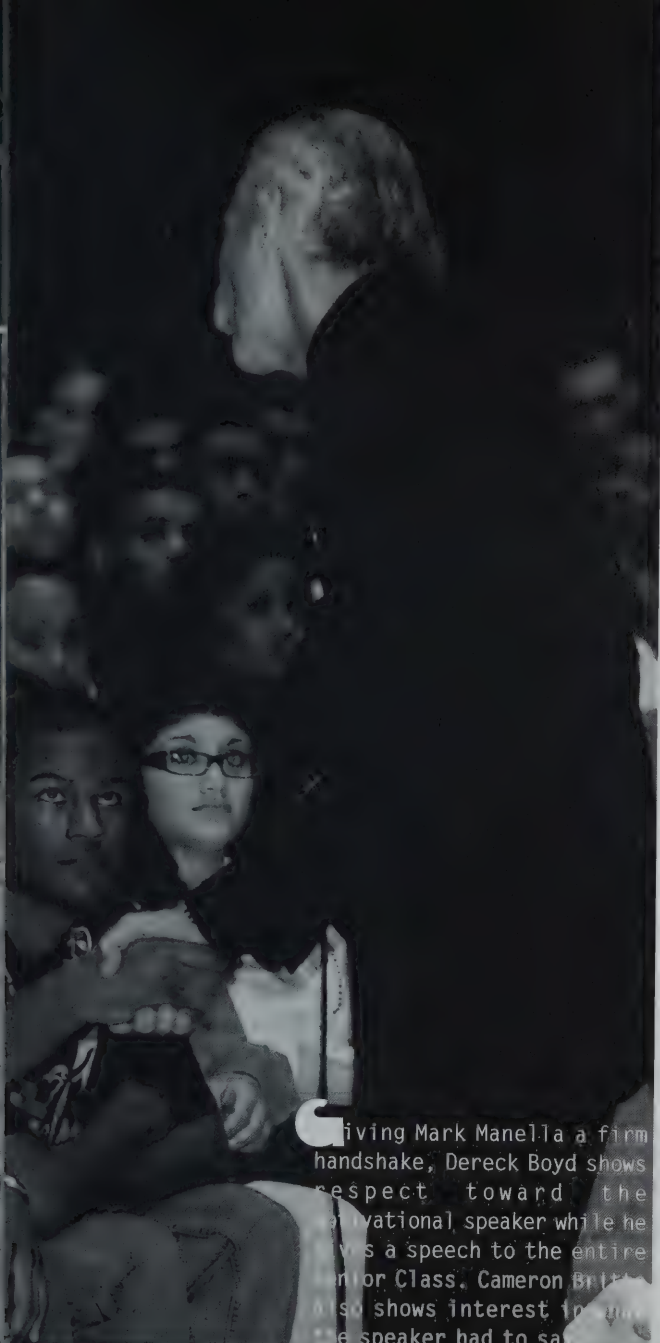

Mr. Andrew Kulak

1 Showing energy and enthusiasm while he speaks, Mr. Manella continues to talk to the Senior Class on a wide range of topics. The attention of the seniors did not stray once during the assembly.

2 Keeping the attention of the students with his enthusiasm and presence, Mr. Manella moves about the room. Mr. Manella was out there, but he knew how to make everyone listen to him. He talked about life and how you should treat the people around you.

IMPRESSED ON OUR MINDS

by Kenya Baer-Clark

Before the students could mark their place as the seniors of 2011 on the front lawn, Mark Manella marked his place in their hearts.

Anxiously awaiting in the auditorium, the students listened to Mr. Kulak introduce Mr. Manella. As he walked to the front of the audience, the noise fell to a hush and all eyes were on him.

Mr. Manella had the assembly's full attention when he opened with, "At your age I was the type to cut someone's tongue out for speaking while I was speaking. Show me respect, and I'll give respect back."

-Mr. Mark Manella

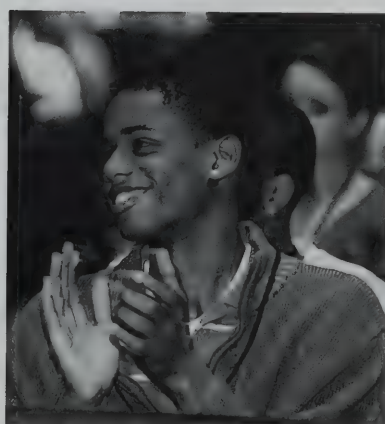

He shared with the room details of his life and what he had to go through to realize he lives in a sexist, biased, and racist world. He explained that despite everything, your decisions make your life.

Mark Manella's only goal that day was to touch one person and prepare him or her for the prejudiced world outside of high school. Using intimidation and knowledge from his experiences, his goal was that much closer, and after many postponements because of the rain, the seniors finally established that they were The Class of 2011, and they were here.

Enjoying the Senior Assembly, Helder Silva gives a hand to our guest speaker. "He is nice and wise. He set a great example for the Class of 2011, and he is a successful guy," Helder later commented.

It is so apparent that the seniors of New Bedford High School and teenagers in general love to capture the moment. We love to be able to look at events and people through pictures. Just take a look at anyone's albums on their Facebook page. Some people have hundreds of pictures.

"PICTURES ARE IMPORTANT BECAUSE NO MOMENT CAN BE RELIVED EXACTLY THE SAME."
- Kenya Baer-Clark

How many times have we been asked the question, "If your house was on fire, what items would you save?" Most people say pictures. They are those frozen frames in time that help us reminisce about the good times. Pictures are everywhere - in lockers, wallets, covering college dorm walls, and in frames. Their importance are immeasurable. "Pictures are important because no moment can be relived exactly the same," said Kenya Baer-Clark.

It's so great to open an album and let your memories go wild. Pictures help tremendously to reactivate these memories. Some memories could be as epic as winning a State Championship. "Winning a state championship was the best memory anyone could ever have," said Maura Manley and Hilarie Teves. Perhaps these memories are just fun times with friends, the old and the new. Bridget Young commented, "I love making new friends, but I still keep my old friends from elementary school." These are the memories and people we hold dear to us forever.

So Seniors, keep doing what you are doing. Take tons of pictures, so you can always relive the captured moments.

Don't Quit

When the road you're trudging seems all up hill,
When the funds are low, and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about,
When he might have won had he stuck it out;
Don't give up though the pace seems slow,
You may succeed with another blow.

Success is failure turned inside out,
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems so far;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit,
It's when things seem worse, that you must not quit.

Love Always,
Mom, Dad & Stephanie

Finally, it's the closing, and Senior Year is almost over. How do you feel? Some people have been literally counting down the days to graduation; others wish they could stop the clock for a bit. Before entering high school and throughout the four years, how often have we been told to enjoy ourselves since high school ends in a snap. "I loved high school; it was definitely the best time of my life so far," commented Holliann Medeiros.

"HIGH SCHOOL WAS A WILD RIDE OF EMOTIONS. IT BROUGHT HAPPINESS, STRESS, AND SADNESS, BUT IN THE END IT HELPED MAKE ME WHO I AM."
-Kendra Vieira

Not only has high school been filled with crazy memories, it has also been filled with countless obstacles. "Senior year is a whole lot of work, especially with AP Biology. Overall, it's pretty fun, but sad to think that it'll soon be all over," said Alex Pires. The ending of Senior Year is the ultimate bittersweet experience.

No one describes high school quite as good as Kendra Vieira. She commented, "High school was a wild ride of emotion. It brought happiness, stress, and sadness, but in the end it helped make me who I am. As it comes to an end, so does a chapter in my life, but the moments and experience will never be forgotten."

High school is simply one of the craziest, stressful, and thrilling consecutive four years of our lives. Hopefully, we all made the most of them.

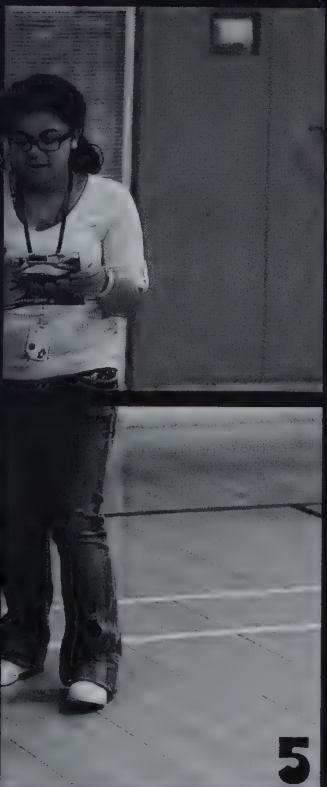

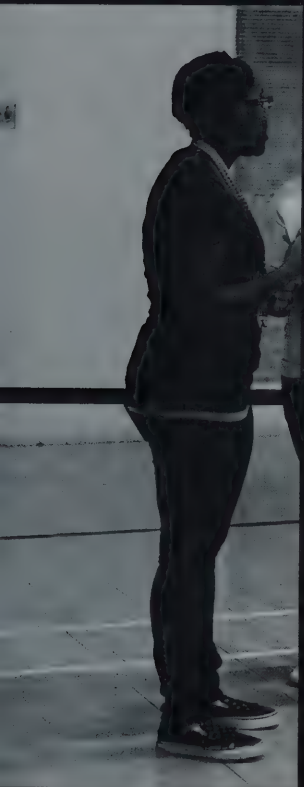

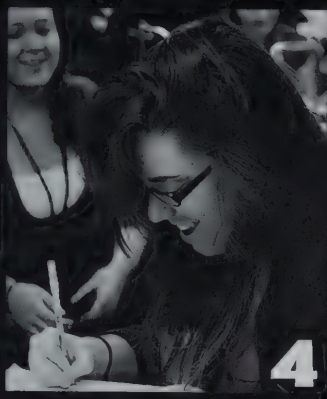

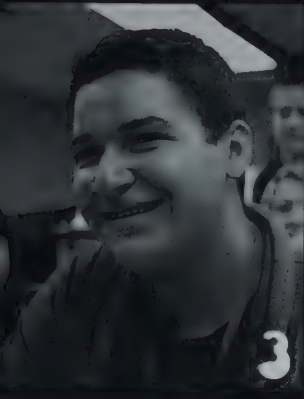

WE SET IN

by Rachel Borba

What do you plan on doing after high school?

1 "My dream is to become a writer."
- Charlene DaSilva

2 "Attend college, probably UMass Dartmouth. I plan to take Criminal Justice courses and work toward my Master's. I hope to become a criminal profiler for the F.B.I." - Tiffany Pinarretta

3 "Go to UMass Dartmouth, but I'm undecided on what career I would want to pursue. I also want to travel the world. I mainly want to see Greece." - Macaulay Alves

4 "Go to college, definitely!" - Brittany Jean

5 "I plan to go to college and hopefully do something with my writing after I graduate."

- Kyla Thivierge. "Pursue a career in English after college." - Kenya Baer-Clark

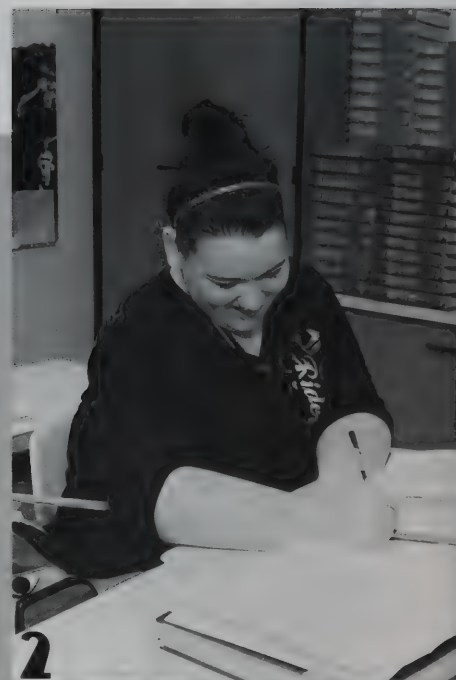

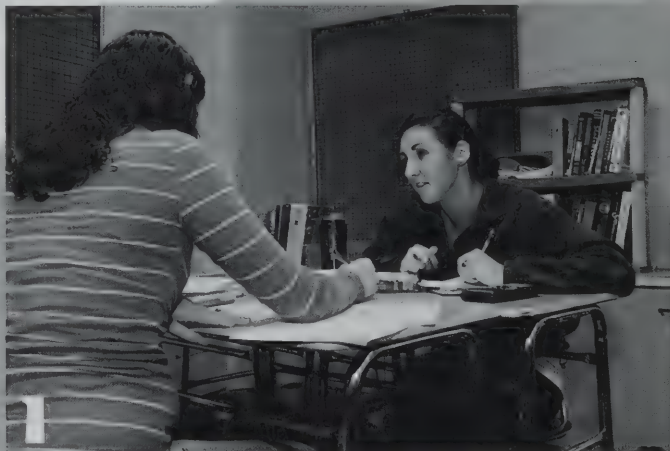

6 "Go to college and become an engineer."
- Ansel Duff

1 Collaborating over work, Erica Davignon and Haley Sullivan work hard in AP Stats. Being a member of the Division 1 State Champion team for volleyball was Haley's best memory from NBHS. Haley is very involved in the school from playing sports to being in the National Honor Society.

2 Working hard, Patricia Cregan has a laugh during one of her classes. NBHS offers a lot of classes that helped Patricia prepare for the future. She plans to pursue a career in business.

3 Looking over Chapter 3 in her Psychology book, Erica Bennett answers the questions on the nervous system. Erica said NBHS has helped her become a better and stronger person.

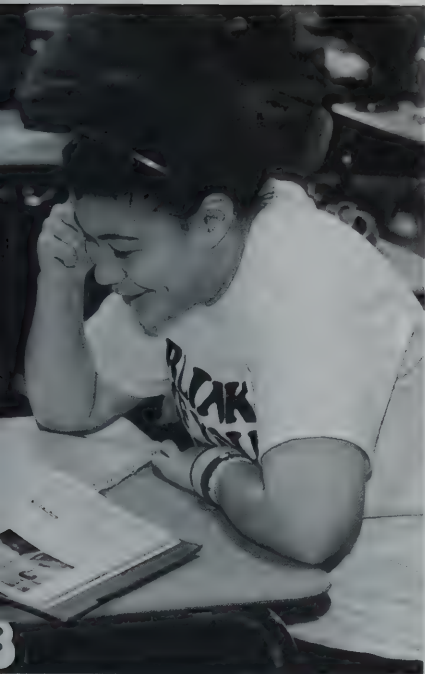

During English class, Christopher Phaneuf glances over a literature book.

In the practice room, Jared Silva reads over his music and learns a new song. Jared said that the biggest accomplishment he's made is playing the guitar in the Jazz Band. Jared is a very musically talented student.

Tina Pacheco shows spirit for her school wearing her NB sweatshirt! Tina says that her best fashion accessory is her phone. Most NBHS students, like Tina, love their phones.

FOUR YEARS

Set in Stone

by Lexie Theodore

Finally our four years of high school are over, the pressure and the stress are done, but with all that stress came good memories and awesome times you can never forget. Those memories will be set in stone in your mind, you will take them with you throughout your life. From sitting around at your lunch table to crazy card games in class to even waiting around before and after school, all those high school moments are the things you want to remember. "Some of the best times I've had here would be from lacrosse," said Andrew Gracia, "one in particular would be our epic games of lemon-orange. I will always remember lacrosse at NBHS!"

"THE FRIENDS YOU CHOOSE CAN HELP MAKE OR BREAK YOUR HIGH SCHOOL EXPERIENCE"

-Rachel Borba

For something to be set in stone, it has to be there permanently. No matter how hard you try, high school will always be with you - forever there. Even the life outside of school carries memories which will be forever etched in our hearts. Friends you've made throughout these past four years have brought some of the fondest times with them. "The friends you choose can help make or break your high school experience. They help shape who you are and make the difficult and stressful times much more doable," Rachel Borba said.

"In the past few years more than just my looks have changed; I feel like a completely different person. High school has helped me grow," Kyla Thivierge had to say about how high school made her. High school isn't just a place you come five days of the week, it was the place we discovered who we really are. Everyone discovers themselves in these four years. They make the best memories, find their true friends, and realize who they are as a person. These things are what really happen in high school, and as you grow older and create new lives for yourself. High school and all the things that come with it are forever set in stone.

The way NBHS has prepared Kiana Arias for the future is that it's helped her learn to change for the better. "The best part about Senior Year is graduating," said Kiana.

After high school Karissa Silva-Barros would like to pursue a career in childcare or anything to do with kids. She plans to attend college after high school.

What is your Favorite Movie?

"The Warriors"
-Princeton Amma

"The Notebook"
-Elisangela Gomes

4 Standing at Mr. Nickerson's podium, Justin Simmons reads to his English class. "Somerset Show Choir Competitions" were Justin's favorite experiences while attending NBHS. 5 Sitting in class, Anushkka Acevedo listens intently to her teacher. New Bedford High has taught students to be respectful and responsible. It has prepared everyone for their future. 6 Working diligently, Jorel Pierce sits in class doing his assignment. "Freshman year was full of so many memories," said Jorel when asked about his four years attending NBHS.

1 Trying to jot down ideas, Antonio Caraballo researches information for his drawing in art class. Antonio prepares to draw summer scenery with help from his research. 2 Smiling and interacting with other students, Joshua Mello takes a break from his assignment. 3 Enjoying her time in class, Krystle Anne Chaneco said, "After high school I would love to become a chef." NBHS has helped her to decide the path she wants to take in the future. "Cooking is my passion," said Krystle of her future plans.

Luisa Cabral said New Bedford High "taught me to speak two languages."

Darell Britto said, "Math and science have always been my better subjects; That's why I would like to get a job doing Chemical Engineering."

DID YOU HEAR

THAT . . .

Sarah Palin has her own TV show?

New Bedford High might repeal the no hoodie rule?

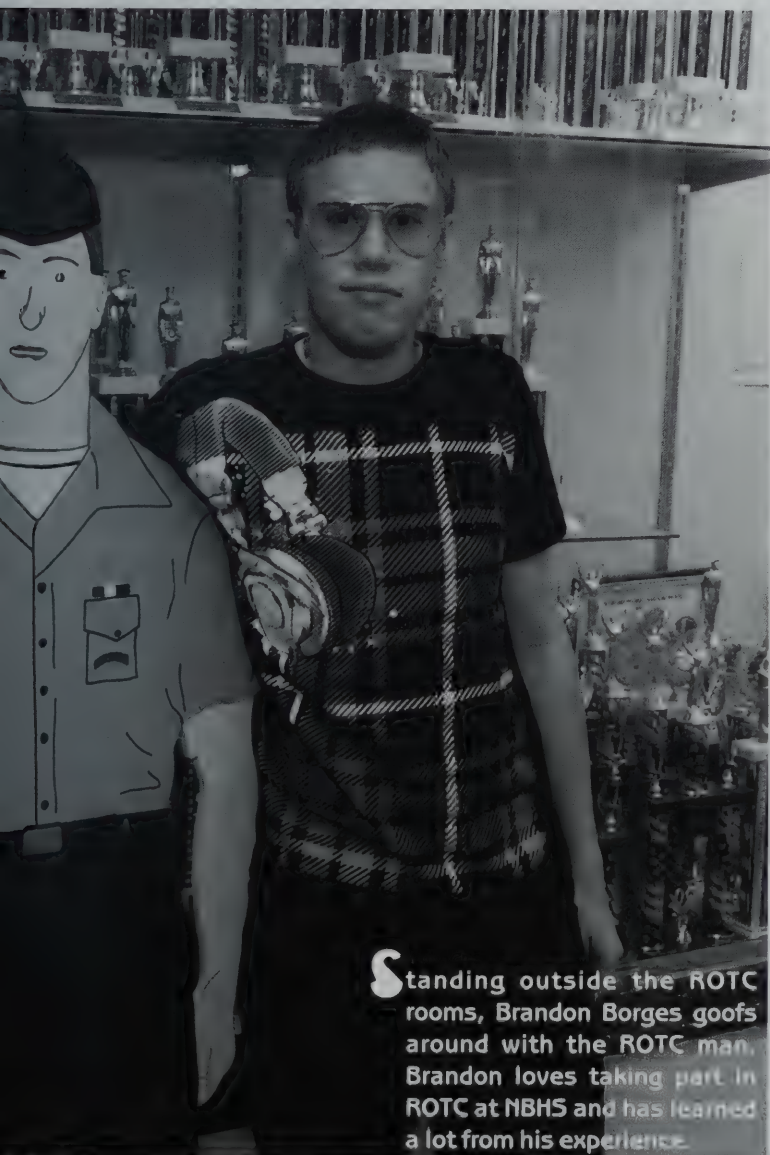

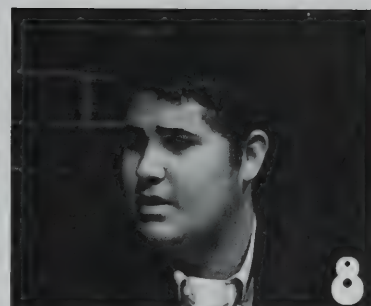

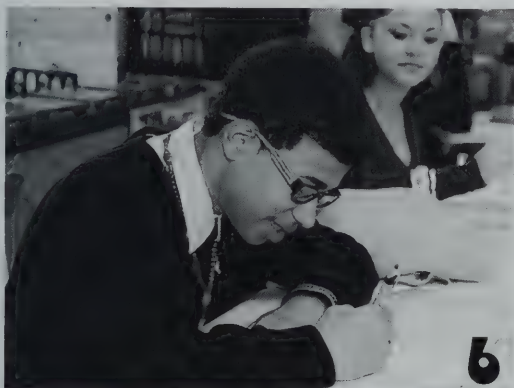

Shaws closed?

Sandra Bullock and Ryan Reynolds might start dating?

In our four years at NBHS every sport has qualified for states?

We had a new Headmaster and Assistant Headmaster this year?

Standing outside the ROTC rooms, Brandon Borges goofs around with the ROTC man. Brandon loves taking part in ROTC at NBHS and has learned a lot from his experience.

Thinking of her future, Tanya Camara said, "Working with children is something I plan to do after high school." The future is looking bright for this NBHS student. Many life-changing events happen in high school. "Winning the award for being the most dedicated in the Drama Club was my biggest accomplishment at NBHS," said Sean DeAndrade. Joining in on the school spirit, Joshua Chao sits in the auditorium with the rest of the Senior Class. Joshua said, "New Bedford High has led me to one of my biggest accomplishments - being the Big Three Champions!" New Bedford High has prepared Adynn-Marie Santos for her future. "Photography is the career I want to go into when I graduate," stated Adynn-Marie Santos.

Biggest Challenge in High School?

"Freshman year."
- Alysha DeMedeiros

"Trying to fit in."
- Bethany Seifert

"Passing all my classes."
- Jason Oliver

"Being true to yourself, staying away from people that are going to bring you down."
- Janelle Costa

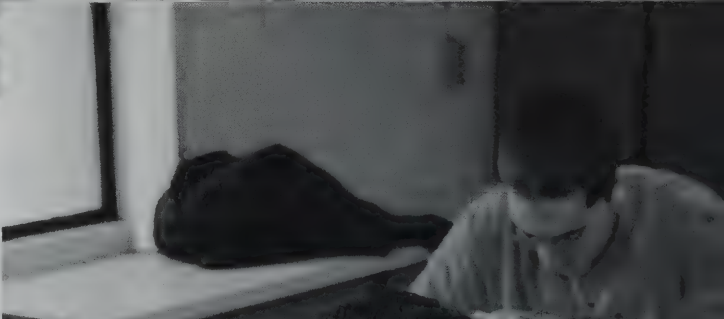

"Sophomore and Junior English class with Mr. DeMelo because he made it extremely fun while we learned."
- Alyssa Braley

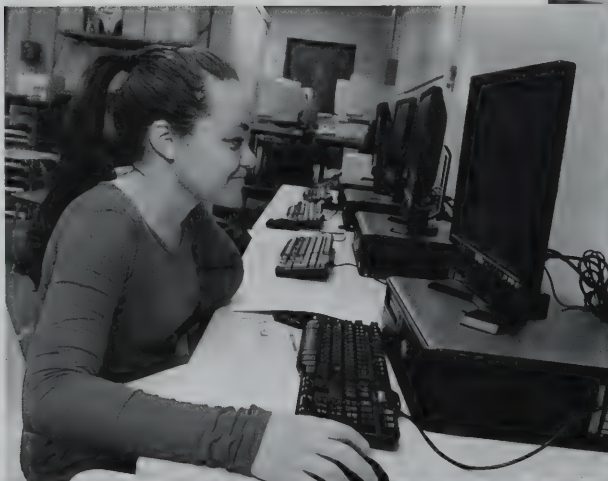

WHAT WAS YOUR

Favorite Class at NBHS and Why?

"JROTC, because you get to meet a lot of new people, and we have fun."
- Josephine Centelo

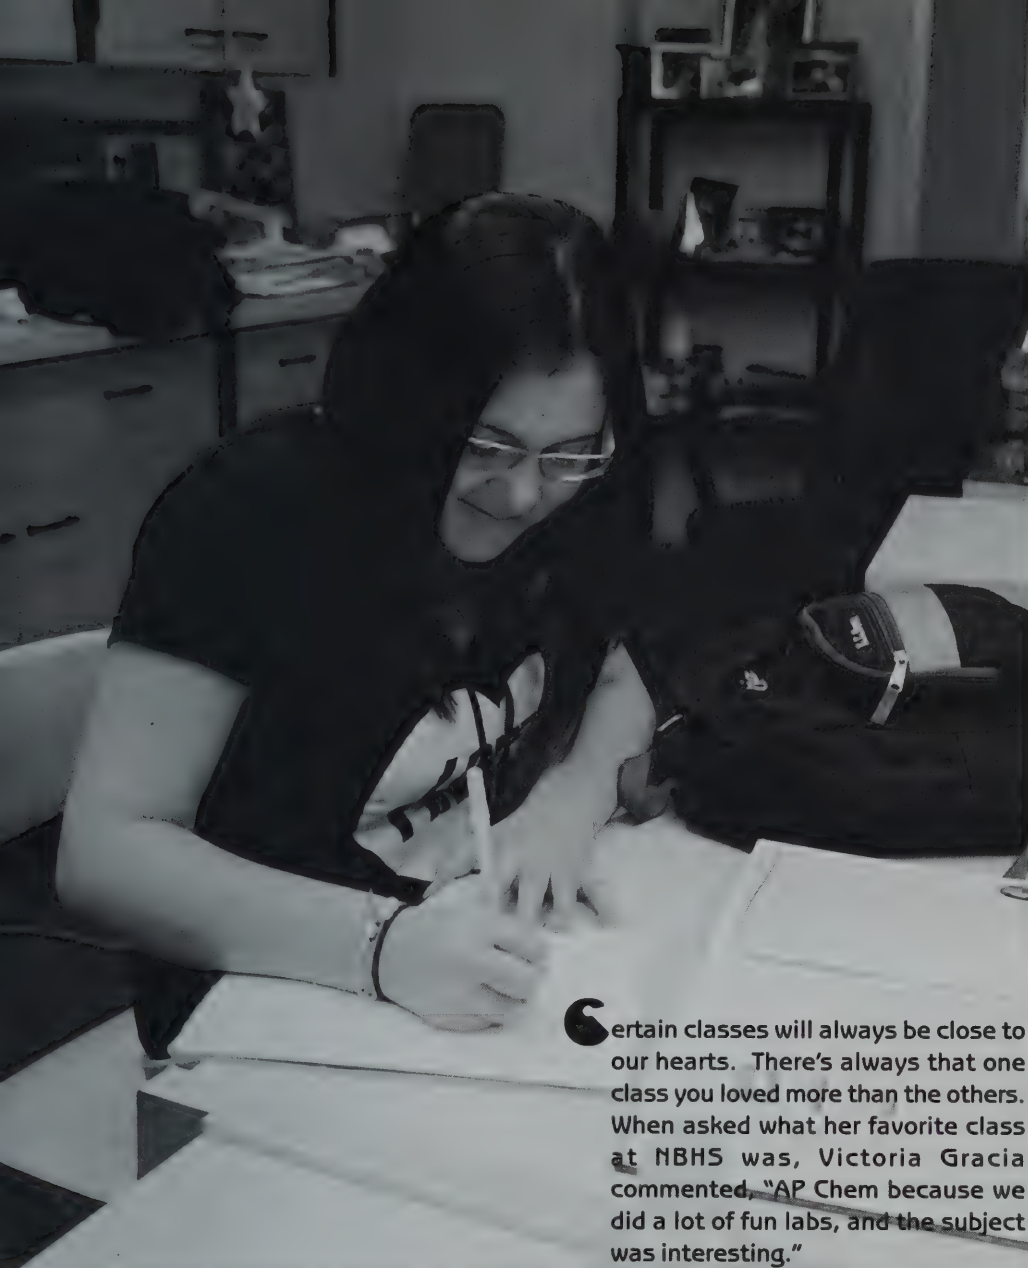

"French with Madame Plage because she was so crazy and always made us laugh."
- Shianne DeOliveira

"Office Aide because I didn't have to do anything."
- Mason Weeks

Certain classes will always be close to our hearts. There's always that one class you loved more than the others. When asked what her favorite class at NBHS was, Victoria Gracia commented, "AP Chem because we did a lot of fun labs, and the subject was interesting."

WHAT DO YOU BELIEVE

Is The Most Challenging Part of Senior Year?

College Stuff

WHICH YEAR

Was The Most Memorable and Why?

"It would have to be senior year because it was fun, and it's my last year of high school, and when I look back at all the other years, I can see how much I've grown."
-Anthony Cabral

"Freshman year because I had a lot of fun."
-Jonathan Benros

"Senior year because I'm at the top of the school being the oldest."
-Christopher Souza

"Senior year because it's my last year here."
-Kaitlyn Desmarais

"I'd say junior year because that's when I found my true friends."
-Jalen Harris

1 This being her first year at NBHS, Wanda Beras didn't have the full opportunity to experience everything the school has to offer, but has still enjoyed her Senior Year. "This school is good, though, and the teachers are really great," Wanda commented.

2 Close friends Kristen Sharp and Jesse Spigarelli take a break from their Food Management class. The two have conflicting opinions on their high school careers, though. "High school was alright," Kristen commented. "It had a lot of ups and downs," she went on to say. Jesse said, "I thought high school was wonderful; I met a lot of people, and I'm going to miss it."

"One of the best memories I have from NBHS is singing Christmas carols in Spanish class," said Joy Harris. "It was hilarious."

"NBHS is school; there's not much to say. But I'm going to miss high school," Robert Bumpus said while in Integrated Technology class during the first semester of his Senior Year.

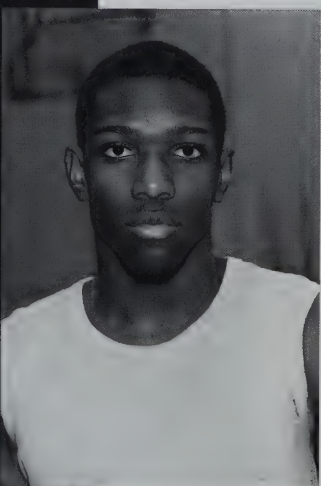

During his Foods and Nutrition class, Christopher Washer carefully stirs the peppers and onions on the stove. Chris has taken part in many activities and has joined many of NBHS's sports teams including the football and lacrosse teams. "One of my greatest memories is from freshman year during my first football game for the Whalers; the first snap was so great," Chris said.

"Here at New Bedford High, I'm a part of the wrestling team," said Walter DeOliveira while in his art class. "Being on the team keeps me motivated to come to school. I also play lacrosse."

"First coming here my thought was 'Wow, this school is huge.' I've met tons of different people," said Justin St. Pierre.

"I love basketball; it's my favorite sport and is fun," said Alonzo Herbert after an intense game in gym class.

TWO THOUSAND TEN ELEVEN WORLD YEARBOOK

THE WORLD AROUND US

IN RECOVERY

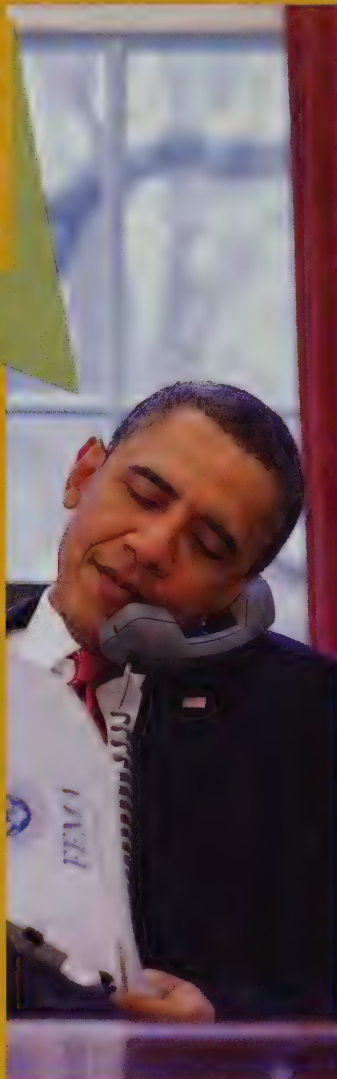

As the economy showed signs of recovery from the worst recession most Americans had ever known, President Barack Obama's satisfaction ratings also became more positive.

CYBER-BULLYING

Bullying didn't always happen at school or even in person. Some of the most vicious attacks happened over the internet on social networking sites or via instant messages. Many worried that internet bullying was becoming more prevalent because of the relative anonymity afforded by pseudonym internet names.

NEW HOMEOWNERS REJOICE First-time home buyers received tax credits of up to $8,000 when Congress passed a bill intended to revitalize a struggling housing market. The early summer deadline was later extended to give those buyers whose closings were delayed due to the number of loans being processed. WAR IS OVER In late August, President Obama announced that Operation Iraqi Freedom had officially ended. While the last combat brigades had already vacated, some U.S. troops remained in Iraq through next year and to help with training new Iraqi military forces. HEALTH-CARE REFORM The Affordable Care Act was signed into effect in March 2010, with the hope of increasing accessibility and quality of health care for all Americans. Progress for a potential repeal continued for months. PAYROLL TAX CUT Acting up throughout the economy by increasing take-home pay, those cuts lowered workers' earnings $50,000 an estimated $1,000. Some opponents worried about the decrease in the payroll taxes to Social Security funding.

A REAL ISSUE:

Though bullying had been feared in schools and neighborhoods for centuries, the changing landscape of peer teasing and torment took on a million forms in recent years.

In the past, intimidation and verbal or physical abuse may have been most common forms of bullying. Another form of bullying, social alienation, became more prevalent as a result of cyber bullying, where bullies' expectations may have been destroyed via emails, blogs, forum posts or text messages.

What most seemed to be an increase in peer and romantic abuse due to bullying, many schools, communities and other organizations moved to provide programs and information for affected students and their parents/teachers.

BULLYING

ITGETSBETTER.ORG

This movement, inspiring nearly 10,000 user-created videos and more than 30 million views, was started in 2010 by author Dan Savage. Among the celebrities, politicians and business submitting videos were President Obama, Hillary Clinton and employees of both Facebook and Google. It was a place where people could share their stories, take the It Gets Better Project pledge and watch videos of love and support.

NATIONAL SUICIDE PREVENTION LIFELINE

By calling 1-800-273-TALK, anyone feeling the extreme effects of bullying could get the support they might need from trained volunteers who were ready to help.

CARTOON NETWORK'S "STOP BULLYING, SPEAK UP" CAMPAIGN

Nickelodeon television channels such as Cartoon Network stepped up to the plate in the fight against bullying. They launched their own campaign to encourage kids to speak up and be ultimately get their schools involved in antibullying programs.

THE TREVOR PROJECT AND LIFELINE

The Trevor Project was established to end suicide among young people by providing counseling and life-affirming resources including a nationwide 24/7 crisis intervention hotline (1-866-4U-THINK), digital community and advocacy/educational programs that created a safe, supportive and positive environment for everyone.

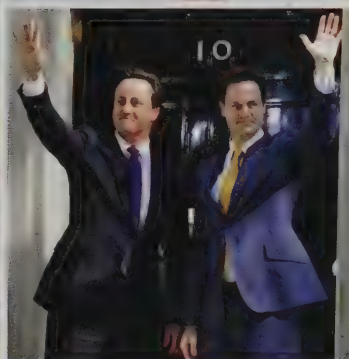

VIDEO PROOF

After the miners found their loved ones, a sense of relief by clapping in 33 men alive and accounted for, they could return to chat with their families.

BOUNCING BACK

Arizona congresswoman Gabrielle Giffords made record strides in her recovery after a gunshot wound to the head during a Tucson shooting in January that killed six others. Giffords was critically injured, but surpassed expectations in the months following the shooting.

JOINING FORCES

When Britain's 2010 election ended in a hung Parliament, the two winning rival Prime Minister candidates (David Cameron, a Conservative, and Nick Clegg, a Liberal Democrat) agreed to join forces and form a coalition government, the U.K.'s first in more than 30 years.

FLAWLESS RESCUE

Televised efforts allowed the world to look on as Chilean miners trapped underground for nearly 10 weeks by a mining accident returned to safety in October. It took just 22 hours and 37 minutes for all 33 miners to travel nearly half a mile to the surface.

EGYPTIAN OVERTHROW

President Hosni Mubarak's 30-year reign over Egypt ended in February when huge protests pushed him to step down.

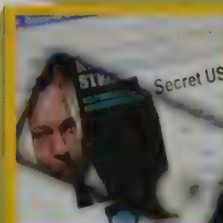

A ROYAL ENGAGEMENT

Prince William and his long-time girlfriend Kate Middleton announced April 27, wedding after a courtship marked engagement.

LOSS OF POLISH PRESIDENT

Leszek Buszyński, 68, was last seen after a fall in April 2010 while traveling in Poland. His wife was killed in the accident too.

WIKILEAKS SAGA

Julian Assange, founder of WikiLeaks, was named President Obama for TIME's 2010 Person of the Year.

SUPREME COURT

Justice Elena Kagan, formerly the Dean of Harvard Law, was sworn in as the Court's newest Justice in August. She replaced 80-year-old Justice John Paul Stevens.

MOSQUE UNREST

After hearing of plans to build a mosque in the community center within blocks of Ground Zero, protesters crowded the streets.

NEW SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE

/DON'T MESS WITH MOTHER

VOLCANIC ASH

European air travel was severely disrupted when Eyjafjallajökull, an Icelandic volcano, erupted through the summer months producing a dense, enormous ash cloud.

EGG RECALL

Nearly half a billion eggs were recalled from nearly 20 states after a salmonella outbreak sickened thousands. All of the eggs came from a single egg-producing company in Iowa.

SNOWPOCALYPSE

Winter yielded record snow levels. Many areas of the country saw multiple school delays and closings due to snow. On Jan. 12, 2011, 49 of the 50 states reported snow on the ground.

IN LIVING COLOR

Scientists revealed the discovery of the biological structure that gives feathers their color in the journal, Nature. The report provided evidence that dinosaurs had a coat of downy feathers.

CAR BOMB ATTEMPT

An observant sidewalk vendor who noticed a smoking car and alerted police helped avoid a potentially dangerous situation in Times Square.

GUILTY

Faisal Shahzad, a 30-year-old Pakistani-born U.S. citizen, was arrested as he tried to leave the country and later pleaded guilty to the attempt.

HOW BIZARRE

In a matter of a couple of days in January, hundreds of birds and fish died mysteriously in several states. WV MINING TRAGEDY A devastating April 2010 explosion killed 29 miners and injured others; the mining company had a history of safety and environmental infractions. NEANDERTHAL DNA German scientists partially reconstructed the Neanderthal genome and proved the survival of the genome in modern humans.

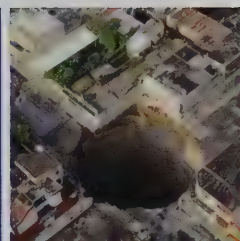

AND THEN

Nearly 100 tons of dead fish, mostly sardines, washed up on a Brazilian beach and reports of other mass deaths came from Italy and France.

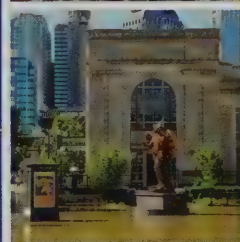

While theories about the mass deaths included everything from cold stress and fireworks to hail, many scientists suggested that the various occurrences were merely coincidental.

NATURE

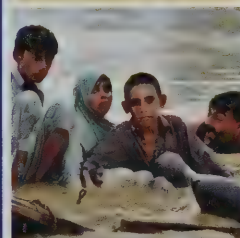

THE 'HOLE' STORY

A massive sinkhole in Guatemala City opened up and swallowed a 3-story building after Tropical Storm Agatha flooded the area with more than three feet of rain in May and June.

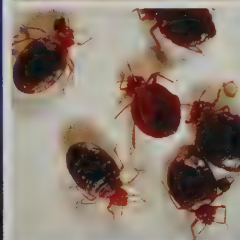

UNRELENTING RAIN

Nashville suffered its worst flood in more than 80 years after storms dumped more than 13 inches of rain on the region in two days. Buildings were flooded and more than 30 died.

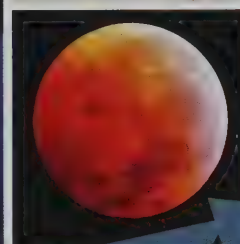

LA NIÑA MONSOONS

Nearly 2,000 were killed and an estimated one quarter of the land in Pakistan was flooded in July. Miles of highway and railways and acres of farmland were ruined.

SLEEP TIGHT

Bedbugs terrorized the nation, invading hotels and stores nationwide. Because of the problem, a National Bedbug Registry allowed travelers to investigate hotels before checking in.

OUT OF THIS WORLD

A solstice lunar eclipse — the first since 1638 — occurred on Dec. 21, 2010, and was visible across North America.

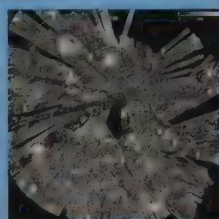

MINING MATTERS

A massive, 53-mile-long mine in West Virginia last contributed 30,000 tons of coal to the state's economy, and its closure is the nation's largest reduction in coal output.

OLDEST GALAXY

NASA's Hubble Space Telescope discovered a small, distant cluster of stars 13.2 billion light years away, the Milky Way's first cousin.

LUNAR WATER

Apollo 16 found millions of tons of water ice at the Moon's north pole. The water source could be used to support a lunar base or generate oxygen.

NEW PLANETS

NASA announced that its Kepler Telescope had identified 51 planets that could sustain human life. Conditions conducive to liquid water meant the planets might be habitable.

LAST SHUTTLE

The final space shuttle mission of 2011 — and NASA's very last shuttle flight ever — was scheduled for Atlantis on June 28, 2011.

OIL SPILL IN THE GULF

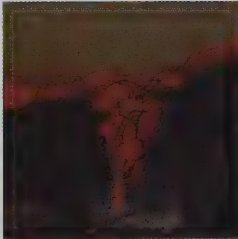

BRITISH PETROLEUM

CEO Tony Hayward testified before the House Energy and Commerce Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee. Hayward resigned from his post on July 27, 2010.

205 MILLION GALLONS

The amount of crude oil that spilled into the Gulf of Mexico made this the world's largest accidental oil spill in history. After five months, the well was declared "effectively dead."

THE PEOPLE SPEAK

BP station boycotts and anti-BP social media groups as well as traditional protests, like this one in Vienna, Austria, allowed people to make their feelings about the oil spill known.

BOUND TO HAPPEN

The follow-up report by the National Commission on the BP Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill and Offshore Drilling said 'systemic' problems caused the blowout/oil spill and only 'significant reform' could prevent future spills.

THE STATS

APRIL 20, 2010

BP oil rig Deepwater Horizon exploded in the Gulf of Mexico, killing 11 men and injuring 17 others. In late April, BP estimated the resulting leak at about 5,000 barrels (210,000 gallons) a day.

A BADLY ESTIMATED

In June, the government predicted that Deepwater Horizon would leak 30,000 to 40,000 barrels (1.2 million gallons) of oil a day, putting the total spill at 1.5 million barrels.

OBAMA SPEAKS

The President addressed the nation after traveling to the gulf to oversee the cleanup efforts to the Louisiana coastline.

ORGANIZED CHAOS

Five months, hundreds of hours were devoted at sea to help prevent any further spreading of the oil to the shoreline. Chaos in the water was avoided.

WHY THEY WON'T

BP projected that they had already spent $2 billion on clean-up efforts by June. The budget topped $20 billion over the next year.

LESSONS

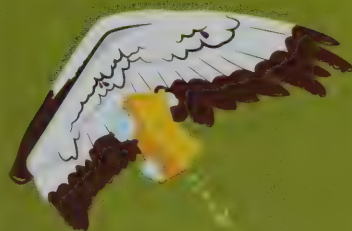

The nation was able to recover the oil leaking from the hole for two days, but the public was assured the spill would be under control.

HOW TO PROPERLY WASH OIL-COVERED BIRDS

STEP 1

Gently flush eyes with warm saline solution. Swab oil from nostrils and bill. Remove any oil from stomach with tube.

STEP 2

Wash oil from body and wings with a dishwashing solution. Make sure to wipe the feathers in the direction they are growing.

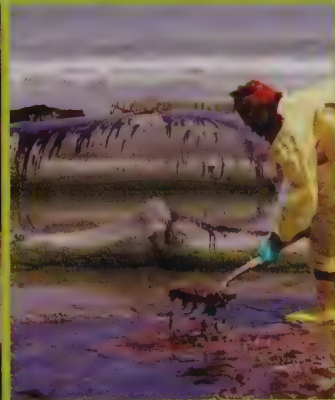

STEP 3

Repeat 3-4 times until oil is completely washed away, then gently towel dry bird. Bird will be ready for release in 2-4 days.

DEADLY SERIOUS Oil contamination is often deadly for birds if they are not properly washed and cared for. Oil reverses birds' water-resistant feathers, making them vulnerable to temperature change. Oily feathers also make it impossible for birds to fly and can even drag them underwater to drown. The oil can also cause internal harm when birds try to preen the oil from their feathers. It can cause kidney, liver and reproductive damage among other things.

DISASTROUS Scientists and other volunteers worked on all kinds of wildlife affected by the spill. The processes for cleaning birds, turtles and dolphins varied, as did survivors' chances for recovery. Thousands of birds and dozens of turtles and dolphins perished. LASTING EFFECTS In addition to the casualties and the damage to wildlife, there are numerous other long-term effects. Human health issues included increased risk of cancer and other ailments, as well as escalated stress. Two of the region's other major industries (tourism and seafood) were shut down immediately and suffered lasting losses. Louisiana traditionally contributed a third of the nation's shrimp, oysters, crab and crawdads and, despite massive marketing campaigns, hotels and resorts on the gulf shore suffered decreased occupancy throughout the summer.

STRENGTH IN NUMBERS

By June, 558,000 barrels had been collected from the water's surface and nearly 1,240 miles worth of booms had been set up to prevent oil from reaching the shoreline.

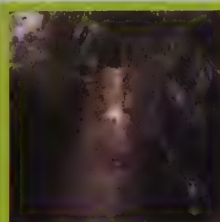

HELPLESS

While four wildlife rehabilitation centers were established in response to the oil spill, 36 national wildlife sanctuaries were threatened.

OTHERS JOINED IN

Mexico, Norway, Canada and the Netherlands all donated equipment (such as the water-skimming system on the right) to aid in the clean-up efforts.

JULY 15, 2010

After nearly three months, the leak was finally capped, but not before the effects of the spill could be seen in photos that were taken from space.

NO LIGHTER AREA

It was estimated that more than 1,25 miles of Louisiana shoreline was contaminated with the washed up crude oil.

THE CAPTURE PLAN

Discoverer Enterprise, a deepwater drilling vessel, aided in recovering the spilled oil gushing from the leak site after a cap was placed in June.

/THE MAKING OF

TIGERS EDGE DUCKS

The top-ranked Auburn Tigers defeated the No. 2 Oregon Ducks 22-19 in the BCS Championship game in Glendale, AZ as the 2010-11 season wrapped up. Auburn quarterback and Heisman Trophy winner Cam Newton threw for 256 yards and rushed for another 64, accounting for two touchdowns. Freshman running back Michael Dyer was named MVP. Senior Wes Byrum kicked his sixth career game-winning field goal on the last play of the game to save the Tigers' perfect season. This was the fifth consecutive national championship for the SEC.

FAST AND FURIOUS X 5

Jimmie Johnson came in second to Carl Edwards at the Ford 400 at Homestead-Miami, but that was enough to vault him over Denny Hamlin in the points race to win his fifth consecutive NASCAR Sprint Cup Championship. Hamlin's car was damaged early in the race and never challenged for the lead. Only Richard Petty and Dale Earnhardt, with seven championships each, had more titles than Johnson. Between 2002 (when he joined Hendrick Motorsports) and 2010, Johnson recorded 53 wins, 203 top-ten finishes and 25 pole positions.

DUKE DOES IT AGAIN The Duke Blue Devils captured the NCAA men's basketball championship for a fourth time with a 61-59 win over Butler in Indianapolis, IN. Duke's Final Four title, their first since 2001, snapped Butler's 25-game win streak. FREE FALLIN' Canadian freestyle skier Kaya Turski, in her first run since ACL surgery in April, claimed gold in the 2011 Winter X Slopestyle, repeating her win from last year. Turski also took silver in the 2011 Freestyle World Championships. THREE OUT OF FOUR Tennis star Rafael Nadal won the French Open, Wimbledon and the U.S. Open, bringing his total of Grand Slam victories to nine. Roger Federer won the Australian Open.

RATINGS SOAR

An estimated 715 million viewers — approximately one in 10 people alive at the time — watched the final match of the 2010 World Cup.

WAVES OF GRIEF

Andy Irons, three-time world surfing champion, died at age 32. He had 20 World Tour victories and four Triple Crown of Surfing titles.

FACEOFF

Watson, an IBM supercomputer, battled two past Jeopardy! champions, winning handily. The $77,147 in prize money was donated to charity.

SNOWED UNDER

The inflatable Teflon roof of Minnesota's Metrodome collapsed under more than 17" of snow, delaying and moving the Vikings vs. Giants game.

A NYC LEGEND

George Steinbrenner, owner of the New York Yankees for more than 37 years, died at age 80. Steinbrenner's Yankees won seven World Series and 11 pennants.

THE CREAM RISES

Paula Creamer held off competitors Suzann Pettersen and Na Yeon Choi to secure victory at the 65th Women's U.S. Open. This was her first major tournament win.

CHAMPIONS

U.S. OPEN CHAMP

For the first time in 40 years, a European brought home the cup when Northern Ireland's Graeme McDowell won at Pebble Beach in 2010.

VUVUZA WHAT?

The distinctive sound of vuvuzelas, plastic horns long associated with soccer in South Africa, gained international exposure during 2010 World Cup play.

RETURN POLICY

In September, New Orleans Saints running back Reggie Bush surrendered the 2005 Heisman Trophy after it became clear there'd been violations at USC.

RENEWED

LAKE SHOW vs THE CELTS

Bird and Magic, Kareem and Ainge, Kobe and Pierce, Garnett and Gasol. The rivalry between these two historic NBA teams was renewed in the late 2000s; after Boston capped off with the win in a six-game battle in 2008, L.A. won a thrilling seven-game series in 2010. Combined, these teams held 32 NBA titles. That's more than half of the NBA's total championships!

/SUPER COMPETITORS

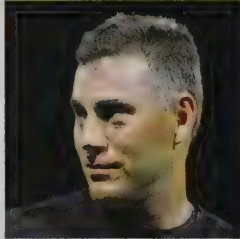

USA'S GOT GAME

Landon Donavon's goal in extra time gave the U.S. team a World Cup victory over Algeria that advanced them to the Round of 16 where their tournament ended with a loss to Ghana.

A COACH'S SACRIFICE

Wake Forest University baseball coach Tom Walter donated one of his kidneys to freshman outfielder Kevin Jordan. Walter insisted he was not a hero, but many disagreed.

YELLOW JERSEY #3

Spaniard Alberto Contador finished 39 seconds ahead of Luxembourg's Andy Schleck to win his third Tour de France. This was Spain's fifth consecutive yellow jersey.

ROCKY STRIKES AGAIN

Actor Sylvester Stallone was inducted into the International Boxing Hall of Fame to recognize the impact his six "Rocky" movies, the first of which debuted in 1976, had on the sport.

OVERTIME WIN

Spain defeated the Netherlands 1-0 in front of 84,490 fans in South Africa to win its first World Cup. Spain was the eighth nation to earn soccer's highest honor.

A NEW RECORD

The University of Connecticut women's basketball team set a new record with 90 consecutive wins. The previous record was set by the UCLA men's team in 1974. The Huskies' streak ended with a loss to Stanford.

THE NEW A-ROD

GOLD X 4

With a record-breaking run, Shaun White earned an unprecedented fourth gold medal in the snowboard superpipe at the 2011 Winter X Games in Aspen.

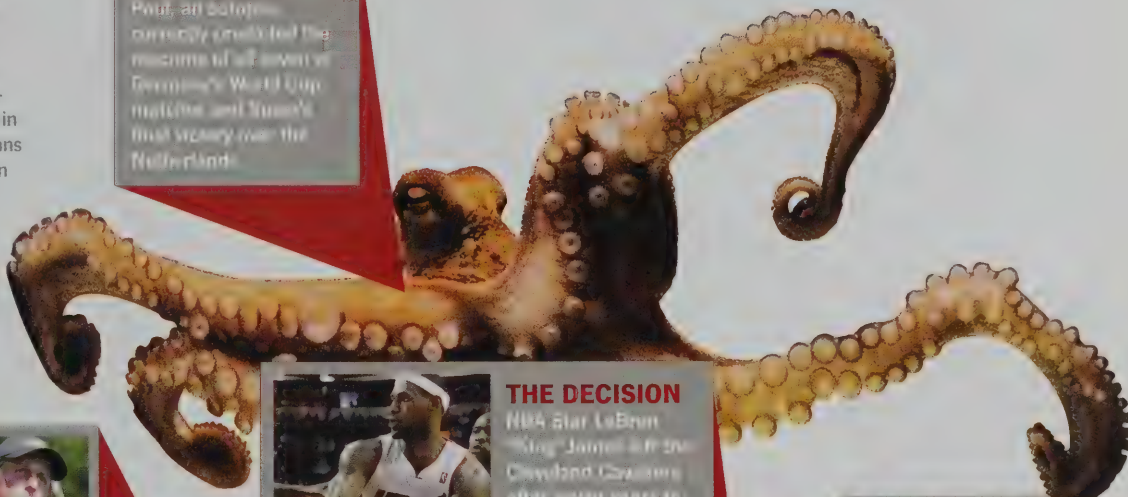

SUPER BOWL CHAMPS

The Packers took the Lombardi Trophy back to Green Bay with a 31-25 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV. Despite a fourth quarter rally by the Steelers, the Packers won their fourth Super Bowl and 13th NFL title. The two storied franchises went head-to-head at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, TX with 103,219 fans in attendance and 111 million watching on television. Due to safety concerns, 2000 ticket holders were forced to sit in temporary seating with 400 of the displaced fans left with no seats at all.

PSYCHIC OCTOPUS

Pout, an octopus, correctly predicted the outcome of seven of Germany's World Cup matches and Russia's final victory over the Netherlands.

GREEN JACKET #3

Phil Mickelson claimed his third Masters title, beating third-round leader Lee Westwood by three strokes. His wife, Amy, battling breast cancer, was in luck for his victory.

THE DECISION

NBA star LeBron "King James" left the Cleveland Cavaliers after seven years to join the Miami Heat alongside Dwyane Wade and Chris Bosh.

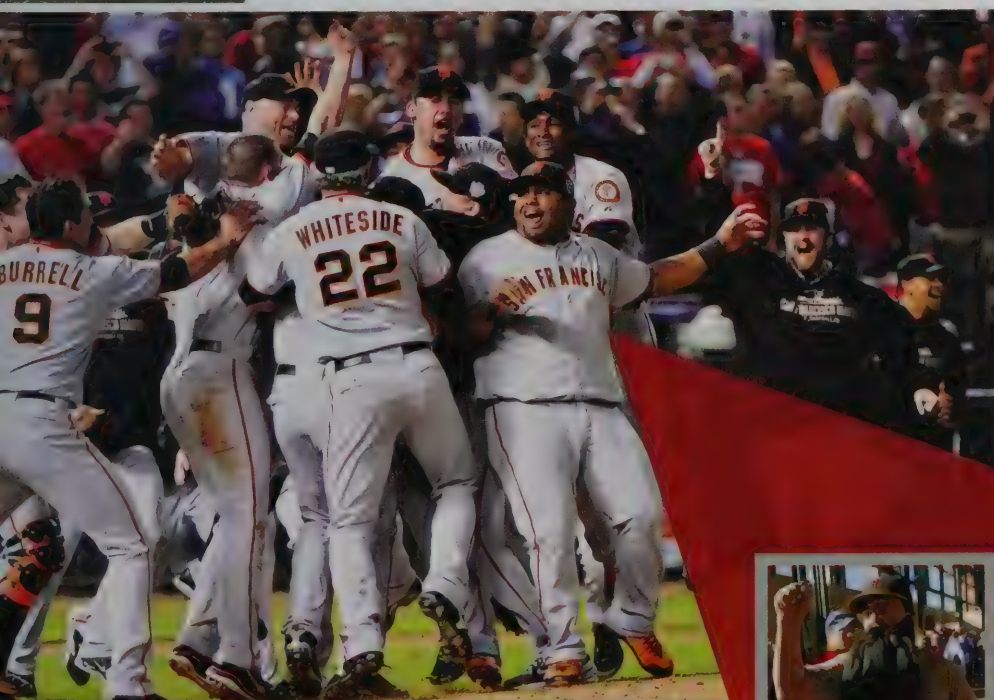

HOCKEY CHAMPS

The 2010 Stanley Cup went to the Chicago Blackhawks after Patrick Kane's wartime goal helped defeat the Philadelphia Flyers 4-3.

13 AND COUNTING

Serena Williams defeated Vera Zvonareva to win her fourth Wimbledon title and her 13th Grand Slam trophy. Only five other women had won more Grand Slam victories.

A GIANT WIN

The San Francisco Giants won the World Series in game five by defeating the Texas Rangers 3-1. The Giants' previous World Series win was in 1954 when the team was still in New York. Series MVP Edgar Renteria hit the home run that won the game and the series. In 1997, his single in the seventh game won the World Series for the Florida Marlins.

FEAR THE BEARD

Fans were like lions during the postgame to see the 'Beard' who had sported a dark brown beard since 2003.

/THE WORLD IS A STAGE

BIEBER FEVER

Justin Bieber, the 17-year-old Canadian pop star who began his career on YouTube, released his 3-D biopic and his second remix album the same weekend in February, 2011 to significant commercial success. The releases followed unrewarded Grammy nominations for Best New Artist and Best Pop Album and 2011 People's Choice nominations for Best Video and Breakout Artist.

GET THE LOOK

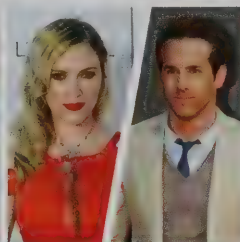

Not everyone was blessed with super smooth and naturally windblown hair like Justin had, but with these simple steps, you too could sport the Bieber 'Do.'

HOW TO After washing, simply apply some smoothing product into your hair and then stand sideways in a windtunnel until dry. Keep still, or you could come out looking like a bad 80's music video!

BABY BABY BABY!

Voilà! You're the spitting image of Justin Bieber himself. However, proceed with caution... as you could very well start a riot of mistaken Bieber fangirls!

BEATLES ON iTUNES

Apple CEO Steve Jobs finally got his way when the Beatles collection was added to iTunes in November 2010.

DIVORCE COURT

After two years, citing the strain of managing two successful careers, Scarlett Johansson and Ryan Reynolds filed for divorce.

LOST FINALE

In its sixth and final season ABC's Lost was nominated for 12 Emmys and left fans wanting more.

HE'S BACK!!

Conan O'Brien had amazing numbers when he debuted his late night show, Conan, on TBS.

OPRAH'S LAST HURRAH

After 25 years hosting her afternoon talk show, Oprah Winfrey had other plans, including her own network.

ANIMAL DEBUT

Ke$ha was certified five times platinum for downloads of her hit single "Tik Tok."

NO MORE MUSIC

Singer/actress Ashlee Simpson reverted to her maiden name when divorced from Pete Wentz.

AMERICAN IDIOT

After a year on Broadway, the one-act musical based on Green Day's album by the same name won a Grammy.

X-FACTOR

After nine seasons, Simon Cowell left American Idol to bring his British hit show X-Factor, which featured solo performers and groups, to American TV.

AMERICAN IDOL

Only Randy Jackson remained as a judge for season 10; he was joined by Steven Tyler and Jennifer Lopez when auditions commenced in 2011.

TOP HONORS

Based on true events, The King's Speech was nominated for 12 Academy Awards and won Best Actor, Best Film, Best Director and Best Original Screenplay.

10 BILLION APPS

Apple reached its milestone download of apps for mobile devices on January 22, 2011 after weeks of promotion; the lucky customer earned a $10,000 iTunes giftcard.

TOP OF THE CHARTS

Super Mario Galaxy 2 was introduced with a rolling release for the Nintendo Wii in the spring of 2010 and was considered one of the best video games of all time with a 97/100 rating on Metacritic.

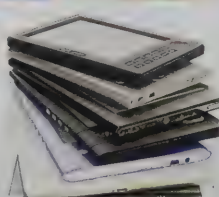

USING STREET VIEW

eREADERS

Amazon's Kindle, Barnes & Noble's Nook, Apple's iPad and the newcomer Samsung Galaxy were among the eReaders/tablet devices sold in 2010, making personal libraries mobile.

MUSIC EVERYWHERE

Sonos Home Music System allowed listeners to hear their favorite music in multiple rooms with a remote and any computer. Similar systems were also created for iPads and other devices.

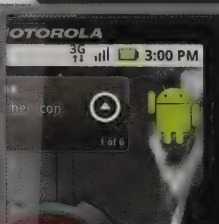

BIG BAGS

From the runways at Fashion Week to malls and campus hallways and classrooms, the popularity of the hobo bag and other supersized purses was apparent.

RAY-BAN REVIVAL

When these '80s mainstays first made their comeback, vintage stores and eBay were practical sources, but demand encouraged renewed production.

SMARTPHONES

It seemed that nearly everyone had become increasingly dependent on their smartphones, toting an iPhone, Droid or BlackBerry wherever they went.

JEGGINGS

When designers crossed leggings with jeans, they got comfy jeggings. Even Conan O'Brien donned a pair on-screen in support of this trendy style.

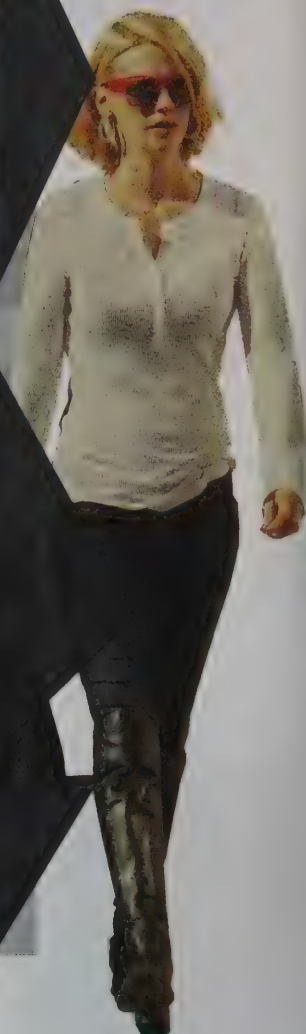

SKINNY JEANS

Hipsters all over the U.S. and Europe started the revival of popularity in these taut denim pants, but the style had become mainstream in recent years.

BOOTS GALORE

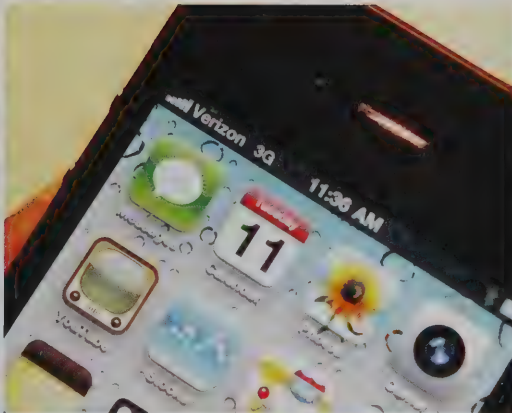

From flats to spiky heels and everywhere in between, boots seemed to command fashion attention as they completed outfits of many styles.

ANOTHER DIMENSION Sales of another new tech fad, 3-D television, nearly doubled in 2011 from when the technology was first introduced just a year earlier. With an estimated four million 3-D sets sold in 2011, industry consultants suggested that figure could double again by 2012 as manufacturers hope to tap into the 3-D gaming market. INVISIBLE CURRENTS The technology of inductive charging or wireless charging of any device with a lithium battery made its way into homes and offices when users became able to lay their mobile devices on a "power mat" and charge them without any wires or adaptors.

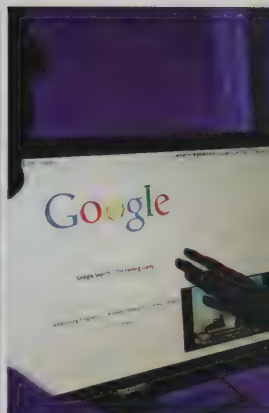

IPHONE ENVY

After five years of the iPhone only being available on AT&T's network, Verizon revealed that they'd become a carrier for the most popular smartphone on the market in February 2011. Verizon announced its most successful first-day sales in company history selling 2.9 million phones in a two-hour span to existing customers. While new customers were required to wait a week to purchase Verizon's iPhone, sales data was not immediately available, partially because of high online sales.

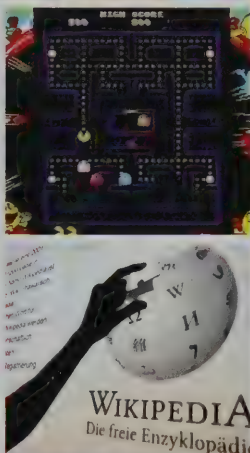

TV/BROWSER OR BOTH?

A relatively new technology, Google TV was an internet-connected TV platform that allowed users to stream videos, movies and music and access other information downloadable from the internet on larger screens. Introduced at a May 2010 web developers' conference, Google TV was directly incorporated into some newer high-definition televisions and Blu-ray players. In addition, some users acquired a set-top box containing the Android-based system and necessary accessories in order to have split-screen access to surf the web on the TV while still watching other programming.

IT'S ELECTRIC

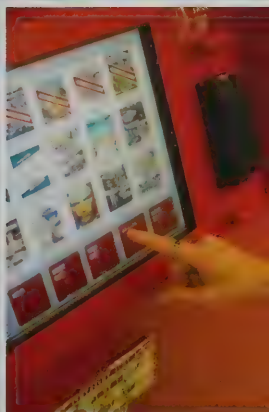

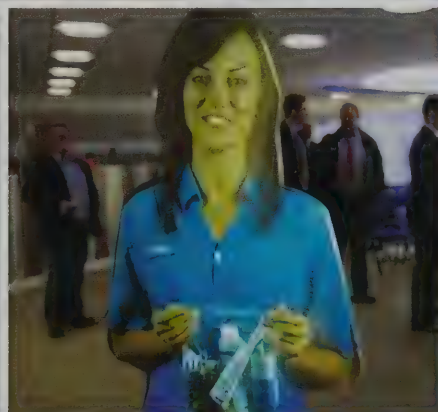

In December 2010, Nissan began selling its version of the electric car, the Leaf, in five states. In addition 20,000 cars had been "reserved." The battery-powered car used a 120v plug to recharge and Nissan claimed it could go 100 miles between charges. The Nissan Leaf won the 2010 Green Car Vision Award and the 2011 European Car of the Year award for its "no tailpipe pollution or greenhouse gas emissions" operation.

SHOE GLOVES Made to feel like you're running barefoot, the Five Fingers running shoes from Vibram found their way onto runners' feet everywhere. PACMAN RETURNS Google celebrated the 30th anniversary of Pacman in May 2010 with the first-ever interactive Google logo illustration. The game, which resembled the arcade original, was live for just 48 hours on the Google search screen. WIKIPEDIA The San Francisco-based online encyclopedia which pioneered shared knowledge resources celebrated its 10th birthday. The reference was available in many languages; the ten most popular all included more than 500,000 articles. CHILDREN A study conducted by AVG found that 90% of 2-5 year olds could work a smartphone app but only 9% of the same group could tie their shoes.

AN APPLE A DAY The first-of-its-kind iPad tablet was a huge hit, selling 300,000 the first day, three million devices in 80 days, and nearly 15 million units in calendar 2010. HOLOGRAPHIC TSAs Hoping to eliminate human inconsistency, several airports in the UK began beaming holographic images of agents to prep travelers for the security line. RED BOX IS EVERYWHERE After studying customer habits, video rental business models changed. Red Box offered $1 movies at more than 25,000 locations and Netflix downloads became instantly available on almost any computer or mobile device.

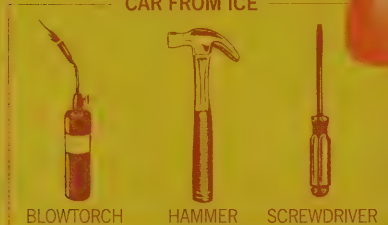

OTHER "NEWS"

CAR-SICLE

January 23, 2011 was a bad day for New Yorker Doreen Harkin. Three days later in the Bronx to the M.T. Carver residence. When her husband's car was hit by a truck, it was a tragedy. Hello fellow seniors! I am Editor-In-Chief of the 2011 yearbook. I would like to thank Ms. Oliveira; her dedication and attitude is the reason why this yearbook is so great. Honorable mentions go to Brittany Nunes, Jenna Sylvia, and Lexie Theodore. This yearbook took lots of hard work, time, great people and dedication. With a little help from laughing to keep the sanity, my hope is that you all are satisfied and are as proud as I am. Good Luck everyone in all that you do. Peace.

2011 Crimson Log Volume 72: The New Bedford High School 2011 Yearbook was created by the student staff in class and after school from September 2010 to March 2011.

Theme: The theme of this edition of the Crimson Log was "Four Years Set in Stone." The staff brainstormed for days before everyone agreed with this theme. The times we've spent here, and the memories we've made are cemented in our minds and cannot be changed.

Illustration and Publication: The Crimson Log was printed by Herff Jones Publishing Company in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania as it has been in past years. Our Herff Jones representatives were Richard Sweich and Mary Helen Marina. Thanks also to Mare Studios for the pictures and portraits in the yearbook.

Cost and Distribution: The cost of the 2011 Crimson Log was $43,315. There were 365 copies printed. Copies were made available for $90, along with the option of additional features such as a Spring Supplement, nameplate, and dust cover.

Staff: The 2011 staff consisted of 18 members, including Editor-In-Chief Rachel Borba and Secretary and Business Manager Kenya Baer-Clark.

Details: The book is 9 x12 inches. The cover is a four color lithograph with a sand grain applied. Inside, the endsheets are printed on white stock, and the 256 pages are printed on 80 pound glossy paper. There are 21 different fonts used inside this edition.
